New London WI Meeting Held

The July meeting of New London W.I. was held on Monday evening at the home of the president, Mrs. Daniel Morrison.

The meeting opened with "O Canada" followed by the Mary Stewart collect, with the president in the chair.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the secretary Mrs. Wilbur MacKay. A total of 11 members answered roll call with "A place where you would like to visit this summer". The correspondence was read and discussed. It was reported that new curtains had been hung at the windows of the hall. The woolen blankets were received and the premiums from the Blanket House were sold. Plans were made to cater to a wedding reception in August.

A report on the annual W.I. convention which was held in Charlottetown on July 10-11 was given by Mrs. Daniel Morrison.

It was decided not to have an August meeting.

Mrs. Wilbur MacKay gave a very interesting reading and prepared a contest. Mrs. Gillis Burgoyne also entertained with an interesting contest.

The meeting closed with the 'Queen'.

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by the lunch committee.

U.C. Ministerial Candidate Weds Bride At Springhill

A lovely summer wedding was solemnized at Wesley United Church, Springhill, N. S., when Shirley Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Millar, was united in marriage to Norman Dewar MacDougall son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDougall of Moncton, N.B., formerly of Charlottetown, P. E. I.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Miller, assisted by Rev. A. H. MacLeod of Lakeburn, N. B. The church was decorated with baskets of pink and white carnations and the guest pews were marked with red carnations.

Mrs. Clara Ritchie, church organist, played the hymn, "Praise My Soul the King of Heavenn" as the bride entered the church, and accompanied the soloist, Mr. Wesley MacLeod, who sang "The Wedding Prayer" and "Because" during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father looked charming in a gown of nylon chiffon. The fitted bodice was of lace with a scalloped neckline and point-ed sleeves. An elbow length veil was held in place by a lace tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses with white streamers, and wore pearls, a gift of the groom.

The matron - of - honor was Mrs. Douglas Fletcher, sister of the bride. She wore a street length dress of green satin with an overskirt of green nylon net. Her headpiece was a green satin crown covered with net, and she carried a cascade of white carnations centered by red roses.

Mrs. Maynard Rector and Miss Mildred Brown, friends of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore identical dresses of gold satin with overskirts of gold nylon net. Their crowns were of white satin covered with net and they carried cascades of white carnations around red roses.

Little Kathy Fletcher, niece of the bride, was a winsome flower girl in her deep rose nylon sheer dress. She wore a white head band, white gloves, and shoes and carried a basket of mixed flowers.

Mr. James Miller of Winsloe, P. E. I., was best man. Mr. Douglas Fletcher of Walton, N.S. Mr. Gerald Brown of Bedford, N.S.; Mr. Carl Oakes of Moncton, N.B., and Mr. Don Kessinghouse of Dartmouth, N.S. ushered the guests.

Mrs. Millar, mother of the bride, chose a sheath dress of beige nylon with yellow hat and gloves, and wore a corsage of yellow roses.

Mrs. MacDougall, the groom's mother, chose a dress of wedgewood blue and white arnel and crepe, with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. William Millar Sr., grandmother of the bride, wore a navy print nylon sheer, with beige hat, white shoes, gloves, and stole. She wore a corsage of American beauty roses.

Miss Louise Goodwin, niece of the groom was in charge of the guest book.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church hall, which was decorated with white streamers, bells and cupids.

The three - tier wedding cake, a gift of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Fletcher and family, was cut in the traditional manner and served by the bride and groom. The groom's cake was made by the bride's aunt Mrs. Ernest Coates.

Mr. Miller proposed the toast to the bride, to which the groom responded. Some time and Ruth Coates, cousins of the bride, served the bride's table. Misses Geraldine Hopkins, Dorothy McPhee, Gera ld Brown and Mrs. John Maitland attended the guests. Mrs. Ernest Coates, aunt of the bride and Mrs. Mary Belle Goodwin, sister of the groom, presided over the silver tea services.

