We make no pretensions to the gift of divination, but we do claim to have some knowledge of political causes and effects; and, with certain facts before us, the light which that knowledge affords us enables us clearly to perceive that unless we speedily evidence greater capacity for Self-Government than is displayed in the present disorganized state of the community, the Imperial fiat will be sent forth against us: our Free Constitution will be withdrawn, our Legislature abrogated; and, instead of Responsible Government, for which the people fought so long and sturdy a battle, Irresponsible Rule will be established in the form of a Governor and Council; or, in other and more distinctive words, in the creation of an Oligarchy; to fill up the small and privileged number of which, we may all rest assured, not one man will be taken from the ranks of the great body of the people.

As thus briefly expressed, it will be seen how far our estimation or consideration of the consequences to be apprehended from the existence of the Tenant League goes beyond that of the Liberal parties who censure us for our denunciations of it. And such our view of the great evils which that mischievous organization may bring down upon us as a people — a view the justness of which, we feel fully persuaded, is concurred in by all the worth, intelligence, and respectability of the Island—affords us the fullest justification—staunch liberal and determined opponent of the Government as we are — for throwing into the scale of constitutional authority, all the weight of any influence we may possess, for the suppression—and punishment, too, at least of the crafty ringleaders — of that combination of social incendiaries.

We have now, we think, been sufficiently explicit, so far as concerns the course, which, in our editorial capacity, we have adopted, at the present crisis of our polity; but as it may not be amiss, and may happily, peradventure, tend to some salutary end, we will, now that "we are in the counselling vein," follow up our exculpation on that head, by some practical suggestions—made, for the sake of greater freedom in the tendering of them, through the agency of the "third person."

In the first place, however, it may be well to state what are our conceptions of the duties of an honest and patriotic editor of a political newspaper, in a free country — even although he may be a party man — in times of such popular discontent and commotion as threaten the extinction, in the minds of many, of those surest guarantees for the preservation of rational freedom and the general well-being — the love of social order, and reverence for the laws and institutions of the state.

According to our conceptions of the political character and duties of such an editor, the broad and general love of country or state will always be paramount, in his mind, to the circumscribed, the narrow love of party; and never can he give proofs of his being actuated by that sacred, that ennobling sentiment—"the love of country"—in a more unquestionable and honorable manner than when, obedient to its dictates, he breaks from the confined arena of party strife; and, ignoring all private and selfish considerations of mere party gain, steps boldly forward, and even as it were beneath the banners of a Government, to the general policy of which he is steadily opposed, takes his stand in hostile resistance to the designs of factious scoundrels, who endeavour to conceal their gross and selfish knavery under professions of zeal for the best interests of the State; but whose seditious and licentious career, if unchecked by the supreme authority of the land, would terminate, he clearly sees, in nothing short of the utter ruin of constitutional freedom.

An editor of such a type would deem a season of civil commotion the most infelicitous of any that could possibly be chosen for the advocacy of mere party views and the prosecution of party warfare. He would, indeed, deem it a season for thoughtfulness, and for thoughtful action too; but not one in which to indulge in party accusations, recriminations, invectives, and abuse; or for the endeavouring, by either of the opponent parties in the state, to make political capital out of the by-gone mistakes or failures of the other. He would deem it rather to be a time for the forgetting of past differences, the cancelling of party jealousies and animosities, and the obliterating of the hard lines of demarcation between them. And, in freely raising his voice for the public good, he might, whilst, on the one hand, denouncing the designs of factious and seditious knaves, which could be accomplished only by the complete subversion of all legal and constitutional authority; on the other, addressing himself to the leading men of the two great rival parties in the country, remind them that no State, established on the broad and firm basis of equal laws, and the full recognition of equality in the participation of civil and religious privileges, on the part of all classes of its subjects,

"Could ever be, but by itself, undone."

