A Watchful Eye

A keen and watchful eye will notice that the tax climate in Prince Edward Island is a favorable one. Here, in the Cradle of Confederation, provincial taxes are low and few in number.

Prince Edward Island has no land tax — it was abolished by the Liberals — there is no Provincial Sales Tax and the Gasoline Tax is the lowest of the four Maritime Provinces with still further extra reduction to farmers and fishermen.

The various departments of the Matheson Government have kept a watchful eye on the highly diversified services which they operate so successfully. In the last two Fiscal years there has been a reduction of over half a million dollars in the Liabilities of the Province, the largest reduction in history.

One more reason why the voters will re-elect Premier Matheson and the Liberal candidates on Wednesday, May 25th.

Inserted by P. E. I. Liberal Association.
