IN MEMORIAM

CLARA JEAN CARMICHAEL

It was with profound sorrow and shock that the many friends and acquaintances of Clara Jean Carmichael learned of her sudden death at the Provincial Sanatorium on December 21st.

Clara was born at Charlottetown 27 years ago and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Carmichael. She was a young woman of good character and was noted for her kind disposition and jovial manner.

Her sudden death is a severe loss to her family where she was always regarded as a favorite. The numerous messages of sympathy and flowers bore silent and eloquent testimony of the popularity of the deceased.

Besides her parents she leaves to mourn five brothers, Murray, Horace, Eric and Keith, all of Charlottetown, and Floyd in Montreal, P.Q. One brother, Chester, predeceased her several years ago.

Her funeral, which was largely attended, was held from the Baptist Church, Charlottetown. The services at the church and grave were conducted by the Rev. J. D. Davidson. The church choir rendered the hymns "Just As I Am" and "Abide with Me" which were two of the deceased's favorite hymns.

The pallbearers were Messrs. George Reynolds, Floyd Drake, Windsor Bréhaut, Stanley Lancaster, Fred Purser and Sam Robinson.

Flowers: The family, Floyd, Karl, Guardian Publishing Co. Ltd., Guardian Staff, R. T. Holman Ltd., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Saunders and family.

The Gallant Family, Vivian Abbott and Gladys Smith, Shirley Jay, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings, Eric and Mary, Baptist Church, Aunt Marion, Bertha and Clyde, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Barbour, Mr. and Mrs. S. Karrey, The Reynolds Family, Sam and Luell, The Keizer Family, The Machin Family, The Nurses and Staff of Poly-clinic.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Clara Jean Carmichael wish to extend their heartfelt appreciation of all those who sent flowers, messages of sympathy, and to all those who helped in any way in our recent sad bereavement.

Winsloe Couple

Are Honoured On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Younker, Winsloe, were greatly surprised on December 26th, when their family and a number of friends gathered at their home in honor of their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. Harold Cudmore, capably acting as chairman, explained the purpose of the gathering and expressed the good wishes and friendship of all for this worthy couple. He then called on Mr. Archie Auld who read a congratulatory address and Mrs. Harold Cudmore presented the "bride and groom" with a lovely chest of silver, to which Mr. Younker responded on behalf of his wife, thanking all for their kindness.

The evening was spent in card playing, social intercourse and singing with Mrs. D. K. MacLeod presiding at the organ. A bountiful and delicious lunch was then served by the visiting ladies and a very pleasant evening was brought to a close by all wishing this popular couple many more years of health and happiness.
