

LOCAL AND OTHER ITEMS.

Premier black and white sale now on. Part III Magic City has arrived. You should see the third part of the Magic City. It is beautiful.

CITY COUNCIL.—A special meeting of the City Council is called for this evening at half past seven o'clock.

PART III MAGIC CITY.—A letter than either Parts I or II. Coupons should be sent in immediately.

SENIORS.—The election of the Summer's town councilors will take place on the 27th inst.

A MEMORABLE EVENT.—This is the tenth anniversary of the big blaze on the South Side of Queen Square.

WORK FOR THE UNEMPLOYED.—At a recent meeting of the Toronto Board of Work, a special expenditure of $5000 was authorized to provide work for the unemployed.

POLICE COURT.—This morning a man charged with allowing a malicious dog to run at large was fined $1, and ordered to keep the offending canine muzzled or chained.

FORTY HOURS DEVOTION.—The service of the Forty Hours Devotion began in St. Dunstan's Cathedral this morning, and will close on Thursday morning. The main altar is beautifully decorated.

CONVENTION.—Visitors made welcome at the morning and afternoon sessions of the Convention to be held to-morrow in the First Methodist Church. Morning session at 10 o'clock, afternoon session at 2 o'clock.

McLURE'S MAGAZINE.—Rayward Kipling, Robert Louis Stevenson and Octave Thanaet will all contribute to the fiction of McLure's Magazine for March, giving special distinction to that feature of the number.

SEVERELY ILL.—We regret to hear that the Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald is seriously ill, as a result of the accident which happened to him a week or two ago, and which was noted in THE EXAMINER at the time. No bones were broken on the occasion, but the shock to his system was very great.

THE MARKET.—There was a very good attendance at the market to-day. We quote prices as follows: Eggs, 23c to 25c; butter (fresh) 20c to 21c; butter (old) 18c to 19c; cheese (each) 65c to 75c; ducks (pair) 60c to 70c; fowls (pair) 50c to 55c; turkeys (each) 80c to $1.50; pork (per lb. by the carcass) 5 1/2 to 5 3/4.

BOOK AND TRACT SOCIETY.—The twenty-sixth annual meeting of the British-American Book and Tract Society was held at Halifax a few days ago. The annual report showing the good work done by the Society, was very interesting. L. L. Beer was elected one of the vice-presidents, and Judge Hensley, F. W. Hales and Rev. D. Fitzgerald were elected directors.

HALIFAX LIQUOR LICENSES.—The Halifax City Council has granted over one hundred and ten licenses for the coming year, and refused applications for twenty. The law, as was pointed out a few days ago, says licenses shall be granted on the second Tuesday in February, but there was no quorum on that date. Recorder McCoy gave an opinion that the statute was merely "directory," and that the licenses granted on Friday night would be legal.

A PHENOMENAL SUCCESS.—The Worcester Daily Spy published at Worcester Mass. contains the following local news item in its issue of the 12th inst. "The evening school under the auspices of the Worcester Reform Club has thus far been a phenomenal success. There is a good attendance of pupils, some of whom have been assigned to ninth grade work. The teacher, B. Coulson of the Denholm & McKay Company, who is an experienced public school teacher." Mr. Coulson is a hander and a graduate of the Prince of Wales College, and formerly taught school at Rustico. He is now associated with the Denholm & McKay Co. at Worcester Mass.

A PLECKY WOMAN.—The wife of Capt. J. H. McLaughlin, of Granville Ferry, showed remarkable courage last Friday night, when she was awakened from her sleep by an unusual noise in her bedroom, says the Bridgetown Monitor. On glancing toward the toilet table, she discovered that a burglar was ransacking the room, when she immediately arose, and grabbed him by the hair. The thief, by a desperate effort, managed to extricate his wool from her grasp, and hastily withdrew from the premises without having secured a booty. Suspicion strongly points to a colored youth in the vicinity.

IRISH NIGHT.—The entertainment given in the basement of Zion Church last evening, under the auspices of the Young Peoples' Society, was a great success. The programme follows:—

Opening Address.....Rev. Mr. Sutherland Vocal Solo.....Miss Jessie Bruce Essay on Thomas Moore.....Mr. D. McLean Vocal Duet.....Misses Campbell and McLean Vocal Solo.....Mr. F. Trainor Reading.....Miss Rattray Reading.....Miss Stanway Vocal Solo.....Mr. E. Matheson Reading.....Mrs. Roome Reading.....Miss L. Ross Quartette.....Messrs. Bruce, Cook, Lewis, McLean Reading.....Miss McKenzie Quartette.....Messrs. Bruce, Cook, Lewis, McLean

All the selections were by Irish authors, and were rendered in a manner eminently satisfactory to the large audience present. The vocal solos by Mrs. Roome, Miss Gillies, Miss Bruce and Mr. Frank Trainor were especially good, and the duets and quartettes were well rendered. Mr. McLean's essay, and the various readings were also capital. The remarks of Rev. Mr. Sutherland were brief and to the point, and we trust, with him, that the Association having had a Scotch and Irish night, will favor us with an English night before the winter is over.

