By cablegram to L. C. Owen—Brig "Sevian," McDonald master, at Liverpool, Aug. 28th, from Shemogue, 17 days.

WE are authorized to state that Willis a J. Fraser will be a candidate at the coming election for the Licensing Board.

AMONG the passengers by the steamer which brings the Canadian Ministers home and Sir Alexander Cockburn, Lord Chief Justice of England, and Sir Fenwick Williams, the hero of Kars.

THE M. A. Starr sailed for Halifax yesterday evening with a cargo consisting of 400 drums dry fish, 300 cases of lobsters and sundry articles of freight. Miss Mag'e Palmer and Mr. W. F. Salter, were passengers by her.

A PROTRACTED meeting is in progress at the Christian Chapel, conducted by R. B. Neal, of Louisville, Ky. The Subject this evening will be Faith. The main infidel objection will be met and refuted. The public are respectfully invited.

A CROWDED and enthusiastic meeting of workmen was held at Sheffield, on the 25th, to take steps to promote the emigration of surplus labor. A resolution was passed that, considering the prospects of trade in England, a large emigration was absolutely necessary. Another meeting is to be held in a short time to carry the resolution into effect.

SEVERAL complaints have reached this office about the carelessness of those parties entrusted with removing the different arches. Broken nails and spikes, of different sizes, are left profusely scattered about the streets where the arches stood. In many cases horses have been seriously cut on the hooves with these sharp instruments. If the civic authorities do not reverse this order of things, they may be held responsible for heavy damages.

AT THE Stipendiary Magistrates Court to-day Miss Weatherbie, a resident of Euston street, appeared on summons for assaulting Mrs. McAree, also a resident of the same street. The evidence produced showed that the plaintiff in the case took as active a part in the affray as did the defendant. Therefore, Miss W. was fined $1.00, and Mrs. Mc. was ordered to pay the costs of the suit.

A PUBLIC temperance meeting was held last evening at Southport. J. Stewart Esq., was called to the chair. Addresses on temperance, with a view to the foundation of a Division of the Sons of Temperance, were given by G. W. Millner, Rev. G. M. Campbell, J. B. Cooper, J. J. Chappell, and W. W. Beer. An application for a charter was presented by the G. Scribe, and at the close of the meeting was intrusted with one of the residents present. We are glad to hear that no licenses are granted in Southport.

DR. BURNS' LECTURE in St. James' Hall last night, was fairly attended. The audience was an appreciative one and listened with great attention while he delineated the character of Abraham Lincoln, "a King of men." The incidents in the life of the great emancipator—from his humble cradle, in the log hut, to the White House and the martyrs' grave—were vividly portrayed. It is a pity that a greater number did not attend to hear one of the best lectures that has ever been delivered in Charlottetown.

THE Steamer Worcester sailed for Boston on Thursday, with a cargo consisting of 600 barrels mackerel, 550 case, lobsters, 375 boxes eggs, 1 barrel calfskins etc., valued at $5,000. She had also on board the following passengers: George McGregor, Mrs. McGregor Robt. Kelly, S. Donnelly, Mrs. Nicholson, Miss Flynn, Mrs. A. H. T. Weir, Mrs. B. A. H. Weir, Jos. Brown, Frank Sears, Miss Allan, J. B. Nicholas, Miss A. B. Martin, Miss Jessie Martin, Master D. Martin, Miss M. Livingstone, Miss E. Corbett, Wm. Jakeman and wife, Wm. Jakeman, Jr., Miss Saddle and Master Walter Saddle, Miss Richardson, Wm. Stewart, Miss Clasper, Mrs. Jean Anderson, Fredk. Anderson, W. J. Ladner, Miss Clark, Mrs. John Martin, Miss Easterbrook.

A LITTLE BOY named Hennessy, whose parents reside on Dorchester street, met with an accident—which almost proved fatal—yesterday evening. He asked permission to ride on a horse belonging to W. R. Watson, Esq. Permission was foolishly granted by a servant, and when the boy mounted, the horse trotted off at full speed. After a short and quick ride the little fellow was thrown headlong from the horse's back to the hard street. Some parties who saw the accident, conveyed the insensible boy to his home where he lay for hours apparently dead. Dr. McLeod was called in, and under his skillful treatment the little fellow at a late hour showed symptoms of recovery. He is now doing well.

LOBSTER FISHING.—Our esteemed friend from Little Sands, Duncan Munn, Esq., was in town a few days ago, full of vigor and determination, notwithstanding the loss he sustained a while ago by fire. But what would have disheartened and ruined many a man proved only a slight delay in Mr. Munn's case, as he is again pushing the lobster business through on a large scale. He has an extensive knowledge of the business, and will no doubt secure the reward for his enterprise to which he is entitled. While having a short conversation with him, we learned that the season during which lobster fishing is prohibited is not altogether applicable on the coast where he fishes—Little Sands. The lobster does not strike that quarter until fully three weeks after the time they commence taking them in other sections, which is on the 20th of April. We understand there are serious doubts as to what is the proper season for restrictions, and on this account it seems hard for the fishermen in the above section to be deprived of three weeks' fishing, which is enjoyed in other parts. If anything could be done to remove this drawback, many a poor fisherman would go on his way rejoicing.—K. C. Advertiser.
