International Maritime Exhibition.

CONSULATE OF THE UNITED STATES. CH'TOWN, P. E. Island, Oct. 17, 1889.

Sir,—An International Maritime Exhibition will be held at Boston, Mass., from November 4, 1889, to January 4, 1890, and it is desired to make it truly international by inducing all countries to forward to the Exhibition in time for the opening, on November 4 next, or as soon thereafter as possible, any and all kinds of articles used in navigation and maritime pursuits.

I am informed that the management will undertake to bear the expense of transportation and reshipment of all articles sent for exhibition. This undertaking, it is presumed, is qualified by the charges being reasonable and the exhibits germane to the purpose in view.

Besides the Hon. John W. Ryckman, President and General Manager; William C. Christie, Vice-President and Treasurer; Hugh Coyle, Superintendent of Printing and Press Department, there is an advisory council of eleven experienced gentlemen from different parts of the States.

It would be gratifying to see Prince Edward Islanders take an interest in this important exhibition.
