SOME CORRECTIONS.—In yesterday's EXAMINER some errors and omissions occured in the list of Island prize-winners in poultry at the Halifax Exhibition. For black langshan hen the first prize went to E. C. Crockett, Charlottetown, and the second to Geo. Chilton. For black langshan cock and hen (chickens) E. C. Crockett received first and Geo. Chilton second prizes. Geo. B. FROM SOUTH AFRICA.—We will soon again have the pleasure of welcoming home more of our Island soldiers from Africa. SOLDIERS OF THE QUEEN.—Preparations for the great military drama "Soldiers of the Queen," which will open on Thursday evening next are being rapidly pushed by the energetic manager, Mr. Bewley, and are now nearly completed. Some of the special scenery which is in the hands of a local artist is about finished and has received unstinted praise from those who have seen it. The production, aside from its artistic qualities, has a special claim upon the people of Charlottetown which entitles it to their hearty support, as it is a child of the Island. It was here that the idea was first conceived, the play written and all the necessary auxiliaries financial and artistic were secured. The money for its production is being expended in this city. Some of the most prominent residents are taking an active interest in its success, and it is to the well known artistic judgment of the Charlottetown public that the management will submit its fate, relying upon their honest criticism to justify the sanguine expectations of the author.
