THE MESSRS. MILLER BROS. are always to the front with their celebrated and world-renowned Heintzman Pianos, wherever a pure and rich full sound is desired, as the following will show.

By looking at the quotations of the Virginia tobacco market, it will be found that the highest price paid for "fillers"—which is the tobacco which forms the body of the plug—very closely corresponds with the invoiced price of tobacco leaf imported into Ontario. As over four-fifths of his leaf imported into the Province is for "Myrtle Navy" stock, this fact is official proof of the claim that the "Myrtle Navy" is made of the finest Virginia leaf.

TROTTING ON THE ICE.—The ice being now favorable for a race, I would hereby notify the four gentlemen who deposited money with me for a sweepstake race that in accordance with the terms of agreement entered into the said race will take place to-morrow (Wednesday) the 2nd inst., at 2 o'clock p. m., on the Hillsborough ice, where I will pay over to the winner of the said stakes, either for a race or walk over, those not starting forfeiting all claims to any portion of the stakes. It is hoped all interested will put in an appearance and not disappoint the public desires of witnessing a good afternoon's sport.—OWEN H. TRAINOR.

SUDDEN DEATH.—We are sorry to hear that James McCabe, son of James McCabe, Esq., Montague, died suddenly of heart disease at the Charlottetown Hospital last evening. His body will be taken home for interment this afternoon. Mr. McCabe was in the twenty-fourth year of his age, and was a favorite with all who knew him. He began the study of medicine with Dr. Kelly about the last of January. Some time ago he contracted diphtheria, but had sufficiently recovered to be able to move about, when he was taken suddenly ill and died as above stated. His brother was coming into the city for his to-day to take him home for a few weeks rest before resuming his studies.

DIED ON THE TRAIN.—On the arrival of the express from St. John at Amherst on Friday afternoon a man named Arthur Miller, of Upper Kennetcook, from Portland, Maine, to Upper Kennetcook, was seen to be in a dying condition. Medical aid was at once sent for, but death ensued before the arrival of the doctor. At Portland it was noticed that he was very sick. When in St. John he was seen lying on the floor of the depot seemingly in a trance. He recovered sufficiently to proceed on his way, but soon became much worse and when a short way from Amherst it was seen that he was dying and he then expressed his wish to get home alive if he could. An inquest was held on the body and a verdict found that he came to his death from causes unknown while travelling in a railway train. There was no evidence of foul play.

A SERVANT GIRL'S REVENGE.—A recent despatch from Providence R. I., says: "The family of Dr. Sayer Hasbrouck of this city has been pestered twice this week under very peculiar circumstances. Two months ago the doctor hired a smart young servant girl, who thought that she was to be the second girl. She didn't get that position, but she did everything to cause the discharge of the girl who did hold it. The doctor wouldn't permit the new girl to undertake the job one. Last Sunday the members of the family were made very sick by a soap that had been dipped into their coffee. On Tuesday and Wednesday morning they were much sicker, and an investigation followed. It was found that coffee oil had been placed in the coffee pot in quantity sufficient to produce very serious results. The new servant girl was looked for, but she had fled, carrying with her many articles of value belonging to the doctor and his wife.

The housewife pins her faith to it, and well she may. She had to use the old washing-powders that destroyed her clothes. She had to use chemical compounds which made everything a dirty yellow. Then "Lessive Phenix" came along with its incomparable virtues. It takes the terror out of the work, for it makes the water soft and the clothes beautiful, and saves 50 per cent. in soap. Then it cleans everything in the house—from the silverware to the pots, pans and the bath.

PHILHARMONIC.—It was decided at the Philharmonic Society's practice last night to hold a sacred concert in Lent, on Thursday, 31st of March, when Mendelssohn's great oratorio, the "Elijah," will be rendered. All members are requested to make a special study of the music at home as the society is very anxious to make this concert more successful than any of the former ones.

CHARLOTTETOWN, P. E. I., March 1st, 1892.

To REV. W. W. BREWER. Sir.—Be it said to your shame as a clergyman that when you made a statement last Sunday from the pulpit about the owner of a house on Pownall Street, you either did not know the facts or you lied.

Yours, most humbly and respectfully, FROTHER OF CLERGYMAN. [In justice to the Rev. Mr. Brewer we have to state that the report which was furnished THE EXAMINER was wrong in this respect. Mr. Brewer made no reference to the owner of the house.]

—Boston Herald: It looks queer to see a clergyman brought before a grand jury to subvert charges made by him in his pulpit against the character of public officials. That seems to be the fate of Rev. Mr. Parkhurst of New York, however, and he will have to prove that the city officials of New York are a wine-soaked, libidinous lot, or submit that he was mistaken. The episode is likely to increase the lesson of moderation in the pulpit.
