Manufacturers' President Makes 1st Official Visit

No stranger to Prince Edward Island, H.W. Joly, national president of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, is making his first official visit since being elected to the presidency last June.

With over 6,300 members of the manufacturing industry including 17 in this province, the Association is almost the direct voice of its industry in matters which range from presenting briefs to local governments to aiding in such industry problems as transportation or matters relating to export shipments.

It represents slightly over 80 per cent of the total number of manufacturers and the entire industry supplies the pay cheques to one-quarter of all workers in Canada.

Discussing his organization last night Mr. Joly said it was concerned with the problems of individual members and offered every assistance through any one of its ten offices across Canada. Its value, he said, is shown by the fact this is its 98th year of service to the industry.

Last night Mr. Joly and other members of the official visiting group held an informal dinner at which Island members were present with Premier Alex Campbell as special guest. With Mr. Joly were J.C. Whitelaw, Q.C., executive vice-president and general manager; Glendon Eddy, Bathurst, N.B., and J.W. Stewart, Moncton, chairman and manager respectively of the Atlantic Division.

Coroner's Jury Gives Verdict

An inquest into the death of 3-year-old Renata Catherine Hurd, on September 29 in Summerside as the result of being struck by a half-ton Dodge truck belonging to R.T. Holman Limited of Summerside and operated by Antoine Gallant also of Summerside was held, last night in the city court rooms.

The coroner was Dr. C.A. Coady and the Crown Prosecutor was George R. McMahon.

Antoine Gallant, the driver of the vehicle involved told the jury that he was proceeding west on north Market Street at the time of the accident, and that he was passing a parked truck on the right hand side of the street when he heard a thump. It was then that he got out of the truck. He also stated that he had not seen the child at any time.

The second witness, 11-year-old Paul Gregory Warren also testified at the inquiry. In his evidence he stated that the truck was proceeding very slowly but that he didn't actually see the child being struck.

Waldron Burke, a mechanic in Summerside testified that he inspected the vehicle involved and found it to be in good working order.

Also giving evidence was Constable Ralph Hardy of the Summerside Police Department. A sketch of the area was provided along with pictures of the scene of the accident.

The final witness was Dr. Andrew Aquino, Pathologist with the Prince Edward Island Department of Health who performed the autopsy on the child. Dr. Aquino stated that death resulted from skull fracture, brain damage and aspiration of blood into the windpipe.

The decision of the jury was read by James McTague which stated the death of Catherine Renata Hurd was the result of the collision with the van driven by Antoine Gallant and that no blame be placed on the driver of the truck.

The members of the jury were Frank Jarvis Murphy, Charles Herbert Cleal, James Ernest McTague, Ernest John Hennessey, Oral Floyd Peacock, and Francis Claud Fields. The foreman Patrick Gaudet was not present.

Teacher Suffers Injury

George MacDonald, a teacher at Colonel Gray Senior High School, suffered severe lacerations as the result of accidently walking through a glass partition by the door at the entrance to the school around noon yesterday.

Leo McQuaid, also a teacher at the school, provided first aid and took the victim to the Charlottetown hospital where he was treated by Dr. Frank MacMillan.

Lacerations were sustained on the under part of his upper left arm, legs and a few cuts to the face. Mr. MacDonald is reported to be in satisfactory condition, but will remain in hospital for a few days.

Council Holds Special Sitting

A special meeting of the Charlottetown City Council was called last night to hear the second reading of a by-law to establish and regulate a restricted building area or zone in the City. Eight council members were present with Deputy-Mayor Dorothy Cofrigan presiding.

A total of 47 and one half pages of the 74 page by-law was discussed while the remainder of the discussion is expected to be completed next Monday night.

A great deal of discussion took place over the various clauses during the four-hour meeting. The reading was adjourned to make a few changes in the by-law and to make a further study of a number of clauses.

Three resolutions were unanimously passed that were moved by Councillor Doug MacDonald and seconded by Councillor Louis Johnston.

It was resolved that a building permit be issued for the construction of a Sobey store on Elm Avenue provided the plans meet the approval of the building inspector.

It was resolved that a building permit be issued for an extension on the Kirkwood Motel on Malpeque Road provided the plans meet the approval of the building inspector.

A resolution was also passed that Norman Stewart and Clive Stewart of the Town Planning Advisory Board attend the annual meeting of the Community Planning Association to be held in Regina.