And, as a warning against the disastrous consequences to be apprehended from the rivalry of political magnates at such a time; and as a persuasive to the wisdom of amity and concord among them, for the common good—of the many lessons which History affords to that end, he might instance the ever memorable fall of the ancient city of Jerusalem, which, strong in its defence:—its triple walls, its strong towers, and its impregnable citadel — and in the valour and amor patriæ of its citizens and soldiers, might—humanly speaking, and apart from all consideration of Jehovah's immutable decree, pronounced against it—had it not been for the cruel and most bloody civil war, carried on within it between the fierce partisans of the rival chiefs, Simon and John—have successfully withstood all the efforts of Titus to compass its destruction, although commanding an army of veterans, of valour unsurpassed, and the best disciplined in the world, and aided in the siege by the most terrible engines of war—the huge Helipoleis or city takers, and the irresistible Nicocs or conquerors—and its temple, "a mount of snow, fretted with golden pinnacles," have remained to this day to excite the admiration of the world.

Safe, he might say to them, within the triple defences, which, in amity and concord with each other, would be afforded them by the Constitution, the Laws, and Executive Power, they might easily ward off the evils with which the State was threatened, as the results of the traitorous machinations of the knavish and wicked disturbers of the public peace; and preserve, or secure to themselves and the people, all the advantages, privileges and blessings which are ever attendant upon the fair and full administration of free constitutional government. But if kept apart, by mutual mistrusts and jealousies, from that perfect union, which their own, as well as the best interests of the State so urgently demanded of them, the ruin of the State could not be prevented; and the loss of its independence, the degradation of its people, and all the other evils consequent thereon, would be attributable only to their blind and selfish obstinacy, their illiberal policy, and culpable ambition; and if any individuals among them should, through unyielding self-sufficiency, or arrogance of fancied superior deserts, prove insuperable obstacles in the way of the needful union, reconstruction of parties, and re-organization of government; upon them especially would rest the odium of having sacrificed the liberties of their country to their overweening estimation of themselves, and their memories would be deservedly execrated by posterity.

The above counsel, although indirectly given, is by no means enigmatical. On the contrary, it is so plain that they who run may not only read, but understand it too. In tendering it, we have done our part for the present; and if they with whom rests the power to carry it into effect neglect to do so, the fault will be none of ours. ***

A TENANT LEAGUE STORY SET AT REST.—The following correspondence appeared lately in the Patriot and Islander. We think the simple statement made in the letter of the Rev. Mr. Montgomery should be widely known. For months the Tenant Leaguers have been bragging most extensively of their purchases from the proprietors, and Mr. Montgomery was one to whom they at first referred with incomparable audacity. We were well aware that there was not one acre purchased by the Tenant League, in its associated capacity, in any part of the Island, and the stories put forth about great sales and great bargains being effected, were circulated for no other purpose than to delude the tenantry, in various parts of the Island, into subscribing their money to the general fund of the League, to be appropriated, by and bye, to their own use, by two or three unscrupulous fellows at the head of it:—

To the Editor of the Islander.

SIR:—Will you have the kindness to publish the annexed letter from the Rev. James F. Montgomery, one of the proprietors of Lot 34, in the next issue of the Islander, in order to disabuse the public mind relative to the report that he is about to sell his property, through the influence of the Tenant League.

I am your obd't. servant,
T. HEATH HAVILAND

Ch'town, 12th Oct., 1865.

EDINBURGH, 15th Sept., 1865.

MY DEAR SIR,—Since I last wrote to you I have learned more than I had hitherto known of the improper and illegal proceedings of the association calling themselves the Tenant League. These proceedings, I thing, it is the duty of every lover of order to discourage and check to the utmost of his power. And, therefore, anxious as I am that the negociations pending for the sale of my property to the Tenants, should be brought to a satisfactory conclusion, I wish to state clearly that I will make no terms with any person who belongs to that association. I am glad, however, to be assured that the Tenants on Lot 34 have entirely held aloof from these unconstitutional proceedings; and while this remains the case, I am truly desirous to meet them in a liberal and straightforward spirit. I am writing to Mr. Haythorne, by this mail, making a suggestion for the arrangement of the points that have arisen in the course of our correspondence; and if this is agreed to, I authorize you to conclude the transaction on that footing.

