COST OF TELEGRAMS.

Our Boards of Trade and representatives continue to urge the Government to do something practical towards lessening the cost of the P. E. Island telegraph service—which is, proportionately, twice as great as that of the older and settled parts of the North American Continent. The latest news is that Mr. Martin will ask whether the government is making any arrangement with the Anglo-American Telegraph Company for reduction of P. E. Island telegraph rates. After all the recent efforts of The Guardian, we fully expected that the estimates of this year would have contained an additional item—an amount to enable the telegraph company to lower its rates and afford the facilities for which The Guardian has clamoured. The government is stingy to meanness about a matter affecting the business community of this little Province. Though it could give Mr. Tarte carte blanche for $50,000 to squander in "the gay capital" of France and authorize the expenditure of $60,000 in the ornamentation of our Washington of the North, Twenty-four dollars to buy a plankway to the Post Office seems to be the measure of its ability to facilitate business in Prince Edward Island.

Earncliffe Notes.

We regret to learn of the illness of Mr. Melville Willock, China Point.

Mr. John McEachern, Cherry Valley, has almost completely recovered from his severe illness.

Mr. John Morrissey is loading a vessel at China Point wharf with hay, oats and potatoes for the Cape Breton market.

Why is the moon like a Grit Prohibitionist? Because it often gets full, and then spends its last quarter.

Mr. Edward J. Carrier sold his fine young black mare a few days ago to Mr. Owen Sullivan, of Vernon River Bridge, for a snug sum.

The Earncliffe patrons of the Vernon River cheese factory are pleased to learn that the contract for handling their milk this season has been given to Mr. Thos. McPhee who did the work so faithfully and well last season.

Will some one please tell us why the Jacques Cartier, that is now making regular trips between Charlottetown and Brush wharf, does not call at China Point? There must be some mistake, and we await, with interest, further information from those who know, as the interest of a great many are concerned in this matter.

Would it not be foolish if Kruger were to suggest that the British and Boers unite and form a coalition government for South Africa? But if he did, and Roberts were to invite the Boers to come over to this side, would not the Patriot call this invitation a "Macedonian cry"?

Mr. John McAulay, of Pinette, recently went to Sydney where his father, Mr. Daniel McAulay, who was one of the most popular and skillful carpenter's in Belfast, has been working for some time. Being fine, intelligent young men, Mr. McAulay and the four boys, who accompanied him, will be very much missed in and around Pinette.

Travellers to and from Earncliffe will be pleased to find that a very dangerous part of the western Earncliffe road has been repaired—and well repaired too—for the job was done by Mr. Jas P. Irving, of Cherry Valley, who has a reputation for doing his work in a skillful and scientific way. We trust that the Government will be able to spare our friend a few dollars of "blood money" for saving our oxles, and perhaps our necks.

We would suggest to our young friend, who is in the habit of expressing his love for the girl by putting the stamp on the letter upside down, that it would be advisable for him to reverse the stamp inside the envelope, in the future, if he does not want to have some of his midnight "soliloquies" disturbed by the vision of a man dressed in khaki and merging from behind a wood-pile with a shot gun. Rex.

Bay View and Cavendish Notes.

On Tuesday night last a quantity of lumber, consisting of shingles, laths, boards, etc., the property of Mr. A. W. Stewart, was destroyed by fire, the cause of which is unknown. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Stewart. There was no insurance.

Capt. Gallant reports the loss of a quantity of lobster fishing gear by the return of the ice.

Judging from reports, the Cavendish juveniles are not making history of each good report as that of their ancient fathers.

"Will they na' come back again"—the stones?

'Twas an abrupt ending of their tete-a-tete, and as they again assumed the perpendicular he cried, "This insult shall be avenged." But the difference between saying and doing was realized, when the unfriendly barbed wire forbade him the right to remove his Sunday suit.

The Commissioner of the Public Works Department of this station, Mr. J. T. Hillman, is already at work and guarantees that the ruts and water-ways shall not make it unpleasant for travel during his term of office.

Mr. Jeremiah Simpson, who has been visiting friends in Sydney, has returned to his home in Bay View.

Contractors Clark & Cullen have about completed the repairs to the Bay View Bridge.

Our veteran fisherman, Mr. Albert Grahams, is getting ready his raft for the season's work.

DIED

At Mitchell River, North Cardigan, April 17th., Ann, wife of the late Richard Green, aged 78 years.

CONCERT AT WHEATLEY RIVER.—The singing school closes for the term on Monday evening, 30th April. A choice programme will be rendered. The solos will include, "If the Waters Could Speak as they Flow," and a sea song by Mr. Shaw, "Absen-Minded Beggar," "Man Behind the Gun," "Just Break the News to Mother," "That is Love," will be presented by local stars. A full attendance of the choir is requested. A collection will be taken at the door to help defray expenses.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste and sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

School Examination.

The half-yearly examination of the Rose Valley school was held on Saturday, the 21st inst., in the presence of a number of the parents and ratepayers of the District. There were 33 pupils present who were examined by the teacher, Charles S. McDonald, assisted by Mr. Angus Lamont, teacher of Stanchel.

The ready and correct answers of the pupils to the questions put to them, and the neatness, accuracy and promptness of their work in arithmetic and writing, elicited high praise from the visitors present and reflected much credit on their teacher.

The excellent quality of Mr. McDonald's instruction in reading, or elocution rather, was evident from the proficiency of his pupils in that important branch of education, and is worthy of special mention. The neglect of this subject in our schools in the past is painfully apparent in some of the reading efforts at our various public meetings, and the teacher who succeeds in training his pupils to pay due attention to the essential elements of good reading such as distinct articulation, proper modulation of voice, emphasis, etc., is deserving of every encouragement and praise.

The writer not having been present at the previous examination cannot state from personal knowledge as to the progress made by the school but judging by the favorable remarks of the trustees and parents who spoke at the close of the examination it must have been satisfactory.

The discipline and order of the school was faultless, and from present indications the happy relations which exist between the teacher and his pupils will not be severed by their parents for a long time to come.
