Bedeque and Vicinity

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Murray, Bedeque, attended the funeral in Charlottetown, on Tuesday, 5th, of Mr. Murray's uncle, the late Mr. Frank Riggs.

Mr. Arthur Murray left on Wednesday morning for Saint John on a business trip. Mr. Murray is an employee of the Ralph Calbeck Company, Central Bedeque.

Rev. C. A. Britten, pastor of Central Bedeque Baptist Church, has been in Wolfville, N. S., attending the Convention of that Church body.

Mr. William Calbeck, Jr., Miss Marion Schurman, Mr. Norris Mazino, and Mr. Hazen Hogg, all of Central Bedeque, have left for F. W. C.

The Bedeque "Half-Century Club" met on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Louis Muttart, for their September meeting. The usual routine of business was dealt with. This was followed by a very interesting programme. Two new members were cordially welcomed to the Club. Refreshments served by the hostess brought the meeting to a close.

A post-nuptial "shower" was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thorne Affleck, Lower Bedeque, on Tuesday evening, 5th. When the large gathering was comfortably seated, Mr. Willard Waugh and Mrs. Ian Webster escorted the newly-weds, Mr. and Mrs. Lorne MacCallum, to seats of honour. They were then presented with a large doll, composed of pantry utensils. These were ingeniously worked in to the "make-up" of the doll. Needless to say this aroused much merriment. Many other lovely gifts of linen, china, pyrex, etc., were opened by Mrs. Morley Muttart and Mrs. Ian Webster. The accompanying verses were read by Mrs. Douglas Affleck and Miss Ruth MacFarlane. These gifts, after being received by the newly-weds, were placed on the table by Miss Hazel Jewell. Mr. MacCallum, on behalf of himself and his bride, cordially thanked all present. The singing of "They Are Jolly Good Fellows" and serving of refreshments ended a pleasant evening.