Mrs. J.A. Carruthers honoured Miss Jenkins with a combination coffee party and surprise shower. Mrs. Jack Cutcliffe read the cards and the bride-to-be opened the gifts.

At the closing meeting of the 1st Southport Girl Guides the lieutenant, Wilma MacFarlane, on behalf of the Guides, presented the captain, Bonnie MacKie, with a gift on the occasion of her approaching marriage.

Mrs. Keith Mutch and Mrs. Edwin Henry were joint hostesses at Mrs. Henry's home in honour of Bonnie MacKie, who was one of the June brides.

Gifts were wheeled into the living room in a gaily decorated carriage by two little girls, Nancy Mutch and Brenda Henry. Wilma MacFarlane read the accompanying verses while Miss Bernadette Gallant and Mrs. Arthur Wellner assisted opening the gifts. After Bonnie thanked her friends, lunch was served by the hostesses and assistants.

Mr. and Mrs. John MacKinnon of Boston are visiting friends and relatives at North River.

A lobster supper was held in honour of Gail Jenkins at the home of Mrs. Ivan Horne, at which the hostess presented the guest of honour with a piece of Wedgwood.

Mr. and Mrs. James MacKay hosted a chicken and steak barbecue at their summer home in Stanhope in honor of Gail Jenkins and Dr. Kenneth Armstrong when they were presented with a gift by the host and hostess.

Mrs. Russell Burns of New York City is visiting her sister, Mrs. Louis Higgins, 14 Wendy Drive, Charlottetown. Also guest of Mrs. Kiggins is her nephew Jackie Grant of Peabody, Mass.

Miss Bonnie MacKie was a guest of honour at a cup and saucer shower given by her fellow teachers at the home of Mrs. Claude Wood, Cross Roads in honour of her approaching marriage.

Mrs. Wayne MacEachern, Mrs. Lowell Balderston, Dorothy Burke and Mrs. W.V. Burke were hostesses at Mrs. Burke's home for a bridal shower for Bonnie MacKie. Mrs. Balderston assisted in opening the gifts while Mrs. Basil Kerwin read the accompanying verses.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDougall and daughter Mrs. Mary Belle Goodwin and family, Moncton, are vacationing at Mrs. Walter MacMillan's cottage at Stanhope Bay.

Miss Freda Tulle and Mrs. Ronald MacDonald were joint hostesses at the former's home on July 23, when they entertained in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brian (nee Rose Tulle) of Boston, Mass. Mrs. O'Brian is a granddaughter of Mrs. Mary Tulle.

Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Tulle and family, Dalhousie, N.B., are vacationing at Stanhope.

Pupils of Grade II, Southport School, waited on their teacher Miss Bonnie MacKie, and presented her with a gift. Mr. C. Wood, principal of Southport School expressed the sentiments of the class and the presentation, was made by Miss Michele Carpenter.

Bonnie responded and voiced the hope of returning to them next term.

Rev. Russel Carr, Mrs. Carr and family of Dartmouth, N.S., have been guests of Mr. Carr's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Carr, Spring Park Road.

LAC and Mrs. John Weedon and son Philip of Greenwood, N.S., will spend their leave visiting Mrs. Weedon's mother, Mrs. Amy Geldert, Morell.

Mrs. R.L. Noonan and Mrs. W.P. Callaghan were joint hostesses at the home of Mrs. Noonan in Summerside on Wednesday afternoon, when they entertained in honor of Mrs. J.P. MacInnis and Mrs. Noonan's sisters, Mrs. W.A. Tallimire and Mrs. L E.MacLellan of Ottawa, and Miss Pauline Noonan RN, of St. Anne De Bellevue, Quebec.

A salad tea was served by the hostesses with Mrs. A.B. Grant presiding over the teacups, while Mrs. Henry Noonan, Mrs. Lloyd Gallant, and Mrs. Charles Horgan assisted in serving. Mixed home garden flowers made an attractive setting for this enjoyable gathering of friends. Music and a social hour followed.