Believe me, yours sincerely,
JAMES F. MONTGOMERY.

The Hon. T. H. Haviland, P. E. Island.

ENTERTAINMENT AT ST. ANDREW'S HALL.

On Thursday evening last, the pupils of the Convent of Notre Dame gave a Musical and Dramatic Entertainment at St. Andrew's Hall, which was, like all the entertainments given by the same ladies, a complete success. The music was excellent, and the various dialogues and dramatic pieces called forth repeated expressions of approbation and applause from the very large and respectable audience, amongst whom were many of the leading Protestants as well as Catholics of the city. Every one present seemed delighted with the proceedings of the evening. Much praise is due to the young ladies who acted their part so admirably on this occasion, and who gave many of the members of this community an opportunity of enjoying for two hours the unalloyed pleasure of rational and innocent amusement. The handsome sum realized by the sale of the tickets is to be employed for the laudable pupose of procuring a Circulating Library for the pupils of the Convent. This will add much to the usefulness of that excellent Educational Institution.

THE WEEKLY BULLETIN is the name of a new paper, the first No. of which was issued last week from the office of Messrs. Cooper Brothers in this City. It succeeds, we understand, the Monitor, and is a very great improvement on that journal. The Bulletin is handsomely printed—professes to be neutral or independent in politics; and expressing good will towards all its contemporaries. We give its proprietors assurance of ours, without stint or cavilling; and hope that, as a commercial speculation alone, the Bulletin will be able to afford its friends the most favorable reports of its paying qualities.

WE were much pleased to read the following letter from the Hon. T. D. McGee, in a late New Brunswick paper, addressed to John Boyd, Esqr., of St. John, N. B. It not only removes painful apprehensions regarding Mr. McGee's health — about which the Colonial papers have been speaking too carelessly—but it shows (what we value very much) the kindly impressions which have been left upon the minds of our Canadian friends by the late visit from one hundred and eighteen persons from the Maritime Provinces — a visit which certain croakers, who themselves would not or could not go to Canada —have used all their small talk and their small influence to disparage:—

MONTREAL, Oct. 18, 1865.

My Dear Sir.—You will be glad to learn that my illness, though of a slow and irksome nature enough, has not been, as some of the papers have announced, of a nature seriously to threaten life. Still it has confined me to bed, ever since our friends left here — a fortnight ago. Another week will, however, with God's blessing, probably close the term of my confinement.

Had it not been for this attack, I would long since have written to congratulate you on the final success of the return visit from the Maritime Provinces to Canada, with the formation of which you took so much pains and trouble. We had at the closing scenes in Montreal 118 Maritime Guests; and although myself and others who know something of the rest of British America, missed many faces we would gladly have welcomed, we were rejoiced that, under all the circumstances, so full a representation of your people had been brought face to face with so many of our people. From such intercourse we augur everything that is good for both guests and hosts.

As to the opinions of those who are interested in sowing strife between these sister Provinces, I am sure you care as little for them as I do. That there should be such persons; that they should take a pleasure in making mischief between fellow-subjects and fellow-Colonists, is to be deplored. That any of them should occupy positions to enable them to sow the seeds of seperation and ill-will with greater effect, is still more to be deplored. But they will fail; their objects are evil; their motives are bad; and their artifices are beginning to be generally understood.

Let every friend of the Union, that is strength and safety, and honor, only do as you have done, my dear sir, in this late anxious undertaking, and the enemies of our future will be speedily discomfitted. I remain, my dear sir,

With sincere regard,
Yours very truly,
THOS. D'ARCY MCGEE.

John Boyd, Esq., St. John, N. B.

IT is with sincere regret that we have to announce the departure of the Detachment of the 16th Regiment from our shores, inasmuch as, during their stay here, they have conducted themselves, with few exceptions, (but there are "black sheep in every flock,") in a highly creditable manner; and we firmly believe there are none of our readers who will not join with us in wishing our friends of the 16th every prosperity. We are glad to have to record the fact, that though some of the men of this Detachment were foolish enough, on its arrival here, to forget their duty, and break their oath of allegiance, yet not one absentee has been reported since the order for their departure was received, whereas in former days, when the troops were stationed here, the route was seldom unaccompanied by some cases of desertion.—Com.

