HE TELLS IT HIMSELF.

A West Oxford farmer Narrowly Escapes Premature Burial—The Causes of his Threatened Fate and Lucky Escape.

INGERSOLL Oct. 8.—W. H. Bailey of West Oxford township, claims to have only narrowly escaped premature burial a short time ago. He had had kidney disease for four years back and so badly at times that he was completely laid up. Many doctors treated him, but their treatment, in Mr. Bailey's, opinion, made him worse rather than better. His escape from a premature grave was effected by the use of the infallible Dodd's Kidney Pills. Three boxes of these cured him completely. Mr. Bailey claims to be able now to do a bigger day's work than his twenty-four year old son.

Common sense is only a modification of of talent. Genius is an exaltation of it. The difference is, therefore, in degree, not nature.—Bulwer.

A Comfort Sometimes.

When health is far gone in Consumption, sometimes only ease and comfort can be secured from the use of Scott's Emulsion. What is much better is to take this medicine in time to save your life.

At the photographer's—Miss Snapperly—Now don't begin taking my picture with that chestnut of asking me to look pleasant.

Operator—No, miss; we never ask impossibilities of our subjects.

In some industries and enterprises it is enough to mention a name to inspire immediate confidence. Priestley's dress fabrics are known throughout the world. They are chiefly made in black, plain or fancy, and black and white. They are exquisite in beauty, and drape with a soft harmoniousness of ensemble which no other dress fabrics can equal. These goods are now on sale in Canada by first-class dealers. The trade mark is "The Vanished Board" on which these goods are wrapped.

"Parker uses a great deal of cologne it seems to me. Awful bad form!" said Hawkins.

"It would be in you," said Hicks, "but it's family pride with Hawkins. He comes of good old colonial stock."

The most palatable preparation of Cod Liver Oil in the world is Miller's Emulsion and is now been taken by invalids with astonishing success. Millers is the kind that cures coughs, colds, broncitis and all throat and lung troubles. Every bottle warranted. No oily taste like others. In big bottles, 50c. and $1.00, at druggists.

A little boy, on returning from Sunday school said to his mother: "This catechism is too hard; isn't there any kittychisms for little boys."

Nervousness may well be describded as a national disease in this age of rush and worroy. Hawker's nerve and stomach tonic is the greatest restorer of wasted nerve force.

It is said that an undertaker in Kansas City advertises: "You kick the bucket; we do the rest."

For chilblains, frosted feet and all cuts and pain, use Pond's Extract. Genuine in bottles only.

The United States' battleship Maine, in her trial trip on Tuesday made 17¼ knots an hour. She is claimed to be the fastest battleship afloat.

Have you ever stopped to think how perfectly needless it is that one out of a hundred of those who now die in early life as a result of Lung troubles, should do so? If, when first threatened with weak Lungs, a few bottles of PUTTNER'S EMULSION OF COD LIVER OIL WITH PANCREATINE AND HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA, were judiciously administered to the invalid, in nine cases of ten, an early and permanent restoration to health and vigor would result.

Mrs. Mary J. Platt, a teacher in the Indian school on the Pichango reservation, in California, has been clubbed to death by Indians and her body cremated.

There is a magic in the perfect costume It makes beauty more powerful than the sovereigh. It is the brilliant setting for beauty; and for those who have not the conquering power of looks, it lends the illusion of them. Some ladies say: "It is not so much the material as the make up.' But the right material must be there, or you cannot have a creation. Priestley's dress fabrics are noted for the beautiful result they realize in the hands of the modiste, draping and fitting the figure with exquisite grace. The trade mark is "The Varnished Board.

BOSTON, Sept. 30.—John Willis Baer, general secretary of the united society of Christian Endeavor, announced to-night that the international convention of 1895 would be held in this city next July, instead of in San Francisco. It has been understood for two years that the convention would be held in the latter city, but the long delay of western railroad managers to announce a decision regarding special rates has compelled the officers to send out notifications that the conviction cannot go to the Pacific coast. The Boston convention, it is expected, will be larger than the one at Cleveland, and it is expected to bring from 25,000 to 30,000 delegates together from the United States and Canada.

Priestley's Dress Goods

A good name is more potent than thrones and kingdoms. In business a good name is vital. The name of Priestley is a synonym for what is delicate, durable and beautiful in Black Dress Goods. In England it is a household word. Priestley's dress fabrics are worn by the well dressed women of Great Britain, while on this side, they have attained to general favor. Ladies should buy no other black dress goods till they have seen Priestley's. They add to an unequalled durability, a beautiful draping quality. Women of taste understand what that means in the success of a costume.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD, Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE, Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