Among those attending the wedding of Shirley Daley to William Connor in St. Paul's Church in Sturgeon on July the 20th were Father Andrew MacDonald, of Brockville, Ont., Miss Nellie MacDonald, Montreal: Miss Helen Daley, Fitchburg, Mass.; Mr. and Mrs. Melvin O'Leary and daughter Marilyn, Middle Sackville,; Elinor Farrell, Halifax; Mr. J.H. Dodd, Shearwater, N.S.; Peter Beach, Halifax; Edwin Cormier, Halifax; Mr. and Mrs. John Connor, Magog, Quebec; Jeanette MacDonald, Dorchester, Mass.; Audrey Connor, Montreal; Jack Connor, Magog, Quebec; Shirley McArron, Alliston, Mass; and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Whittier, Granby, Quebec.

MR. AND MRS. FREDERICK BURKE
City Bride Carries White Roses At Trinity United

The marriage of Jessie Emma MacKie, daughter of Mr. H. Harold MacKie, Southport, and Willard Frederick Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard V. Burke, Charlottetown, was solemnized at Trinity United Church, Charlottetown. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Gerald G. Wyrwas. Mr. Royston Mugford, A.R.C.O., officiated at the organ. During the ceremony and signing of the register Mr. Lloyd Martin sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white embroidered taffeta and carried a bouquet of white roses. A pearl tiara held her fingertip veil in place.

Miss Joyce MacKie, sister of the bride, was matron of honour and the bridesmaid was Eleanor Henry, cousin of the bride. They wore complimentary street length dresses of organza over flowered surah with matching headpieces and carried bouquets of white carnations and coloured mums.

Mr. Eric MacRae, friend of the groom, was best man and the guests were ushered by Mr. Carl Gamester and Mr. Edwin Henry.

Mrs. MacKie wore a two piece dress of beige silk shantung with white accessories, and a corsage of pink roses. The mother of the groom was attired in a dress of blue lace over taffeta with white accessories and wore a corsage of yellow carnations.

The altar of the church was banked with yellow, white and pink mixed bouquets, and white mums and satin bows marked the guest pews.

The reception was held in the beautifully decorated church hall. Mrs. Gordon Roper and Mrs. Dorothy Henry poured while Wilma Burke, Margaret Dawn Matheson, Bernadette Gallant. Mary Lee Rodgerson, Arlene MacDonald, Shirley Hyde, Mrs. Edwin Bowness and Mrs. Newson, Mrs. Eric MacRae and Mrs. Lowell Balderston assisted in serving. Miss Annie Lee Fyfe was in charge of the guest book.

Rev. Mr. Wyrwas proposed the toast to the bride which was responded to by the groom. Mr. Eric MacRae read telegrams.

The wedding cake was cut in the traditional manner and served to the guests by the bridal couple.

For going away the bride chose a two piece dress of blue linen with white basket, white accessories and wore a blue carnation. Upon their return from a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes the couple took up residence in Charlottetown.

Out of town guests included Eleanor Henry, Toronto, Ont.; Mrs. Evelyn Brown, Bugunda, Australia; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connor, Halifax, N.S.; Rev. and Mrs. Russel Carr, Dartmouth, N.S.; Mr. and Mrs. Hector Mosiman and Linda, Bridgewater, N.S.; Mr. and Mrs. James Carr, Dartmouth, N.S. and Mr. Robyn Cameron, Halifax, N.S.

HAPPENINGS

F-Lt. N.A. Houska and Mrs. Houska with their four children left Saturday to return to their home in Washington, D.C. after spending a pleasant holiday with Mrs. Houska's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ben Newson at Harrington.

While on the Island they visited Mrs. Houska's brother, Glen Newson and family, North River Road, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Noel Wade has returned to Montreal after attending the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Harry Redmond, Charlottetown. Mrs. Wade was accompanied on her return by Miss Karen Roberts.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Bell of Prince George, British Columbia, formerly of Carleton Siding, St. Peter's Bay, and Charlottetown, are visiting friends and relatives in Prince Edward Island. They are the guests of Mr. Bell's mother, Mrs. Helen S. Bell, Charlottetown.

