P.E.I. Submission Being Prepared For Conference

"When the Dominion Provincial Conference, which is held every five years, is again held this autumn much of the preparation will be found to be already done," Premier Jones stated last night.

The conference, he predicted, will be a crucial one from the standpoint of fiscal need alone. Among other subjects this Province will propose discussion on the following: Consideration of the scope of Provincial public services and its relation to Provincial public debt and revenue.

Review of Federal and Provincial spheres of taxation with the underlying consideration—the preservation of provincial autonomy. Negotiation of extension or renewal of Federal Provincial tax rental agreements based on current and developing fiscal need.

Transfer of certain existing services to Federal jurisdiction and adjusting taxation structure to permit provincial solvency and subsidy revision. Review of old age pensions and other health and welfare services, and adjustment of Federal contributions to provide for an equitable distribution of burden.

Consideration of Federal and Provincial responsibility for reasonably comparable educational facilities and opportunities throughout Canada as a whole. The problem of matching grants in its relation to Provincial finance.

Specific Prince Edward Island difficulties in relation to transportation. Provincial economic development; in particular the encouragement of shipping in the Gulf of St. Lawrence area and Newfoundland area so that Prince Edward Island products may reach their natural markets.

The Premier recalled that at the first conference in 1941 the Province's income and corporation taxes were loaned to the Federal Government for $1,100,000 subsidy, representing a net subsidy increase of about $450,000. Five years later the income corporation and succession duty taxes were loaned for five years more for an amount which increased the annual subsidy by about $1,900,000. "And still our fiscal need becomes greater," he added.

Mr. Shaw Reviews Potato Situation

Mr. W. R. Shaw, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, who leaves shortly for overseas, commented yesterday on the potato market which he described as being "in rather an indifferent state."

Mr. Shaw stated that if discretion is exercised in shipping potatoes to market very little difficulty should be experienced in having the market absorb existing supplies of varieties in demand at least at steady if not high prices. The demand for Cobblers, of course, has weakened to a high degree.

By the large quantities of potatoes being unloaded this last week or two it is inevitable that the market should be over-charged and weaken considerably, he stated. "I cannot conceive that there should be many more potatoes than 1200 carloads left on Prince Edward Island. There are a few pockets where potatoes have not been shipped but in the great majority of districts it is only a clean up job on existing supplies."

The U. S. Situation — "The situation in the United States is erratic and lacks, up to the present, a steady quality. New potatoes are in more adequate supply and the trade is buying cautiously and sparingly. A report of a million bag order particularly for Maine stock for Europe has steadied the Maine movement a bit and I am advised this morning that this order has been consummated. If this report is true it should have a steadying effect on the market.

"The point, however, I would like to stress," Mr. Shaw stated, "is that markets on any commodity must be used with entire discretion and any departure from a system which supplies these markets steadily, cautiously, and with quantities that do not cause overloading is one of our main requisites in preserving not only price but final absorption of maximum quantities."

"Even with the clearing out of large quantities of potatoes in the United States to the European market, there will still be old potatoes available in Maine in considerable volume, and these, of course, will create a continual drag on the market. Good salesmanship, in any event, will be necessary and our exporters and growers should thoroughly investigate market conditions and treat with concern the numbers of carloads of potatoes that move to our markets from day to day if we are to dispose of the balance of our crop at reasonably steady prices."

Is Optimistic Re Electrical Program

Adopting a heavy program of electrical extension in the Province this year, Premier Jones stated last night that the Board of Public Utilities has this work well in hand. It is hoped that the high voltage line direct from Charlottetown to Summerside, to which the Legislature will shortly be built and form a backbone for extension of electricity to the whole country.

Among others, the Premier listed the following extensions to be made by the Maritime Electric Company this year: 11 miles from Soles Bay to Edmuntown; 12 miles to the Peter's Road area; 2 miles in the Oyster Bed Bridge area; 11 miles in the Kingstons area; 10 miles in Clyde River to Canoe Cove area; 6 miles in Covehead area; 8 miles from Poole's Corner to Georgetown; 6 miles from Fredericton in the Emerald area.

had been given for dwellings in this area.

