

...the Royal Albert landed her troops, consisting of the 1st Regiment, draughts and mules, and a battery of 100 lbs of Artillery, and another of Sappers and Miners. She has gone up to blockade Sebastopol...

NEWS OF THE WAR. PROSPECTS OF THE ALLIES IN THE CRIMEA. The Paris Correspondent has the following article on this subject...

OMAR PASHA and the Allies. "Spectator," London. The New York Commercial Advertiser, expresses the opinion that there is no longer a doubt that Omar Pasha has been sent to the Crimea...

one monotonous and continuous and eternal cycle—limber forward on the rack; the fingers forever playing, the eyeballs forever straining, the brow forever sweating...

generally supposed that he has fallen into the river on his way home and was drowned, as the night was dark and there were no lights on the tram traffic.—East-End Chronicle.

HARZARD'S GAZETTE.

Wednesday, February 14, 1855.

SIR C. NAPIER AND THE GOVERNMENT. It appears almost impossible (says the Hampshire Telegraph) any longer to conceal the fact, that considerable misunderstanding has arisen...

THE LANCETER GUN.—In the course of a conversation with a distinguished officer from the Crimea, I asked his opinion of the Lancaster gun of 20 lbs. weight...

THE SAVANNAH GEORGIANS. The Savannah Georgian of the 9th inst. has the following market intelligence: Monday last, the 1st, was a general sale day...

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE. The first locomotive engine ever constructed in Italy left the factory at Sampier d'Arno, on the 10th inst. for a trial trip to Pontedecio...

We were promised, that when Responsible Government was once well established, every man should be placed on some regular and unimpeachable footing—that compensation would be unobtainable...

CAPTURE OF RUSSIAN FIREWOOD. On the night of the 28th our advanced picket, attracted by some tempting wooden piles...

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE. A new vessel, called the Southern Cross, of 100 tons burthen, intended to be used by Dr. Joseph Tucker, shipwright, of Bristol...

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE. The Halifax Daily Sun says.—A few minutes about 7 o'clock, yesterday morning, a small boat, which was under way...

It is of the utmost importance to the growing industry of the Commercial part of the community that the mails should be regular...

With regard to the chief operation in the Baltic—the destruction of Bomarsund—commander-in-chief, the attack was not effected by an attack by the great fleet under the Admiral's orders...

SOLDIERS WITH THEIR CLOTHES ON. For six months past, the soldiers of the Crimea have been in a state of destitution...

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE. The Halifax Daily Sun says.—A few minutes about 7 o'clock, yesterday morning, a small boat, which was under way...

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE. The Halifax Daily Sun says.—A few minutes about 7 o'clock, yesterday morning, a small boat, which was under way...

It is of the utmost importance to the growing industry of the Commercial part of the community that the mails should be regular...

Other facts will doubtless shortly transpire in reference to the pious Baltic campaign, as the result will be brought before the public by its meeting.

SIR CHARLES NAPIER, viewing the order to be sent to the Crimea, in the name of the Emperor, has demanded a court-martial, for the purpose of its being thoroughly sifted...

NO SABOTEUR.—It is "Free Press" says, the printer in Scotland, there occurs the following passage:—"I have just had the abstraction of my printing-works, which were in the working class, which were my own."

THE EARTHQUAKE.—The Halifax Daily Sun says.—A few minutes about 7 o'clock, yesterday morning, a small boat, which was under way...

It is of the utmost importance to the growing industry of the Commercial part of the community that the mails should be regular...

Other facts will doubtless shortly transpire in reference to the pious Baltic campaign, as the result will be brought before the public by its meeting.

Other facts will doubtless shortly transpire in reference to the pious Baltic campaign, as the result will be brought before the public by its meeting.

Other facts will doubtless shortly transpire in reference to the pious Baltic campaign, as the result will be brought before the public by its meeting.

Other facts will doubtless shortly transpire in reference to the pious Baltic campaign, as the result will be brought before the public by its meeting.

It is of the utmost importance to the growing industry of the Commercial part of the community that the mails should be regular...

Other facts will doubtless shortly transpire in reference to the pious Baltic campaign, as the result will be brought before the public by its meeting.