

AUGUST MAGAZINES.

LIPPINCOTT'S.

"Fortune's Vassal," by Sarah Barnwell Elliot, the complete novel in Lippincott's New Magazine for August, is undoubtedly the strongest novel to date from a pen which has already produced "The Durket Sperrit" and "An Incident and Other Happenings." In conception it is original, and in execution it is romantic and realistic. The life is that of today in a small American town anywhere you please. The controlling motives are the old—yet ever new ones of our common nature. The fiction of the month, in all respects striking, is rendered unique by the addition of "Nash's Ark" in which I. Zangwill, in his masterly way, takes his reader from the Ghetto of Frankfurt, Germany, to distant Niagara Falls. This is one of the few tales of its author which will appeal in a peculiar manner to Americans. Dr. C. W. Doyle, author of "The Taming of the Jungle," contributes a picturesque story in a field all his own, namely that of the Chinese quarter of San Francisco. A mother's tragic attempts to bring sunlight into the darkness of her "Bibi's" eyes make a lasting impression on the reader. A strong and timely paper, by Maurice Thompson, entitled "The Court of Jud. Lynch;" Miss Ellen O'nev Kirk's admirable article, "The second in the series of articles 'On Women, by Women, for Women,' entitled, "Woman: A Phase of Modernity;" Miss Anne Hoingsworth Wharton's second paper on "The Salon in Old Philadelphia;" "The Devil's Bridge," a reasonable legend of the Philippines, by Charles M. Skinner, and "Wireless Telegraphy," by George F. Barker, LL. D., are all of interest at the moment. A remarkable poem from the far West called "Two Must be Two," by Madge Morris, and "Our Islands," by Hattie Whitney, complete a midsummer number which gives character to the new career of Lippincott's.

THE WARSHIPS.—H. M. S. Indefatigable left last Thursday for the West Indies. She is to be relieved at Halifax by the Pearl. The Crescent, Pearl, Talbot and Quail will remain in Halifax until September 7th, when they leave for Montreal. When these sailors from the fleet will land and give a review, together with the musical drill. Admiral Bedford will be accompanied by Lady Bedford.

P. E. I. FRANCHISE.—In the House of Commons, on Thursday, Dr. Montague asked about a bill passed by the Senate to amend the Franchise Act by removing an anomaly existing in Prince Edward Island. It was understood, he said that the Government would take charge of the bill in the Commons. Sir Wilfrid Laurier said he would consult the Minister of Justice and give an answer later.

AN OLD AND WELL TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup.

GYPSY CONVENTION.—Representatives of all the gypsy tribes in Canada, New England and the Middle States are soon to hold a congress in Plainfield, Pa. for the purpose of choosing a queen to succeed "Snake Mary," the present ruler, who is passing beyond the ability to administer the affairs of the various tribes. "Snake Mary" is 94 years old, and for fifty years has been the ruler of the New England and Middle States tribes. She is one of the Cooper tribe, which with the Harrison tribe is the strongest of all Remyan nomads. Her nephew is head of the band with which she travels.

NOTES ON THE NEW FASHIONS FROM "MY STORE."

Black and white effects are evidently a feature of dress not to be overlooked, as something in that line is brought out in nearly every gown—extremely pleasing braids woven in black and white mixtures, white lace run with black thread and every other conceivable combination of those two tones. A novel idea is to get your narrow black velvet ribbon to the edge of white or cream lace and the effect is unusually gratifying.—The grand Album of fashions.

You can get all the new things in black and white trimmings at Sentner, McLeod & Co. Charlottetown's Modern Dry Goods Store.

Decorated quills are a new feature exhibited in the Summer Millinery. They are used principally upon cutting hats. All manner of suggestive and appropriate designs, such as golf sticks, tennis racquets, etc., are shown—Grand Album of Fashion.

All the new things in quills are to be had at "MY STORE."—The Pompadour comb which has lately made its appearance is not only a thing of beauty but of use as well, as it serves to keep in place the loosely twisted knot which is arranged rather high upon the head. The comb is prettily rounded and unusually gracefully.—The Fashion.

A very large assortment of all the new things in Pompadour Combs, etc., to be had at Sentner, McLeod & Co's.

A new idea this summer, is Soft Felt Hats for Ladies with a large quill "or a large plume" stuck in the side, the principal shapes being the Brigadier, Ascot, Boulevard and Eugenia, they are of French manufacture and are now shown at Sentner, McLeod & Co's.

Sentner, McLeod & Co. are showing a very large range of Silk and Satin Skirts "handsome goods" and no two alike, the smallness of the price will surprise you.

Fitting perfectly under the new sheath skirts is a novel petticoat-skirt in four-gored style in which the side-gores are extended in yoke effect across the back and smoothly fastened with buttons. To this yoke a full breadth is joined in gathered style and serves to hold the dress out satisfactorily about the bottom.—The Queen

The following testimonial is only one of the hundreds daily received by the Proprietors of Japanese Catarrh Cure. Coming from British Columbia, where, owing to extreme dampness of the climate, catarrh is more prevalent and more difficult to cure than in other parts, makes it more valuable. Mr. James Farr, of the well-known firm of J. & E. A. Farr, Chilliwack, B.C., writes: "I have been very badly troubled with catarrh for years, and tried all the advertised remedies and many Doctors, but in every case the catarrh came back. One year ago I purchased six boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure, and since finishing the treatment with this remedy, have not felt the least sign of catarrh. My nephew, William Bentley, was also so bad with catarrh that it was unpleasant to go near him; he has also been cured by Japanese Catarrh Cure. We keep it for sale in our store, and know of many others similarly afflicted who have been cured." Japanese Catarrh Cure is guaranteed to cure any case of catarrh. Sold by all Druggists. A free sample will be sent to any person suffering with this disease. Enclose five cent stamp. Address the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., Toronto.