Misses Anne and Leah Moore both of Charlottetown left Monday noon for Boston to spend a week with their aunt Mrs. Ethel Collins, Malden, Mass.

A shower was held at the home of Mrs. Leigh Crabbe (nee Virginia MacKay) for Miss Gail Jenkins. The bridal chair was decorated with yellow and white wedding bells and streamers which blended with the dress worn by the bride-to-be. The gifts were presented in the form of a search, the directions being found in the balloons flanking the bride's chair. Mrs. Grant Rackham read the cards as Miss Jenkins' gifts were opened.

The marriage of Miss Gail Jenkins and Dr. Kenneth Armstrong will take place Thursday evening, July 25, at 6.30 in Trinity United Church, Charlottetown.

Mrs. Edwina Armstrong of Olds, Alberta, arrived by car Wednesday to attend her son's wedding. She was accompanied by her daughter Pat, her son Donald and his wife, and Mr. Ross Holmes, all of Alberta. While in Prince Edward Island they are staying at the Southport Motel.

Miss Jenkins has been entertained by a number of friends and relatives during the past few weeks.

A kitchen shower given by her aunts, Mrs. Jack Stevenson and Mrs. Fred Jenkins was held in Miss Jenkins' honour. Many lovely and useful gifts were received.

Following the reception for ninety guests the couple left on a two-week honeymoon trip to Quebec and the New England States. (Photo by Craswell Studio)

Local Products Plentiful Say Bureau Receptionists

Mrs. L. G. Ramsay and Miss Eleanor Champion, receptionists at the Kensington Tourist Bureau and Handicraft Center report that many tourists are taking advantage of the facilities offered by the center.

They also announced that there is a good selection of local products for sale, with more expected to come in after the close of the Lobster Carnival. Island soil in a tiny vial decorated with the Lady's Slipper, Prince Edward Island's emblem, may be purchased for a quarter plus tax, and there are of course, many other small articles suitable for souvenirs.

On the opposite end of the price scale are hooked rugs both in all wool and scrap, paintings of Island scenes by local artists, and beautifully made quilts. Crocheted and knitted goods vie for attention with skirts, aprons, bibs and shopping bags made of hand woven fabrics.

Woodcraft includes lamps and other articles made of toothpicksticks, and beautifully designed small shelves and ornaments as well as miniature lobster traps.

Basketry and Island pottery are on display, as well as aprons and Humpty Dumptys for the children.

In the information area are the usual maps and guides including information on accomodations. In addition the receptionists are well qualified to answer questions on almost any subject of interest to tourists.

Murray Hbr. UCW Meeting Held

Mrs. Carl Richards conducted worship on the theme "The Never Failing God" at a meeting of the United Church Women held in Murray Harbour. Scripture was Psalm 67 and the poem "Because You Are Gods Child" was read. The hymn "Sweet Hour Of Prayer" was sung. Mrs. Edward B. Maxwell, a guest, was organist.

"The many meanings of love" from chapter 3 of 'The Word and the Way' was studied in three study groups and findings reported.

Business was presided over by the president, Mrs. Nathan Irving. A total of 12 members answered roll call with a verse of scripture beginning with the letter Y. There was one visitor present.

A gift of two propane hotplates and a tank of gas for the church hall from Mrs. Edward B. Maxwell in memory of her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. David Glover, White Sands, was gratefully accepted. Mrs. Lloyd Herring extended a vote of thanks to Mrs. Maxwell.

Several members who had attended a meeting of the Murray River U. C. W. on July 5th submitted a fine programme and an enjoyable meeting.

A committee was appointed from the chair to make plans for a money raising project. Those appointed were Mrs. Roy Brooks, Mrs. Harold Beck, Mrs. Carl Richards, Mrs. John MacIson and Mrs. James Darby.

It was decided to purchase 12 hymnaries with large print for the church. It was also decided to repair others. The meeting closed with the mizpah benediction and lunch was served.

