The Markets.

BOSTON, May 29.

Receipts of potatoes past six days 51,000 bush; previous six days 47,000 bush. The arrivals of old stock have been moderate this week and good, hard, sound lots have been selling fairly. The supply now on hand is rather light, especially of good eastern sorts. Western are also pretty well sold up, but some of them had to go at low prices. Chenangoes are in light supply and close firm at 85c. Magnums have been quite plenty but gradually cleaning up and close steady at quotations. Receipts of new southern have been large and prices have fallen rapidly. For the past day or two, most sales have been at about $3.00 with some of the best marks at $3.25 per bbl.

Receipts of eggs have been pretty full this week, but there has been a steady demand and prices have made a further advance. Eastern are in light supply, especially strictly extra lots and such stock sells in a small way at full prices. N. S., N. B. and P. E. Island stock is moving off fairly at quotations. Western range from 14½ and 15c. as to grade, but only selected marks bring 15c.

There is very little doing in fish, and quotations for all lines are largely nominal. There is very little doing in bbl herring and prices nominally unchanged. Hardly enough mackerel selling to establish quotations.—

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used by mothers for children teething for over fifty years with perfect success. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain; and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. apl18'90dyeodwkly

Before and After.

Methought I stood midway on Life's strange sea
And looked back: a dark and sin-stain'd track
Proclaimed my early years; above, the rack
And storm of Heaven raged unceasingly;
Sad strewage here and there recall'd to me
Long shipwreck'd hopes and prayers that God sent back.
My heart was troubled and my soul was black;
I loathed the past, from which I could not flee;
When, lo! a spirit touch'd me, and I turn'd
And look'd beyond—the sea was silver-bright;
The heavenly blue was glad with golden light;
A rainbow promised all for which I yearn'd;
Then, never looking back, the future path I trod
That led me unto thee, and through thee, unto God.

SAREPTA.

Lower Montague Notes.

The weather is all that can be desired, and the crops are coming on with great vigor. The foliage is about out in full, and ornamental trees are in bloom. The well-cultivated fields, the orderly and systematical appearance of the farms, the comfortable buildings, all together give the country at this season of the year a grand appearance.

The inhabitants of Lower Montague have two neat little churches, viz., the Presbyterian and Methodist, where Divine services, Sabbath School and prayer meetings are frequently held. Rev. W. H. Spencer is pastor of the former, and Rev. John Goldsmith of the latter.

The imported carriage and trotting stallion Young General Cleveland will visit the stable of James Campbell, Montague Bridge, once a fortnight during this season, beginning with the 6th of May.

The Keefer Lodge, No. 46, of I. O. G. T., at Lower Montague is still on the rapid increase, and bids fair to become one of the leading lodges in the Province. Although only started a short time ago it has already a membership of over 50, and the number increases nearly every session. The following officers have been elected for the term ending July 31st:—

C. T.—R. H. Campbell.
V. T.—Miss Emma McLure.
S. J. T.—Miss Jennie Ross.
Secy.—James Stewart.
Fin. Secy.—A. R. Dauncey.
Chaplain.—Samuel Howe.
Treas.—Miss Minnie Cameron.
Marshal.—James Purchase.
Guard.—G. E. Peters.
Sentinel.—Geo. Sarbell.
Ass.-Secy.—T. W. Annear.
Deputy Marshal.—J. W. Aitkens.

The Legislative Council Election is now the general conversational topic. Mr. Poole, the popular resident candidate, receives a hearty and encouraging support in all sections of the district, and will consequently be elected by a large majority.

Messrs. W. A. Poole & Co. have a good general store and does a good business, and ships largely. Mr. Benjamin Aitken has also a good store and does a fair business.

Well, this is all present. By and bye you will hear from me again; in the meantime I will subscribe myself your friend.

TORY.

June 4, 1890.

Grand Tracadie Notes.

Farming is well advanced. Many of the farmers expect to finish cropping this week.

Herring fishing in these parts was fairly successful. The fishermen are now preparing for the more important fisheries of cod and mackerel.

Mr. Houstan, of Rustico, has completed a fine boat for Messrs. J. W. McDonald, jr., and J. D. McAulay. The boat, which promises to be speedy, has been named the Nellie Bly.

The farmers, too, are awakening to their interests, and four of the most progressive and go-ahead among them have purchased a schooner, which they named the Farmers' Glory, from Mr. N. Pelley. They intend trading in cattle and farm produce with St. Pierre and the neighboring provinces, thus securing to themselves the profits which would otherwise pass into the hands of middle-men.

Mr. J. W. McDonald, our enterprising merchant, is doing quite a rushing business in the dry goods line. He has lately stocked his store with choice spring goods, and is bound to keep abreast of the times.

Mr. Michael Ready, of Corran Ban, is erecting a commodious building. We understand that he also intends engaging in the mercantile business. Thus, by our steady progress, we show what little faith is to be put in the blue-ruin wail of the Grits.

News Notes.

The latest researches show that in Rome's most flourishing period the city had 1,300,000 inhabitants; in 335 A. D, it had 300,000; in 1377 only 17,000; under Leo X. 50,000; in 1537 about 38,000; in 1871 it rose to 244,000, in 1881, 300,000, and in 1889 more than 410,000.

It is said that Mount Etna is in a violent state of activity, pouring forth great volumes of fiery smoke. The residents in the vicinity are alarmed as it is believed a dangerous eruption is imminent.

Recent advices state that the governments of Europe are negotiating with a view to common action for the suppression of anarchism. Germany is taking a leading part in the negotiations, and the only obstacle encountered is the objection of England to the extradition of political offenders.