One side parking only will be allowed on several of the cities most congested blocks, it was stated by Coun. Cox, Chairman of the Police Committee. These include Water Street from Queen to Great Street, one side parking on Euston from Queen to Rochford will be continued and Upper Prince will continue West side parking only.

He expressed hope that the areas between the streets and the sidewalks on Queen and Great George Streets south of Euston will be paved for parking. He also stated that stop signs would be put up at street intersections where it is considered necessary. The committee is asking for one extra man on the police force as soon as possible.

Reports Progress

Councillor J. D. Stewart, chairman of the Street Committee reported that satisfactory progress is being made in street patching. He stated that a new three roll roller would be needed to macadamize the clay streets. The present roller has been condemned by the inspectors.

Councillor O'Donnell, chairman of the Fire Committee, reported that there were 11 general alarms during the month of April and ten still alarms. Little damage was done.

He urged the need of a new fire alarm system stating that during the past month one or more sections were put out of order for several days. "On one occasion, when the Fire Hall engineer rang the alarms, not one bell on the whole circuit responded." During a wind storm the alarms have kept jangling off and on all night, he stated.

Councillor Keefe, Chairman of the Property Committee urged the construction of a culvert between Government Pond and Villa Street. He also pointed out that the basement of the library should be cemented this summer and that a new insurance inspection policy should be put on the boiler in the Market House.

The proposed insurance policy included the costs of two inspections each year. It was pointed out that the boiler in the market had passed inspections each year and there was no need for any new policies.

The financial report was given by Councillor L. E. Prowse, Chairman of Finance. One bill for repairs in the market building amounting to $96.30 had to be deleted for lack of evidence to warrant its approval. The bill was signed by Councillor Johnstone with the approval of Councillor Keefe but neither Councillor were familiar with the bill.

Councillor Gormley, Chairman of the Tender Committee stated that the tender of Stewart Motors Ltd. for supplying the City with a half ton truck with standard equipment, was accepted at a price of $1590.00. This was $10.00 less than another tender.

Comments received asked for the paving of certain streets, the laying of ashes in front of Prince Street School and the laying of a cement sidewalk a distance from West Kent School. The members of the Playground Commission asked for a grant of $500.

Mr. Walter S. Grant was appointed chairman of the Special Assessment Board. Tenders for the supplying of the Fire Department with 700 feet of 1 1/2 inch hose will be called for, and a 1000 c.p. light will be installed at or near 45 Park Street. A street light will be installed at the north west corner of Queen and Water Streets.

Tenders will be called for the supplying of the Police Department with 14 pairs of police boots and the following articles will be bought: Two slatted ladder line connections, two reducers, two fog nozzles and five lights. An amendment to the by-laws establishing restricted building zones will be brought up at the next monthly meeting. The proposed amendment will limit the erection of buildings on corners to not nearer than fifteen feet from the side street. The Victoria Athletic Association will be exempted from the payment of $100 for the use of the Market Building last week if they clear the building and leave it satisfactory.

Premier Briefly Discusses Highway

It is expected that eight or ten miles of pavement under the Trans-Canada highway scheme will be laid on the road towards Borden this year, Premier J. Walter Jones stated last night. He did not divulge any further details as to the route to be followed.

The highway, he said, "will likely be via Charlottetown if bridges can be built which are acceptable. This point is being studied now. "The Hillsboro bridge is a great difficulty to overcome. The North River bridge where the present one is quite unsafe for traffic is another difficulty and there is a live agitation to move the site down the river."

One County engineer under the Provincial Department of Highways has been allocated to the Trans-Canada road, the Premier said. Another has been given the Provincial projects and the Island is now divided under two engineers, one with headquarters at Summerside and another at Charlottetown.

