EUROPEAN.

DUBLIN, Nov. 6.

The address of the Land League to the people of Ireland will be put in circulation to-day, and will also be sent to America. It declares that the agitation is perfectly legal and peaceful, and will be carried on peacefully until its object is attained. The address concludes by asking contributions for defence.

A demonstration against Parnell took place at Portadown yesterday; 5,000 Orangemen and Conservatives were present. Maxwell Close, Conservative member of Parliament for Armagh, presided.

LOWELL, MASS., Nov. 7.

The Land League held a special meeting this afternoon to consider measures for assistance for Parnell and his coadjutors. John Douley presided. Addresses were delivered by John Marreu and Thomas F. Byron. Both predicted a revolution in Ireland if Parnell is convicted. A large number joined the League.

DUBLIN, Nov. 7.

The announcement that the Channel fleet had been ordered to the Irish Coast causes indescribable excitement.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

Threats are made by rank and file of Land League that a bloody revenge will be taken for every conviction of agitators that may be obtained at coming trials.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 7.

At a large meeting here to-day a resolution was adopted demanding suppression of the Budget of Minister of Worship and separation of Church and State.

LONDON, Nov. 6.

Hanlan has all but recovered from his slight attack of sore throat, and to-day did his usual amount of work. He took five spells of rowing from Barnes to Teddington and back in the morning, and to Putney and back to Mortlake and return in the afternoon. He says he is afraid his friends in Canada will feel a little timid about Laycock's success, but if he is beaten it will be from no lack of effort on his part.

For my part I think your representative is rowing even cleaner and better than when he rowed Elliott seventeen months ago. The Australians, however, have become very confident, and Trickett behaves himself now like a man who feels that his task will not be beyond his compassing.

A heavy fog hung over the river a part to-day, but it did not prevent all the scullers getting aloft. Trickett now rows very fast in his practice. Ward says he is a "good 'un" and no mistake. To judge from your solid man's demeanor, I should say that he recognizes that his protégé has at last got his work out for him.

Col. Shaw is evidently interesting himself in Hanlan, and says if the Canadian is beaten that Trickett will prove himself the most wonderful sculler that ever sat in a shell.

The betting at present is even, and it is evident that Trickett will be the favorite before another sun sets.

The interest taken in aquatic matters here is now greater than ever before—at least in my recollection. There will be wagering in the next ten days on the championship race. If your people have any money to put up they will find no difficulty in placing it, and probably they will be able to get odds.

ATHENS, Nov. 6.

The Minister of Finance has asked for an extraordinary credit of 36,000,000 drachmas for the War Ministry.

LONDON, Nov. 6.

The bullion withdrawn from the Bank yesterday was £141,000 for the United States, and £100,000 in sovereigns for shipment to Canada.

LONDON, Nov. 7.

It is said Gladstone will shortly propose reduced rates of interest on consols from three to two and a half per cent.

There is a general feeling among the Liberal party that Gladstone will be compelled to abandon his Eastern policy.

LONDON, Nov. 8.

Parnell made a violent speech at Athlone on Sunday, attacking Forster and the Government. He urged the people to a closer and more energetic organization in order that they might be able to defy the efforts of the Government to maintain the landlords. He warned them that the struggle to possess the land was only beginning. He urged them to display courage and constancy. The Government, he said, was hypocritical and cowardly.

T. D. Sullivan denounced the prosecutions and exhibited the indictment against the Land League traversers. He cast it among the crowd, who tore it to pieces amid frantic cheers. The tone of the meeting was defiant, judged by the enthusiastic way in which all the strong speeches were cheered and by the voices from the crowd, which were frequently suggestive of violence.

While a land meeting was in progress in the hamlet of Shanagar, County Cork, on Sunday, a band under one Walsh, formerly a member of the league, but now a violent partisan of the government, made an attack upon the crowd, storm the platform, overthrow the speakers and took possession. He then addressed the few who remained, denouncing the land league as a humbug and people who followed its counsels as miserable dupes. The attack was so sudden as to prevent any organized resistance.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.

Michael Davitt leaves here on Wednesday for Ireland to join the land league, of which he is secretary.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.

A cable special says the following is the substance of a speech to be read by M. Jules Ferry to Chamber of Deputies tomorrow. The expulsion of unauthorized congregations has been successfully carried out. The Government recommends to Chambers the adoption of a system of gratuitous and compulsory primary education. New laws for the regulation of the press will be urged upon the representative bodies, but so long as the old form of legislation exists it will be rigidly adhered to. Senators are urged to vote with as little delay as possible on the general financial tariff, the government being desirous to conclude commercial treaties with all nations before the dissolution in October next. As regards foreign affairs, France is at peace with all the world, and government entertain strong hopes that the Eastern question will be settled in accordance with the Berlin treaty. No mention is made of Greece.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 8.

UNITED STATES.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.

The "Rhode Island" struck on the north side of the Wale Rock, at 3.15 a. m. As she was making water, the steamer was headed in shore; she is now lying, no doubt, a total wreck. Gilfoyle, the head steward, was severely hurt, a chandelier falling on his head. There were about one hundred and fifty passengers. The freight from between decks is floating about and is being picked up by boats.

John P. Gordon, about thirty-three years old, was fatally shot at his boarding house at Quincy, Mass., early this morning, by a burglar who had entered the house and with whom he was struggling. The burglar escaped. Gordon is alive, but cannot recover.
