SUNDAY was one of the roughest days on the North Shore of the Island seen for many days. The wind blew a perfect gale and the waves were driven into foam on the beach. It is feared there was great damage done to lobster traps and fishing nets, as they had all been put out a few days before.

THE cold weather continues, and the spring is much later than was anticipated. Farmers are preparing their ground, but consider grain better in the granaries than in the soil. There are no complaints, like last spring of scarcity of fodder.

FROM THE WEST

SUMMERSIDE NEWS

Branch Office, Central St.

THE oyster fishing is not so good as it was a few weeks ago.

MR. E. H. McMillan, of Stanley, was in town yesterday.

QUITE common now—A drunken Indian about town each day.

SOME loads of heavy stone were hauled yesterday for street widening purposes.

THOSE who drive in from the country are obliged to dun their winter furs.

CAPT. D. McKinnon will soon be leaving Summerside for the land of the setting sun.

REV. John Goodwill will preach in the Kirk here during the latter part of the week.

MR. B. L. Woodside was a passenger on the train for Charlottetown yesterday evening.

SCHN. Jennie Armstrong sailed for Pictou yesterday with 600 lbs potatoes shipped by Artemas Rogers.

OFFICER McCaull appeared yesterday in a new uniform, which, we understand, was made by Mr. W. S. McLeod.

EXPORTS by the Premier: 133 sacks oats, 210 sacks potatoes, 24 bbls pork, 8 cases eggs, 119 empty casks and sundries.

MR. James Brothout has a lighter loaded with lobster traps the past few days, which could not be moved owing to the high winds.

REPORTS from Victoria, Crapaud, are to the effect that shipping has been very dull this spring, and at present little or nothing produce is moving.

THE exports by the Northumberland yesterday to the US were 165 cases eggs, $432; to the Dominion: 9 horses, $1100; 1350 lbs oats, $488; 440 lbs potatoes, $88; 125 yds cloth, $100; 425 lbs leather, $138. Total, $2342.

CONSIDERABLE shouting and noise in what the people who live on some of the by-roads are obliged to listen to from the throats of young boys who are allowed by their parents to roam at will during the Sabbath evening.

ONE of the large squares of glass in Mr. H. A. Campbell's show room windows was broken Saturday or Sunday night. It is thought that this is a consequence of the assemblage of corner loafers which convene at this point during the evenings.

MR. L. U. Fowler, of North Bedouque, sold a fine thorough-bred bull calf "Laurin" to James S. McNeill of Alberton, yesterday, for very satisfactory figures. The animal is well bred, as it is from Mr. Fowler's celebrated prize cow "Lilly Maid," 17799.

MR. Fred Peters, of this town, has a fine specimen of the seal family, which he offers to donate to the citizens of Ch'town for their fountain in the public gardens. Mr. Peters was on the sealing grounds of Tignish at the time of the large catches and secured the one he now possesses which has developed to a large animal.

ALBERTON NEWS.

Branch Office, Main St.

REV. J. B. Coffin, of Bloomfield, was in town, Saturday.

REV. Mr. Fraser and Rev. Mr. Murray exchanged pulpits on Sunday, Mr. Fraser preaching at Elmsdale and Mr. Murray at Alberton.

GEORGE G. Croabie, Esq., of St. John's, Newfoundland, arrived here, Friday evening. He is the guest of his son-in-law, Mr. Charles R. Rogers.

A NORTH-EAST gale set in Saturday night and continued all day Sunday. It is feared great damage has been done among the lobster traps. Heavy rain fell Saturday night.

MR. and Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson, who have been living in Toronto for the past two years, returned home last Friday. Mr. W. has come to the conclusion that there are worse places than Alberton.

HOTEL ARRIVALS.—Albion Terrace: James S. Gordon, Alberton; J. A. Morrison, Boston; O. E. Smith, Halifax; G. Noxon, Ingersoll; J. Anderson, John D. Miller, Halifax; John Richards, Bideford; John McCormack, Horsehead.

SEVERAL young ladies left here last week for the United States. Among the number was Miss Maud Wainor, one of Alberton's most popular young ladies. She was a member of the choir of the Methodist church, and will be missed very much by the members of that choir.

CHARLES Cannon, of Centre Line Road, has been sent up for trial in the Supreme Court on two separate charges, one for whistling at a cow from a Mr. O'Brien, the other for assaulting Constable Gillish while in the discharge of his duty. The cases were tried before J. P. Brennan and George M. Clark, Esqrs.

Crapaud Notes.

THE farmers here are getting underway with their spring work; but owing to the frigidity of the weather the progress of the work is retarded.

THE Rev. Mr. Daniels, pastor of St. John's church for the past few years, has so endeared himself to the hearts of his people that they are desirous of his remaining with them another year.

BETA Division, S. of T., is in a flourishing condition. Although it has only been organized a few months, its membership numbers upwards of fifty. The members have fitted up the hall with the necessary equipments for theatrical representations. It is their intention to reproduce some of Shakespeare's plays as well as others more modern.