Repeating what he had said in the Legislature, the Premier cited the Title Hill as an example of difficulties involved in the Trans-Canada highway construction. The grade there is too steep, the vertical and horizontal curves too great, and a new location for the road will have to be found for a route which will be acceptable. "However," he added, "there is no hurry about changing the route at this point for several more years."

Takes Issue With Warehouse Pacts

Maintaining that the potato warehouse agreements were not as represented by Mr. J. Lester Douglas, Liberal member for Queen's, in a recent interview in The Guardian, Premier Jones last night said Mr. Douglas "should correct with The Guardian agent at Ottawa what incorrect statements he has apparently made just for the peace of the Liberal party, if not for higher motives."

Under the agreements, the Premier said, a body representing the producers—usually a co-operative organization—applies for a warehouse and signs an agreement putting up 25 percent of the cost. The P. E. I. Government pays the other 75 percent and collects a charge on goods going through the warehouse (one cent a bushel on potatoes). The Government holds the title and insurance. When half the amount advanced, namely 37 1/2 percent of the cost in fees is repaid, the P. E. I. Government gives half of the fees it collects to the Federal Government, at the time of construction, gives the P. E. I. Government one-half of what it advances for construction.

"It was only lately that the Federal Government came into the arrangement," Premier Jones said. "Previously they made an agreement which they refused to act on. The P. E. I. Government went ahead on their own and advanced 75 percent. Now the Federal Government has donated half of this amount—some $50,000 on the eight warehouses already built."

Mr. Douglas' statement, he said, was wrong in claiming that 75 percent must be refunded. "The builders will eventually get the warehouses for 52 percent of their cost."

Referring to Mr. Douglas' statement that a group of experts had made a survey in 1945 and located eleven warehouse sites, the Premier said "these experts were architects who were making a plan of the type of warehouse to be built. Prince Edward Island, not Ottawa, selects the sites."

He added that the Douglas Station warehouse was not on the original plan. "It was finally admitted by our own Potato Warehouse Committee and its value was estimated by them."

Stresses Value Of Tourist Industry At Rotary Luncheon

The value of the tourist industry in Canada is approaching the amount realized each year by the newspaper industry. It brings in more than all the gold exported to the U. S. A., and last year was equivalent to 47 per cent of our entire exportable products. By a coincidence it was almost the equivalent amount of our loss in export trade last year. Everyone benefits from this tremendous volume of tourist dollars and none more so than those engaged in our basic industries of farming and fishing, said Mr. D. Leo Dolan, Director of the Canadian Travel Bureau, Ottawa, in his address to the Charlottetown Rotary Club yesterday.

Speaking in very complimentary terms of the menu served at the luncheon, Mr. Dolan said that there were only a few things that tourists required, and chief among them are good food tastefully prepared and served, clean and comfortable accommodation at a reasonable price, countless highways, courteous and honest treatment. He warned against any attempt at appealing other provinces. "Do not go in for night clubs or any bizarre entertainments, but stay as you are," he cautioned.

Mr. Dolan suggested that the Rotary Club might do as the Rotarians did in Victoria, B. C. where a very fine tourist office was built by the Club, P. E. I., as well as other Provinces is benefiting from the millions of U. S. wage earners who now get vacations with pay and who enjoy taking their families on a motor trip into Canada.

He also said that Canadians should be proud of their citizenship "as we here have more good and less bad than any other 14 million people on earth."

Chairmen yesterday were Rotarians N. D. MacLean and Roy Kendall. Rotarian W. W. Reid, Director of the P. E. I. Travel Bureau, thanked the speaker. The following guests were present: Messrs. B. B. Rogers, Ottawa, Reginald Rogers, Borden, Tom Rogers, Justice A. E. Arsenault, Arthur Belcher, G. H. Buntain, George Fraser, J. M. MacFadyen, and C. H. Black, Charlottetown, F. R. Sayer, Moncton, R.