The Montreal Herald pretends to possess wonderful knowledge of public matters in the Maritime Provinces. In a lengthy article on the Westmorland election, we find the following:—

"This was Mr. Palmer, the Solicitor General of Mr. Tilley's Government, and of course an official advocate for the carrying out of that magnificent scheme on which his late leader discanted so eloquently at the St. Lawrence Hall."

LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH.

FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, 23d, p. m.—Additional per Hibernian, London, Friday Oct. 12th.—A meeting of the Atlantic Telegraph Co., has authorized an increase of Capital by 16,000 shares of 5 pounds each..... The papers generally comment on the Adams-Russell correspondence. The Times can hardly doubt that the proposal for a commission will ultimately be accepted, and say it is the best if not the only solution, and the candid and friendly tone of the argument between Russell and Adams justified that expectation. Other journals hope for an amicable solution .... The correspondence between Mr. Adams, the American Minister, and Earl Russell was in relation to the responsibility of England for the ravages committed upon American commerce by rebel pirates fitted out in England. Earl Russell repudiates all liability, and refuses all arbitration.

FROM THE UNITED STATES.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21st.—A Raleigh, N. C. paper of yesterday publishes a telegram from the President to Governor Holden, declaring that every dollar of the debt created in aid of the rebellion should be repudiated finally and forever and expressing a hope that the people of North Carolina will wash their hands of everything that partakes, in the slightest degree, of the rebellion so recently crushed by the strong arm of the Government.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 20th.—The Fenian Congress now in session here, is working harmoniously. Cheering news in relation to the progress and numbers of the organization in Ireland, has been received. Everything is working well.

NEW YORK, 21st, p. m.—The World's Nashville despatch says five different caves have been discovered under that city occupied by a large number of murderers and thieves, whose depredations have been carried on for a long time. One of the caves was used by Murrell and his gang when engaged in running off with negroes. The military have taken measures to clear out the caves and seal them against occupancy. Gold 146

NEW YORK, 23d.—The Herald's Toronto correspondent says the Fenian movement is causing great agitation throughout Canada, and great activity is said to prevail in Military quarters. Garrisons are strengthened in regions where the Irish predominate. The loyalty of soldiers investigated and arms distributed among citizens known to be opposed to the Fenians. It is thought that the movement in Ireland is only a ruse, and that Canada is the prize the Fenians are after. Gold 146.

PHILADELPHIA, 24th.—The Fenian Congress continued in Session yesterday. A complete re-organization has been effected, modelled after our National Government, with a President, Cabinet, Senate and House of Representatives..... Both houses of the newly established Congress held sessions yesterday..... Col. John O'Mahony was unanimously and amidst great cheering, declared President, after which he took the oath of office, and delivered an address..... A committee was appointed to draft an address embodying a recognition of an Irish Republic, which is to have a building in——, for Govermental purposes. There is said to be much rivalry for the possession of the bonds authorized by the Congress to be used, which are now nearly, if not quite ready for distribution. It is thought that all the business will be finished to-day..... Gold 146¼.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—Late advices from Charleston indicate that the former owners of the Sea Island do not meet with a friendly reception from the Freedmen at present in occupation of the plantations..... THE INSURRECTION IN JAMAICA.

