RARE BLOOD DONOR

Laurie Hendabee of Halifax, whose blood is one of the rarest varieties on record, is ill in hospital and doctors reluctant to continue treatment until blood is available for transfusions. Mr. Hendabee is shown after giving blood himself earlier this year. Doctors yesterday said they were reluctant to start tests on Hendabee because of his condition. He was taken to hospital Sunday when he suffered a hemorrhage. (CP Wirephoto)

Que. Pensions Fully Portable, Johnson Says

QUEBEC (CP) — Premier Daniel Johnson said that when Quebec takes over the administration of old age security within its territory, the pensions paid under it will be fully portable throughout the rest of Canada.

Mr. Johnson also told the provincial assembly that Quebec now pays more toward old age pensions than what it receives. It was fully willing to continue paying this extra amount toward keeping the pension plan going in the poorer provinces even after it begins administering its own scheme.

Giving details of the proposed provincial takeover of the old age pension scheme in Quebec—a scheme now mainly administered by the federal government—Mr. Johnson said:

"The government of Quebec does not want its taking over of old age pensions to diminish the freedom of movement of its citizens toward other provinces in the country nor that of the citizens of other provinces toward Quebec.

"In other words, we believe implicitly in the complete portability of social security payments in general as well as the specific case of old age pensions.