Household Hint

Handy for the family going away on vacation is a new emergency aid kit in compact enough for tucking away in small space yet contains 23 assorted first-aid necessities, tape, pads, antiseptic and a first - aid leaflet to guide you.

If you've had recurrent trouble with a leaky basement, there's relief now available through a simple do-it-yourself waterproofing job that makes use of a new brush-on material applied with an ordinary paint brush over cracks and leaks-ants from the inside of the basement. To be had from hardware, paint and department stores and lumber-building supply dealers.

To remove depressions or dents in rugs where furniture used to stand, just run your steam iron over the areas, then brush pile back into normal raised position. On acrylic and nylon carpeting, make sure iron is not too hot.

Best way to keep hot and cold foods at proper temperature when meal is eaten outdoors is to serve them buffet-style from the kitchen, with each person carrying out his own tray.

MARY HAWORTH
Life Of Gracious Living Is Gone With The Wind

Dear Mary Haworth: What is wrong with us; or with society? For three months I have answered advertisements, made dozens of telephone calls and written letters in an effort to get a man to act as our chauffeur and butler and I find (as the garage man says) "people just don't want to work."

It isn't a hard job. Almost any child can run the three cars nowadays: a Mercedes, a Rolls and a Chevrolet. And the housework includes serving at dinner, laying a few fires in cold weather, polishing the silver, waxing floors, washing a few windows — nothing I don't do myself.

But here is what they say: We don't pay enough ($200 a month, plus house, garden, garage, all utilities, taxes, insurance, telephone, work clothes, uniforms, etc.)

The place is too remote (30 minutes from the White House). Their children, if any, have to walk through a woods to catch the school bus (nearly 200 yards).

There are too many trees (the houses are on the edge of the woods, with a view over fields to a little lake).

The wives are "afraid" to live so far out, with nothing to do (sewing, weaving, knitting, cooking, house cleaning, even reading a book seem unheard-of. The Book-Mobile comes by three times a week).

We offer a choice of a bachelor flat with living room, bedroom, bath and kitchen. Or a small house with one bedroom and bath. Or a larger house with three bedrooms and two baths.

But here again they say: The bedroom is too small in the smaller house. The kitchen is too small in the larger house. (Both were rented for $85 and $90, respectively, until last March).

Is something wrong with us? We are a quiet middle-aged couple, childless, always a great deal. We have no integration problem. A white man takes care of the horses and lawn and a dear colored woman looks after me and does the upstairs and table linens. They admire and respect one another, I am sure.

We keep a car for the help, but our man has a car of his own and seldom uses the help's car except to fetch the maid.

Our experience indicates that all this talk of unemployment and hard times for the working man and his family is just so much bunk.

One man to whom I spoke said frankly that he would do better staying on relief and just working by the day. Where is our solid self - respecting American working man?

Everybody has to work. Is there a new class that wants to do nothing and be supported by society? I'll be interested in your comments.

Dear V. Y.: You are a spokesman for a way of life (the old - style term for it was "gracious" living) that is on the wane.

Human society is in the throes of a global revolution in this century, the implicit purpose of which is to bring to birth a world - wide reign of "equality and fraternity," in which no man wears another man's collar.

With the best of intentions, and innocently unaware that history is leaving you behind, you are offering a type of employment that is a carryover from a vanishing era, an era in which part of the population performed, were livery in the service of wealthier brethren and, in so doing, accepted a rather existence, and become a kind of shadowy reflection of the employer's activities.

Nowadays the solid working man's ambition, in America especially, is to be a person in his own right, on a democratic footing with every other man, with a free - souled private life of his own, while earning his keep in society. Most particularly he wants this experience for his children, even if it remains in part an unrealized hope for himself in his generation.

So, it is this aspect of human evolution, at this point in history, that is upsetting the applecart of your accustomed pattern of comfort, I think.

I am sure there is nothing whatsoever wrong with your situation, except that it is keyed to a concept of human relations that by now has virtually "gone with the wind."

M.H.
