ANOTHER SPECIMEN OF LAIRDLIE LOGIC.

A few weeks ago the pious editor of the Patriot said that the Examiner was now a purely Catholic paper, because we could not endorse all his rascally and malicious slanders against his Catholic fellow colonists. In his last issue he applies the same rules of logic and concludes that, because we have pointed out several instances in which leading members of the Government have betrayed the confidence reposed in them by their constituents, we are, therefore, Conservative. According to his logic we might say: Elder Laird has defended the policy of the Government in those very acts for which we censure them, therefore, Elder Laird is a Liberal—save the mark!

We could overlook his ignorance of logic, but we cannot allow him to indulge in his inherent propensity for lieing. He tells his readers that we represented Sir Thomas More as a Bishop. False again, Mr Patriot! In speaking of More and Fisher, we distinctly said that Sir Thomas More was Lord Chancellor under Henry VIII; and that Fisher was Bishop of Rochester. No person, whose ears were not sadly out of proportion, as well as his neck, could have misunderstood us. He endeavors to quibble on the word "another." Does not the long-eared, long-necked creature know that although every Bishop is a Prelate, yet, every Prelate is not a Bishop? O! for a neck as long as a crane's!

VERY LUMINOUS!

The Patriot of Saturday night has the following: "Chancellor More was a man of gentle manners and unblemished private character, and while protesting against his religious opinions, we believe he lived and died honestly and conscientiously true to his convictions." The italics are the Patriot's. Will the scribe who wrote the foregoing please inform his readers what he means? Is it More who protests against his own "religious opinions?" or is it David who protests against them? In any case the sentence quoted is pure nonsense. David in his zeal to misrepresent us did not see that he was writing himself down an Ass.

THE CONVENT.

On Monday morning last, by invitation from the Rev. Mr. McDonald, we visited the Convent School recently opened in this Town. It was on the occasion of the opening of the Chapel in the Convent and the inspection of the school. His Lordship Bishop McIntyre officiated, assisted by the Very Rev. James McDonald. A number of persons were present to witness the ceremony, most of whom engaged in the religious service. After the Mass, the Bishop inspected the classes in the different rooms. On entering the Primary department, the children sung a welcome to his Lordship and the visitors, at the conclusion of which a little girl of 8 or 9 summers, on behalf of the school, addressed the Bishop and their Pastor. The Bishop thanked the children for their address, and expressed his satisfaction at their general behaviour and appearance. The higher classes were then visited. On entering the class room, a number of the advanced scholars sung a beautiful welcome, accompanied with music. After the singing, Miss Connors stepped forward and read an address from the school to the Bishop and their Pastor, expressive of their thanks to and kind feelings towards them. To this the Bishop replied briefly, concluding his remarks by wishing all present a merry Christmas.

We were shown through the different apartments of the building. The class rooms are spacious and comfortable, and the bed rooms neatly furnished with a number of beds, forcibly reminding the visitor that those in charge considered "cleanliness as next to godliness." The school is furnished with two large globes, maps, and other requisites. The Chapel is large and neatly finished. The thanks of the Catholic community especially, are due to their Pastor and the Ladies of the Convent, for their indefatigable exertions and liberality in affording them such a school. There are at present over sixty pupils in attendance at this Convent.—Sum. Journal.

Making a total fall export from Charlottetown to England, of 372,619 bushels. The shipments last spring were 74,662 bushels.

An English Mail was received at the General Post Office on Thursday last. Our telegrams contain the most important items of news.

The Sabbath School Bazaar of St. James' Church was—notwithstanding the disaster which deprived it of the Mason's Hall—quite a success. The amount realized was £60.—Isl.

FIRE AT LOT 35.—On Wednesday morning last at 2 o'clock, the Glenfinnan School House was discovered by some of the Inhabitants in the immediate neighborhood to be in flames; the building had undergone a thorough repair. All the School furniture, together with a lot of carpenters tools, were destroyed with the building. There is very little doubt of this being the work of an incendiary. We hope the Trustees will bring the guilty party to justice.

We understand that the "Dawson Cases" are all settled, the creditors having agreed to take 10s. in the pound in lieu of all claims, and receiving a Bond from Mr. Dawson, sen., guaranteeing that amount. It is a thousand pities that this compromise had not been effected in the first instance; what a world of trouble, anxiety, expense and hard feeling it would have saved!—Pat.

The Drying House in connection with Mr. Jamieson's Fulling mill, New Annan, together with a large quantity of cloth, was, we regret to hear, destroyed by fire on Thursday night.—Pat.

PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND CALENDARS FOR 1869.—We acknowledge the receipt of two neatly bound copies of these useful annuals. The one from Henry A. Harvie, Queen Street, and the other from David Laird, Queen Square. They are got up in the usual style, and well printed, and contain a very large amount of valuable information at a very small price. The number printed is not large, and we would recommend parties desirous of obtaining one of those useful annuals to procure a copy before the supply is exhausted.

WE would recommend lovers of the "Weed" to call and procure from O'NEILL BROTHERS, Cigar House, Queen Street, one of them splendid MEERSCHAUM PIPES. They have a magnificent assortment. Prices ranging from 2s 6d to £3 15s.

CONCERT.—We beg to direct attention to the advertisement in another column respecting a concert to be given in St. Patrick's Hall, by the pupils of the Congregation de Notre Dame, during New Year's week. Those who have attended the Concerts of the Ladies of the Congregation need not be told that a rich treat is in store for them, and those who have not cannot do a more agreeable thing than patronize the forthcoming Concert.

The Hon. T. H. Haviland has offered to sell to the Government, at six shillings per acre, a portion of his land on Lots 43 and 41. We have no doubt the Government will effect a purchase. As the Hon. Mr. Haviland has begun so well, we hope to see him finish up the good work by also offering to the Government his property on Lot 56.—Her.

FEVER.—It is stated that the use of the water from the pump at the corner of Kent and Prince Streets, is the principal cause of the fever which has prevailed in that quarter of the town since summer last. If this be a fact, the health officers ought to take the matter in hand, as otherwise the whole town will be visited with an epidemic.—Her.

LATEST DESPATCHES.

Toronto Dec. 21.—On Saturday afternoon Lieut.-Gov. Howland proceeded to state to the Chambers of the Legislative Assembly and gave Royal assent to sixteen Bills, all that have reached the final course in the House thus far. The House then adjourned until the 7th of January.

The Court of Queen's Bench to-day refused to grant a new trial to Whelan, convicted of the murder of D'Arcy McGee.

Chief Justice Richards and Judge Wilson sustain the verdict of the Ottawa jury while Judge Morrison dissented. The prisoner was remanded until Thursday, when he will appeal against the Court to-day, to the Court of Error.

Montreal, Dec 22.—After judgment in Whelan's counsel made application for another appeal. The application will be considered on Thursday next.

OBITUARY.

On Monday last, we followed to their last resting place, the remains of the late John Treganan, Esquire, of this City. About fifty-two years ago, when quite a young man, he emigrated from London to P. E. Island, with the object of settling himself in life in the New World. He had no sooner arrived in the Colony than he threw off his coat, rolled up his sleeves and set himself deliberately to work to accomplish his object. By the exercise of sobriety, industry and perseverance, he soon worked himself into a profitable business. He aimed at a competency, not merely for his own sake, but for his rising family. Whilst engaged in this laudable object, he also sought to attain to a certain degree of Christain perfection. There is no man alive who can cast a reproach upon the memory of Mr. Treganan. As a mechanic he bore an honest name, in politics, whilst always adhering to the Liberal side, yet from his urbane disposition, he ever commanded the good opinion of all classes and all shades of political views. He died in general esteem. He fell sick about four months ago, and during the wearisome and trying period of his protracted illness, he preserved that character of self-abnegation for which he has been always noted. He died at peace with God and man—full of years and full of honors. During the last twelve years of his existence he had been in connection with the Bible Christian Church. By his zeal and the consistency and propriety of his every day-life, he edified the church with which he was in connection. The panegyric pronounced over his mortal remains, by the Rev Mr. Chappell, found a response in the hearts of many of those who filled the Bible Christian Chapel on Monday last. Stretching back our memory to the dawn of recollection, we have no hesitation in saying that there are few who have passed to the tomb in our time who have enjoyed a better reputation than John Treganan, Esq. His remains were followed to the Protestant Cemetery, Malpeque Road, by a most respectable assemblage of citizens.—HERALD.

WE have received from the publishers, the "Star Spangled Banner" for January. With this number it enters upon its seventh volume, and is enlarged and improved, giving nearly double the former amount of matter. It is a rich, rare and racy sheet of 40 long columns and 8 large pages, illustrated, and is really the cheapest paper in the country. Its publishers present, gratis, to every subscriber, a splendid engraving, and the price of all is only 75 cents. Specimens can be seen at this office or will be sent free by addressing