MEETING OF GRAND DIVISION.

The Grand Division, Sons of Temperance, of P. E. Island, met in quarterly session in Greenhill Hall, on Wednesday the 14th inst. G. W. P., Rev. J. W. Kirby, presiding. On account of the bad state of the travelling the attendance of representatives from a distance was not large. The session opened at 1 o'clock, p. m., and was chiefly occupied in receiving and discussing the reports of the grand officers.

The report of the G. W. P. was a very able and instructive document, and was well received; but as the Grand Division ordered it to be sent to the newspapers for publication, it is not necessary to give a synopsis of it here. The report of the Grand Scribe detailed of considerable length the workings of the order during the past quarter. From it we learn that the order is not only holding its own, but is doing aggressive work. Three new Divisions have been organized during the quarter in places where no temperance society existed previously. The present membership of the order is reported at 1,500, an increase of about 100 during the quarter. The Treasurer, W. P., showed a balance of cash in hand of $155.75.

Members of the order feel quite encouraged by the result of the recent "Plebs-cite," and the opinion of the Grand Division, as expressed by resolution, was that "we should demand of our legislators such legislation as would completely suppress the retail trade in intoxicating liquors in this province."

It having come to the notice of the Grand Division that on the 20th of March next that great champion of temperance, Hon. Neil Dow, will have attained the great age of 90 years, the Grand Division voted to request all subordinate Divisions within their jurisdiction to celebrate that event in a suitable manner, and do honor to themselves in doing honor to the father of prohibition in Maine, to the greatest temperance worker of America, or perhaps the world. Such great reformers do not appear on the stage often, and should be honored for their work's sake.

A committee of the Grand Division was appointed to confer with other temperance societies, with a view to getting up a grand temperance rally in Charlottetown on that occasion.

A public meeting under the auspices of the Grand Division was held in the hall in the evening, when the following programme was carried out to the great satisfaction of the very large audience present:

Opening address by Chairman.....A. S. Wright Music (Instrumental).....Miss Maud McNeill (Address of welcome).....Rev. J. C. Spurr Music—Beacon Lights.....Choir Reply to address of welcome.....Samuel Simpson Solo and chorus—Harbor Bell.....Miss Mary Lane and Choir Address.....W. McN Simpson Music—We'll crown them with roses.....Choir Address.....G. W. P. J. Kirby Recitation.....Amanda McNeill Address.....J. C. Clark Recitation—Caleb's Complaint.....Horace Learning Music—Temperance Hymn.....Choir

The addresses were of a high order, that of the G. W. P. being particularly eloquent and spicy.

The music was good and called forth a hearty vote of thanks.

The G. W. P. having hinted in moving a vote of thanks to the choir that he was once a choir-boy himself, the audience called for a song from him and would not be satisfied till that worthy gentleman took his seat at the organ and in excellent voice sang two stanzas of "Jesus, lover of my soul." So ended a very enjoyable day's proceedings, and we trust that the sledge hammer blows dealt at the traffic will contribute in some measure towards knocking the few remaining props from under that iniquitous fabric—the liquor business.

By order of Grand Division, WALTER SIMPSON.

NEWS NOTES. Two more rich coal beds have been struck in the Province of British Columbia.

Prince Poniatowski, said to be descended from Polish kings, has come to America to wed a $6,000,000 bride in the person of Miss Marie Bourke, of Oakland, Cal.

Prince Galitzine of Russia has joined the Salvation Army. His conversion was effected at Washington at a meeting presided over by Captain Patty Walker, a beautiful young woman, with large soulful brown eyes. He fell instantly a willing captive. He was to leave New York on Saturday on the Umbria to see General Booth in London to offer his life in the service, and it is accepted to go to work for the Army in Siberia. He says he is certain he can secure the Czar's sympathy and co-operation and that in any case, whether his family assists or opposes him he feels his call to labor for the salvation of man and will devote himself and his fortune to the blessed work.