THE reported, though brief, account of the insurrection of the negro troops in Jamaica, is the most exciting topic of Colonial news which we have received for a long time. The Halifax Evening Express of Wednesday last furnishes the following particulars:—

TROUBLE IN JAMAICA.—Information reached here late on Monday night last, that a serious revolt had taken place in Jamaica. The intelligence was received by telegraph from New York, communicated by Hon Mr Archibald, British Consul there, to the military authorities in this city. It appears that Mr. Archibald received a letter from Consul General Bunch, dated Oct. 18, in which he states that a serious outbreak had taken place among the negroes in the eastern portion of the Island, with a request that he would communicate with the authorities here. The result has been, that the 17th Regt. has been ordered off in the Duncan on Saturday next, and it is stated that she will probably call at Bermuda and take a portion of the 2nd Queen's. We are not certain, however, of the latter. It is stated that in the event of the services of the 16th being required, they will be held in readiness to embark without delay. The companies belonging to the different corps, at present stationed in P. E. Island, having been recalled, they will be relieved by a detachment of the 15th from New Brunswick, the steamer Delta having sailed this morning from this port to Shediac for the purpose of taking the 15th to the Island, returning here with the 16th. The sudden departure of the 17th from this station will be very much regretted by our citizens at large; and we hope their absence from this city will only be for a short period. His Excellency the Admiral, Sir James Hope, accompanies the troops to Jamaica; and had it not been for this unfortunate affair in Jamaica, we believe it was his intention to have remained here with his ship until February next. From all we can learn, there has been no loss of life among the white population up to the latest accounts; but there had been considerable damage done to property. The report, too, that the coloured troops had revolted, appears to have been incorrect. We have no doubt that, with a little firmness and decision, the whole matter will be speedily settled.

NEWFOUNDLAND.

The R. M. S. Delta arrived at Halifax on Tuesday morning last. St. John's dates are to the 16th.

The steamer Ariel arrived at St. John's on the 16th inst., from the Westward and Southward. She brought no news of importance, except that the fisheries continued fair at Fortune and Placentia Bays. Vessels are returning every day from the Labrador, and the papers report that during the past summer many deaths had occurred among that portion of the fishermen belonging to Harbor Grace and neighborhood.

The forthcoming general election is exciting considerable interest throughout the Island.

That loathsome disease, the smallpox, has made its appearance in Carbonear, and several families in that town are suffering from it. A meeting was held in the courthouse, Harbor Grace, on the 17th inst., on the subject, when it was determined to make application to the Government to adopt measures to prevent its further spread.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

Intelligence has been received from the city of Mexico, by way of Vera Cruz and Havana, to the 5th instant. Lieut. Maury, recently naturalized as an American citizen, has, by a decree dated the 19th September, been appointed an honorary Councillor of State.

The district of Oaxaca is in full insurrection against the Imperial forces. The Imperial journals acknowledge that the successes of the Juarists there are really important. There are also troubles in Sinaloa, whence many of the French residents have been expelled. The Emperor has decreed the establishment of an Imperial school of public service, "designed to educate officers for the various branches of the army service."

Considerable excitement has been raised in the city of Mexico by a murder and speedy punishment of the criminals. Three men named Trejo, Pinida and Guerrero, assassinated a young citizen named Julien Castillo. The public indignation was greatly aroused by the circumstances of the case, and the Emperor said that the murderers should be tried and punished by a military tribunal within forty-eight hours. This was done, and the three murderers were publicly executed at the same hour.

WRECK OF THE STEAMSHIP ATLANTA.

SIXTEEN OF THE PASSENGERS AND 29 OF THE CREW LOST.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The bark W. E. Anderson, from Mobile, arrived here this morning with David Drexler, 2 firemen and a seaman, and the cook of the steamship Atlanta, who were picked up at sea on a piece of the wreck of the Atlanta

Mr. Drexler reports that the Atlanta left New Orleans on the 7th inst., sprung a leak on the 15th, and on the 15th, in a heavy gale, when 200 miles south of Sandy Hook, at 5 o'clock, p. m., the steamer broke in three pieces, leaving him and the four others on the piece from which they were rescued, after floating nearly two days. The Atlanta had 17 passengers and 35 of a crew, all of whom, except the above, are supposed to have perished.

The Atlanta was owned by Charles Mallory, of Mystic, Conn., was a good steamer of 1,000 tons burthen, and run in the Atlantic Coast Company's line.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

(From the European Times, Oct. 14.)

