

St. Teresa's Hold Closing Exercises

On June 18 the closing exercises of St. Teresa's School were held in the Parish Hall. There was a large number of parents and ratepayers present, as well as some visitors. The diplomas and prizes were presented by the Pastor, Reverend J. B. Croken. Two pupils received Grade Eight certificates—Josephine Bradley and Marcella Trainor. The work of the first year sewing class and the second year sewing class was on display. 4-H club pins and certificates were awarded to the following girls for their work: Mary Curran, Helen Trainor, Lila Connolly, Catherine Curran, Marcella Trainor, and Josephine Bradley. After an interesting and instructive program was carried out, the children and visitors were given a treat of ice cream by the St. Teresa's Women's Institute. The many prizes donated by generous friends are a testimony of the active interest they take in the progress of the pupils. Reverend J. B. Croken congratulated the prize winners. Mr. Joseph Kenny, Chairman of Trustees spoke briefly, commending the teachers for their good work throughout the year. The following program was presented: Opening Chorus, O Canada.
