FINLAY McNEILL, Esq., has written a letter in which he defends the management of Prince County Exhibition against the attacks of the Journal. The Journal has evidently "waked up the wrong customer;" but it was hardly necessary for Mr. McNeill to pay the Journal so much attention.

It having become known that a number of duck, snipe, woodcock, etc., were recently shot at the "Bigelow Farm," which is situated but two miles from the city, a rush was made by city sports to that sporting ground, and consequently a large amount of game was exterminated. The keeper of the farm, in order to prevent the total destruction of his precious game, posted at the entrance—it is said—the following ludicrously written notice: "Notis, to men who com on my master's plais with guns, hurrying voices & braying dogs, ashooting and skilling my master's game. I will no longer stand it, for I have only three snipe and not to exceed ten squirrels on my master's plais which I want for myself, and to those men who bring their dogs and hurrying voices here akilling birds will be fined reording as law; for I want all the woodpickers as they are by nature a ravishing animal for worms & such like, & my jay-birds hurt no won, and if let alone will help me muchly in the spring to keep away grub worms and the like. I want all my woodchucks for my master's eting as I never disturb them, keeping them to get fat, when they air worth as much as my chickens or ducks air. I say this to inform sun fools from Charlottetown who seem to like to kill my master's woodchucks and says for the fun. I mean business as shure as I now sine my name."

THERE was quite a lengthy docket at the Stipendiary Magistrate's Court yesterday. Thieves, vagrants and drunkards made a large display, and received their respective sentences with extraordinary uncheerfulness. James Faraday and Thomas Unchman were charged with a number of thieveries. It would be rather laborious, thought the magistrate, to examine their numerous offences, and he, making a bulk of the whole, sentenced each prisoner to six months imprisonment with hard labor. James Murphy arrested for larcenies similar to those of Enman, was sentenced to three months imprisonment, with hard labor, for vagrancy. James protested that he was innocent of all charges preferred against him. He said "he was never free from suspicion; and was always arrested for offences of which he was innocent. He might as well throw himself over the wharf, because he could not live in Ch'town without being looked upon, by the police, with suspicion." John Wise was sentenced to three months' imprisonment or pay a fine of thirty dollars, for assaulting J. H. G. Murphy. Leo McCormack, drunk and incapable, was fined $2 and costs or 8 days; and John McLeod for the same offence was fined $1 and costs or 4 days.

This morning Leo McCormack and his brother Daniel McCormack were arraigned at the instance of H. B. Smith, Esq., for creating a disturbance in the "Domination House." It appears they entered the house in a violent state of intoxication and by their actions threatened to destroy the furniture, &c. Mr. Smith forcibly ejected them with rather short notice. The Court considered that Mr. Smith's action was similar to taking the law in his own hands and Leo, therefore, was only fined $4 or 20 days, and Daniel $3 or 10 days for drunk and incapable.