The sudden and unexpected increase in the Bank rate of discount to seven per cent is again giving rise to those controversial disquisitions which are always rife when money is dear..... The cattle disease shows no signs of having exhausted itself. It is appearing in various new localities, and must necessarily command great attention during the coming winter..... We read of a serious outbreak of Cholera at Epping. In one house twelve persons were attacked, and four of the cases terminated fatally..... It is now accepted as a fact that the Prince and Princess of Wales will pay a visit to Lord Derby, at Knowsley, on their return from Scotland.....We hear of the appearance of Cholera in Paris, but the authorities, from fear of causing an alarm, suppress all details.

WRECK.—A small schooner belonging to Charlottetown, laden with coal, while on the passage between Pictou and Charlottetown, was caught in a gale, sprung a leak on the 17th inst., and after being run ashore on the Beach at Malignant Cove, immediately went to pieces. She was old and probably insured.—Antigonish Casket.

PROFIT OF FLAX CULTURE.

The Annual Report of the Worcester (Mass.) Agricultural Society contains the following statement of the expense and product of 13 square rods (a little over ⅝ of an acre) of Flax, grown by Aaron Kimball:—

Dr.		Cr.
Ploughing,	$2 00	400 lbs. Flax,	$106 26
Harrowing,	2 00	130 lbs. Tow,	5 20
12 loads manure,	13 00	8 bush. Seed,	36 86
130 lbs. Guano,	4 55

Taking off Seed,	4 00
Cleaning Seed,	1 00
Dressing Flax,	12 03

The land cultivated was a kind of sandy gravel, dry, and easily worked. It had been in pasture many years, and was not in very productive condition. It was ploughed up the previous fall, and harrowed in the Spring. Further details of culture are not given The value of the unspent manure, after removing the flax, was reckoned to more than pay the interest on cost of land, and this item is therefore omitted in the account.

JOHN INGS, ESQ.:

Dear Sir,—I shall be obliged by your inserting in to-morrow's Islander, the above extract, affording, as it does, so complete an evidence of the profitable culture of Flax. Yours truly,

Oct. 25, 1865. JOHN ALDOUS.

In consequence of the rebellion of the Negroes in Jamaica, and the departure of the 17th Regt from Halifax for the scene of action, the detachment of the 16th Regiment, stationed in this Island, were, by the Commander-in-Chief, ordered to embark for Halifax, to take the place of the 17th Regt. As we write, preparations are being made for their embarkation in the Steamer DELTA, which left Halifax at 8 a. m. on Wednesday, and arrived in Charlottetown last evening. The PRINCESS OF WALES on Wednesday, brought ten men of the 15th Regiment from Shediac, under the command of Ensign ———, and, after a few hours delay, returned to Shediac, there to remain and embark two Companies of the 15th Regt., which are to take the place of the detachment of the 16th. The detachment of the 15th, on arrival here, will march from the Steamer into the VICTORIA BARRACKS, which are now ready for their reception.

The troops sent to us can ill be spared from the garrisons of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick They are, nevertheless, sent to us; and we trust the foolish people of the Tenant League will see in this act of the Imperial authorities the determination to uphold the law in Prince Edward Island.—ISLANDER OF FRIDAY.

We understand that on Wednesday next, the 25th inst., the foundation stone of a new Catholic church is to be laid at Freetown. The ceremony will be performed by the Right Rev. P. In one town, the hospital was blown down, and all the inmates killed or wounded. Between 200 and 300 persons, altogether, were killed. The crops were destroyed and vessels stranded.

A London Jeweller has manufactured a watch for an Italian nobleman, which is to cost two thousand guineas.

Two hard things; first, to talk of yourself without being vain; second, to talk of others without slander.

Notice to Tenants.

