At the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court this forenoon, two drunks were disposed of, two men were fined $10 each or twenty days for frequenting a house of ill-fame, and the prisoners Langan, Cameron, Brogan, Sullivan and Burns, were further remanded. The Rev. Charles Garrett, of the Wesleyan Conference, in speaking of the Rock Band Concert Company, who perform in this city on Nov. 14th and 15th, says:—"Allow me to thank you for the great pleasure I derived from your performance. I have long heard of 'sermons in Stones,' but I never imagined there was so much music in them. Of course very much of the pleasure was the result of your wonderful skill in invoking the music, but that so much melody should be lurking in such unpromising looking materials is a marvel to me."

REV. D. V. LUCAS writes to the St. John Sun from Montreal to say that "from the very beginning of the smallpox epidemic the wholesale merchants and manufacturers have been most careful to secure the vaccination of all their employes, and have all along employed medical men to visit the houses of those in their employment to see that the families of those should be kept entirely free." He further says:—"Bad as the disease is, the English-speaking people are apparently as safe and as free from the contagion, through vaccination and the exercise of caution, as if they dwelt hundreds of miles away."

To gain the public confidence is essential to business success, and it can only be gained by a steady course of faithful dealing with them. It is by this course that Messrs. Tuckett & Son have secured the great success of their "Myrtle Navy" tobacco. This confidence is not only a source of business to the firm, but also a source of economy which the consumers get the benefit of. The merchant never loses a moment of time in examining the quality of tobacco. The name fixes the quality as absolutely as the mint stamp fixes the value of the guinea. It is not even necessary for the commercial traveller's trunk to be burdened with a sample of "Myrtle Navy," all his customers know what it is, and know in an instant when it has been supplied. There is no room for any dispute about it. No waste of time or postage in writing complaints about it. These may look like trifles to the uninitiated, but they save money, and enable merchants to perform the work of distribution at the smallest possible cost. They are part of the reasons why the finest quality of tobacco grown can be sold at so cheap a price.

A. P. E. Island Prize Fighter.

A despatch of the 8th inst., from St Paul, Minn., says: Three hundred people assembled to-day on the scene of the Wilson-Cardiff fight. The ring was promptly formed for the $500 hard glove contest between Pat Killen, of Philadelphia, and Joe Lannan, of P. E. Island. The fight was to a finish Marquis of Queensbury rules. Killen was much livelier of the two men and is provided with longer reach in the arms, but they were fairly matched as to physique, barring the fact that Killen is heavier. Lannan forced the fighting from the first, and exhausted himself in back blows at Killen, whose head was out of his reach, and who countered on Lannan's neck and face, wounding him badly in the third round by a back header across the throat. Up to this time Lannan had the better of the fight. The fighting was fast and furious, and both men showed signs of exhaustion, and only a chance blow could decide the contest. It came Lannan's way on the finish of the eighth round.

THE INDEPENDENT.

The Largest, The Ablest, The Best Religious and Literary Weekly.

The Most Influential Religious Organ in the States.—The Spectator, London, Eng.

THE INDEPENDENT is one of the best papers in the world. Its good points are many and striking. They have only to be stated to be appreciated, and for proof of our claims appeal may be taken to any of the fifty-two issues of the year. Any number of THE INDEPENDENT will show that its contents are marked by—ABILITY, VARIETY AND INTEREST.—The great thinkers, the great story-writers, the great poets, men of the highest reputation in all departments of human knowledge, make up its list of contributors. Religion, philosophy, science, literature, art, travels, discoveries, stories, and all conceivable topics are embraced in its contents, and everybody, old or young, learned and unlearned, without regard to sex, employment or condition, will find something of special interest in every issue.

COMPENSATIVENESS.—It is a religious, a literary, an educational, a story, an art, a scientific, an agricultural, a financial and a political paper combined.

BREADTH, CANDOR, EARNESTNESS.—THE INDEPENDENT is not a denomination; it is the organ of no clique or party in state or Church. It is free, therefore, to discuss all questions, and to speak its mind candidly. It is not swayed by fear or favor. It is a vigorous defender of the Evangelical faith, it preaches practical righteousness, and earnestly supports all moral reforms. All its columns—the advertising as well as the reading—are free from everything of doubtful or objectionable character. No matter what a person's religion, politics, or profession may be, if he desires to keep up with the times and know what the brightest minds are thinking of the ablest pens are writing about, and to see the world at large is doing—he should read THE INDEPENDENT.

Bought Part of His Stock at a Sacrifice.

Prices are Still Tumbling and Purchasers will Reap the Benefit Thereof!

REID BROS. have purchased a large Invoice of Fine Saxony All-wool Tweeds from a Manufacturer's Agent, whose name we are not permitted to mention, at a great sacrifice to the public, and we intend giving our patrons the advantage of this purchase. These goods have never in the history of P. E. Will produce letters from some of the best men in town and country which must satisfy the most astute and our cutter, Mr. Bruce, and his help, are equal to the times, and his garments are always neat, strong, perfect-fitting and full-fashioned.

Experience has taught us that many persons have been driven away in disgust from houses who are continually advertising goods at extraordinary prices, which they are unable to produce when called for, and to meet this difficulty we ask intending purchasers to call and examine our stock and we are confident that one inspection will satisfy the most skeptical that we never advertise a humbug.
