The Hop Bitters Regatta
Special despatches to Examiner.

LONDON, Nov. 18.
The contest for the Hop Bitters Prize of £1000, between oarsmen from all parts of the world, commenced this morning.
The first heat, between Laycock of Australia, Elliott, Hawdon and Tarryer, resulted in a victory for Laycock, who had everything his own way.
The second heat, in which Ross, Riley, Lagan and Feely rowed, was won by Ross with ease. Riley several times managed to spurt and gain on him.
In the third heat, Smith, of Halifax, was the favorite. He rowed Hosmer, Anderson and Gibson. Hosmer took this heat, Smith a poor second. Smith, who was the favorite, and who was considered a sort of "dark horse," disappointed his friends.
The fourth heat Trickett took with ease, rowing against Nicholson and Clasper, of England.
To-morrow's race will be as follows:—1st heat, Laycock and Hawdon; 2nd heat, Ross and Riley; 3rd heat, Hosmer and Smith; 4th heat, Trickett and Nicholson.
Ross is the favorite in sporting circles here for Monday's race.

LONDON, Nov. 19.
Ross won first heat, beating Hosmer a length, Riley and Nicholson, following. Race was fine. In the second heat, Laycock Smith, Trickett and Hawdon finished in order named.
Laycock rowed splendidly. The final race in the regatta will be rowed to-morrow. The contestants are Ross, Smith, Laycock and Hosmer.

LONDON, Nov. 17.
The press association says that the reports of differences in the Cabinet seem to be well founded. Messrs. Bright and Chamberlain have pronounced absolutely against coercion in Ireland. Several Ministers favor the convocation of Parliament in December to authorize a suspension of the Habeas Corpus Act, but no decision has been reached.

DUBLIN, Nov. 17.
At the weekly meeting of the Land League on Tuesday, Mr. Egan stated that the traversers intended to proceed against the Express and Mail (newspapers) for attempting to prejudice the jury and prevent the traversers from receiving a fair trial.
An additional reward of £500 has been offered for the discovery of the murderer of Lord Mountmorris.
A telegram from Ballinrobe says that 400 additional troops will be sent there immediately. The Land League has refused to sanction the expedition of Lord Erne's house, because of the excited state of the country.

LONDON, Nov. 17.
The News says we may assume that the manner of dealing with the condition of Ireland will occupy the attention of the Cabinet Council to-day and probably by the end of the week the Government will have come to a decisive understanding.
The Standard says it is understood to-day Council will take an important decision in regard to Ireland. The article hints at a split in the Cabinet.
The Times also speaks of a serious difference of opinion in the Cabinet in regard to Ireland.

Forster and Gladstone and Earl Cowper are daily receiving threatening letters which have become so common that they never pay the slightest attention to them.
Forster is so far impressed by the rapid spread of Land League movement and by attitude of people, that he is of opinion a reform of existing legislation on land question in Ireland is imperative if England is to maintain her position in Ireland.

LONDON, Nov. 17.
The United States Government officially invited the Roumanian Government to send a delegation to the International Sanitary Conference which opens in Washington 1st February.
Fifteen hundred men have gone patrolling through Basutoland from Capetown.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16.
The fire at the State Insane Asylum at St. Peters, Minn., last night, proves to have been a terrible disaster, attended with loss of life, the particulars of which have not reached here yet.
Only one wing of the building was burned. The whole structure, which was ten years in course of construction, was finished three years ago at a cost of $500,000.
The loss by fire is $150,000. Reports of the loss of life vary from two or three to fifty, but no bodies have been found, and no one is surely known as missing.
When the danger from the fire became imminent the superintendent ordered the release of all the patients, and it is probable that in the confusion some were overlooked. This probability is increased by the fact that some rooms were quickly filled with smoke and could not be entered by the rescuers.
There were 656 patients in the hospital last year. The inmates were cared for after the fire by the citizens.
It is thought that some took advantage of the fire to run away, while others wandered aimlessly about.

St. PAUL, Nov. 16.
A letter to the Pioneer Press from St. Peters says that a number of lives were lost by the burning and freezing of patients at the Insane Asylum, variously estimated at from 20 to 25. The loss on the building is $300,000. A special says the scenes at the fire were heart rending. So appalling a sight has rarely been witnessed. The patients in the annex wing were males. Many of them refused to leave the building at all, and ran up and down the halls screaming and crying. Those who could neither be coaxed nor forced out of the building were those who were suffocated or suffered a horrible death in the flames. The others were saved, some by ladders and some by leaping from the windows. Some were nearly nude, some shoeless and hatless, and all exposed to exceeding cold. These were to be seen in all directions, flying in wild fright from those who attempted to save them. The air was bitter cold and the poor wretches, with half naked bodies and bleeding feet, were lying about and hiding in alleys and dark corners. There were about 600 patients in the building, and every inch of the space was utilized. What will be done with those saved, with their malady increased by the excitement of the occasion, is now a serious question.

Troubled Ireland.
The latest news from Ireland is:—
That Father O'Malley has organized a deputation to wait upon the Earl of Erne to offer to pay full rent on condition that Capt. Boycott, who appears to be an object of detestation, is dismissed.
That Father O'Malley, in an interview he had with a New York Herald reporter, said "he proposed that the expedition should show the utter ridiculousness of the situation at Lough Mask. He thought that the affair would tend to hasten the final settlement of the land question, in which he was in sympathy with the rest of the county. 'When we are gone north,' he said, 'you will have an army of horse, foot and dragoons guarding an agent from tenants who are gone on a long journey for the purpose of offering their rent to the landlord.'"
That in the case of the indicted agitators a bill of particulars has been furnished by the prosecution to the traversers. It states that the traversers have tried to terrify landlords and prevent them from legally enforcing payment of rent by holding meetings, displaying placards and banners and circulating reports of the speeches made at the aforesaid meetings in various papers.
That the jury on the inquest of Mr. Wheeler, returned a verdict that the deceased was murdered by some unknown person.

ONLY two Velocipedes left. Now is your time. Call and get one before it is too late.—R. K. BRACE. nov19

A despatch to the Times from Cape Town, dated the 13th inst., says the rebels attacked the small force of Cape troops occupying the Basuto Chief Lerothodi's village and the troops were obliged to evacuate.

Mr. John Bright has been elected Lord Rector of the University of Glasgow, defeating Mr. John Ruskin by 314 votes.

The Daily News says:—"We understand that Premier Gladstone will, in a few days, visit the Earl of Derby at Knowsley Park."
The manager of the Triboulet (French newspaper) has been condemned to pay 12,000f. damages to M. Constans, Minister of the Interior, and 6,000f. to the Prefect of Toulouse, for libelling them