THE Subscriber, as AGENT for the undersigned Proprietors, viz:—LORD VISCOUNT MELVILLE, of Edinburgh, Scotland; Rev. JOHN MACDONALD, of Sussex, England; Messrs. THOMSONS, of Belfast, Ireland; JOHN A. S. MACDONALD, of Montreal, Canada; and Miss MARGARET MACDONALD, of 61 Rue de Notre Dame des Champs, Paris,—has received positive instructions from each of them to collect payment of all RENT and ARREARS OF RENT due them, without delay; and if not immediately complied with, to place their respective Books in the hands of their Attorneys, for collection; and further, that it is not the intention of the Proprietors, who have been applied to to sell their Lands, to dispose of them at present, unless to those who can pay for their holdings, with the arrears of rent, down.

Now, in compliance with the above instructions, I beg to notify the Tenants of the above Proprietors, that I request immediate payment of their Rent and Arrears of Rent, hoping and trusting that they will not compel me to resort to harsh measures for the recovery of the same.

I would further beg to state, that considering Charlottetown the most central place to meet the Tenants, I will be at the "North American Hotel" on Market days, say Tuesdays and Fridays in each week, and at my Office, at Millview, Lot 49, on the remaining days of the week.

OLD KING COAL.

Sydney and Pictou.

YE business legions, traversing the regions,
For vast enterprise on American soil,
What article greater, by bright speculator,
Than me can be found to pay venture or toil?
The steamship's swift motion, on rough or calm ocean,
With mails, goods, or passengers, on me depends:
On land the steam power is heard every hour,
Where COMMERCE and COAL and the BROKER are friends.

So look to the BROKER, for he is the joker,
For whom from the bowels of earth I mount high,
In large and small sorted, in vessels transported,
The forge and the furnace and stove to supply
Then, ye business men, let my friend H. A. BENNETT,
The Broker in Charlottetown, have all your aid:
You know you require him—the ladies admire him—
And all say he's best qualified for my trade.

CHEAP GAS.

THE Directors of the Charlottetown Gas Light Company have reduced the price of GAS from 15s. to 10s. per thousand feet, when consumed in Gas Stoves, for cooking or heating purposes.

The Gas Stove used for heating purposes, surpass all other Stoves in cleanliness, safety, quickness of adaptation, as well as in economy.

The Gas Stoves, when used in Halls, radiate a warm and agreeable atmosphere throughout the whole house, and as the gas can, with the greatest safety, be left burning during excessive cold nights, it obviates the necessity of using stoves in the Bed-rooms throughout the dwelling, thus making one Gas Stove perform the same duty as five or six coal stoves when placed in the several Bedrooms, and not only diminishing the risk of fire to the same extent, but also the cost of warming the various apartments, together with the yet greater benefit derived by enabling persons to discontinue the use of Bed-room fires, so highly injurious to health.

Apply at the Warehouse of E. R. TAYLOR, or at the GAS WORKS.

I have used them for the past five years, one in a room with no ventilation, and in which most of my time in my house is spent. During this period there has been no discomfort in any respect.

In brief, I have been so well satisfied as to this invention that, by my advice, many of my friends have tried them, and from none have I ever heard a complaint. WINSLOW LEWIS, M. D.

I am ready to say, at your request, that I have used your gas stove in a dressing-room for some years, and have found it, in that capacity, an admirable and unexceptionable contrivance.

Yours truly, HENRY J. BIGELOW, M. D.

NEW YORK, 130 Ninth Street.

I have used W. F. Shaw's Gas Stove for a year past, in a dressing-room without fireplace, and have found it a source of great comfort and convenience. W. DETMOLD, M. D.

We have used your gas-burning apparatus for heating purposes, during the past year, and are well pleased with the utility and superiority over the old method of burning gas for heat. In the laboratory, we consider them indispensable to economy and convenience.

We recommend them to every chemist and pharmaceutist who has the luxury of gas at his control. BULLOCK & CRENSHAW, Manufacturing Chemists.

I have made use of one of your Gas Stoves, with three burners, in my room at the bank this season, and have been entirely satisfied with it. I have generally found that one burner was all that I needed. The air has not been unpleasant, and I do not hesitate to recommend it to those persons who wish to heat rooms quickly, and with almost no trouble.

Yours truly,
SAMUEL H. WALEY.
