SERIOUS CASUALTIES ISSUES

China arrived at 11 p. m., yesterday

On Friday last, at about 5.30, the "Fiddle," in which were about twenty persons, dashing through pannelled causing several sad casualties.

Mr. J. C. Cogswell, of Halifax, killed.

One man had his leg broken and his face frightfully disfigured, and remained senseless for hours. Many were injured.

Mr. Peter Mitchell had his sprained and was otherwise bruised, legs to be all right in a few days; he has narrow escape.

The Fiddle is the covered in front of the main dining saloon in which placed the donkey engine, and which is used as a smoking room, or place of resort for gentlemen. It must have been a heavy sea that washed through carriage passengers, fell well against the bulwark and one man overboard. It is rare to have such ill-fortune to record in connection with the Cunard boats.

Union to take effect in July!

Ottawa gave most hearty welcome to returned Delegates.

Macdonald in speech referring to statements as to transportation of capital to Montreal, affirmed Ottawa would always be seat of Government.

He explained that the Union Proclamation had not issued on the appointed day owing to Cartier and McGe's absence from London and consequent delay in completing and sanctioning list of Senators from Quebec.

Proclamation of Union will be issued in the beginning of next week!

It will go into effect by the middle of July.

The steamer Merritt and three brigantines sailed for St. John yesterday, all loaded with flour and provisions.

About twenty thousand Norwegian emigrants expected in Canada this summer.

THE MARKET.

An advance has taken place in all grades of flour. Ordinary superfine sold to-day at $8.90, a 88.95, and strong 89.50 a 89. No change in provisions; oatmeal for future delivery 86; holders ask advance.

New York, May 6th.

Flour advanced to-day fifteen cents. Western range from eleven dollars twenty cents to fifteen dollars fifty cents.

London, May 6th.

The great Reform meeting which has been in contemplation for some time, took place in Hyde Park in this city to-day. As was expected, there was a vast crowd in attendance, though but few speakers.

There were no riotous demonstrations whatever, and the services of the police were not required. Not one of the extra policemen who had been sworn in for this occasion were present.

The meeting was of very short duration and the multitude dispersed without disorder.

The Morning Post in an editorial to-day expresses the opinion that the government will not execute the sentence of death recently passed upon the condemned Fenians Darke and Duran.

St. Petersburg, May 6th.

The ice went out of the river Neva and harbor to-day, and the ports of St. Petersburg and Constadt are again open to commerce.

New York, May 7th.

A Cable despatch from London dated May 6th, evening, says that the reform demonstration in Hyde Park, to-day, was an immense affair. It numbered at least 100,000, embracing roughs, gentlemen, women, children and working men.

Sir Robert Walpole's proclamation that the assembly was illegal, was posted around upon every available spot, but proved utterly abortive.

The morning papers announced that the government would not attempt to put down the meeting, but all the troops in London and vicinity were under arms, and a large force of police were concealed in a secluded part of the Park. Vehicles were kept ready to convey them to any point in case of a riot.

Fifteen separate meetings were organized, at one of which a woman spoke in favor of universal suffrage.

One stand was devoted to religious speeches.

The most revolutionary sentiments uttered by the speakers were loudly cheered by the crowd.

The reformers advocated order, and practically carried out that idea by driving off the trees in the Park crowds of roughs who were perched in their branches.

The entire press denounces the course of the Government.

The Tories treat the meetings as a mob victory, while the reformers claim them as splendid popular triumphs.

The bitterest feeling exists on both sides, and all London is intensely excited. Some of the meetings are still in progress and will continue until a late hour.
