A REGISTERED LETTER mailed Aug. 24 last in this city to a lady visiting in Charlottetown, P. E. I., lay in the Post Office at that place eight days before it was delivered, notwithstanding the fact that the lady had inquired for it repeatedly. She was told that there was no letter there for her, but finally, knowing that it had been sent, she insisted on a search being made for it. The result was that the letter, which contained money, was at last produced.—Boston Journal, Sept. 10.
THE races at the Summerside Driving Park this afternoon promise to be good, as a good many well known horses are entered for the different races, such as Fitzsimmons' Island Chief, Dean Swift and French Sporter, for the stallion race; and Flora E., Harry Messenger, and Hernando, for the three-minute race. Together with a fine day, everything ought to go off well. A full account will appear to-morrow, as we have a reporter present.
JAMES MCKINNON, of Lot 14, lost his house and barns last evening by fire. The fire was first discovered breaking out of the roof of the barn in which was stored all his farming implements and the greater part of this year's crop, which were all burned. The fire then caught the house, (a very fine farm residence) which was also totally consumed. Part of the furniture was saved. Several stacks of grain and hay in the farm-yard next went. The whole place was completely destroyed, and is a total loss to Mr. McKinnon, who, we understand, had no insurance on his property. It is not known how the fire originated.
THE cause of the late fire in Portland, Me., as we are informed by private letter, was an act of pure carelessness on the part of the watchman. Like the Chicago fire, it began in a stable, a lighted match having been heedlessly dropped upon combustible material. This twenty-three houses became the price paid for a little want of care. We would once more call attention to the too common habit in Charlottetown of the careless use of matches. We have seen persons, to avoid a little wind, get into some sheltering corner, strike a match, and discard the burning stump, perfectly regardless of consequences. A light in a stable ought to have special protection, and on no account should a match be left burning even on a stone floor.

Church News.

The many friends of Rev. F. R. Murray, of St. Luke's Cathedral, will be glad to learn that he is quite restored to health, and will return shortly from Newfoundland.

The Critic regrets to learn that the Rev. Allan Simpson was severely bitten by a dog last week, and was unable to occupy his pulpit last Sunday. The wound is not considered dangerous.

Rev. N. R. Raven, now temporarily officiating at the Garrison Chapel, will, it is said, be appointed to the parish of Londonderry, vacant by the removal of the Rev. Isaac Brock to the Professorship of Divinity at King's College.

According to a recent census, the number of Catholics in the Arch-diocese of Halifax (which embraces the Maritime Provinces) is 285,000; in Quebec (in the "Lay" Province) 1,300,000; in Ontario, 335,000; in Manitoba and N. W. T., 38,000. In all British North America, the number of Catholics is slightly above two and a quarter millions.

Pope Leo XIII. has lately celebrated St. Joachim's day—his patronal day—by making numerous gifts to the poor of Rome and vicinity. Among other things distributed on that day by two servants of his were one hundred and ten new and completely furnished beds. Some of these went to free hospitals and some to poor families.

D. Talmage, who is spending his vacation in Great Britain, has preached to large crowds there. He conducted service in the celebrated Wesleyan chapel at Finsbury, on the 16th ult. The chapel was crowded to suffocation, while outside several thousand people were striving to obtain an entrance. After the regular service, he addressed the crowd from the church porch.

It is now eighty-four years since the memorable discussion in the British Commons took place relative to the legal right of Rev. John Horne Tooke to take a place as the people's representative upon the floors of the house. But history repeats itself, and we now have the Rev. J. R. Diggle, chairman of the finance committee of the London School Board, offering as an independent candidate in the coming elections. Clergymen are frequently possessed of talents which would make them eminently successful as politicians, but we believe that the peace and good government of the community can be better secured by the reverend gentlemen using their influence within the parishes or districts in which they are located, and we trust that the example of Mr. Diggle may be followed by few of his brother theologians.

The Rev. D. D. Moore, A. M., gives pleasing tidings from the Shediac circuit: "A very gracious religious awakening has come upon us in the Shediac circuit. This is mainly the result of faithful sowing in the past by our devoted brother Chappell. Nearly a score of persons have found peace with God, and with the assistance of some workers from Moncton we hope to carry on the work. Mr. and Mrs. C. Wesley Price, of our church in Detroit, have given us much assistance. My father preached to a very crowded congregation last Sunday evening, and a blessed influence rested upon us when the sacred rite of baptism was administered to five adults. The sacramental service, too, was very impressive." We understand that the above work became visible at a memorial service held by the pastor on the occasion of the recent sad drowning accident. At that service sixteen persons were forward for prayer. A religious awakening is also reported at Painswick.—Wesleyan.

NOTES.
Not the promissory, but facts about WELCOME SOAP, an article that does not contain one particle of the adulterations used to reduce the cost of "Pure Goods," but does possess the value of legitimate Washing Qualities, the demand for which proves the advantage gained by the use of the genuine over soaps of doubtful character. None should be deceived even by Red and Yellow Wrappers, or any of the imitations of the WELCOME, as a pair of clasped hands is stamped on every bar. Made by CURTIS, DAVIS & Co.

GREY AND WHITE BLANKETS selling low at J. B. Macdonald's. sept 14—dy wk pat

TORRACO AND THE PULSE.—Dr. Troftaki publishes the result of a number of observations made by him to ascertain the effect produced on the temperature and pulse by smoking. He has found that in every case, varying according to the condition of the individual, there is an exhalation of the pulse-rate, and as light elevation of temperature. It appears, in fact, that if the average temperature of non-smokers were represented by one thousand, that of moderate smokers would be one thousand and eight, and while the heart in the former case was making one thousand pulsations, in the latter it would beat one thousand one hundred and eighty times. Hence the danger of smoking tobacco.

ADVISES from Newfoundland to the Halifax Chronicle, state that the wreck of the steamer Summerside has been purchased by Capt. Green, but on account of the roughness of the weather and lateness of the season it is impossible to float the ship. The work of stripping is proceeding under the superintence of Capt. Larder.

NEW CASHMERE AND MERINOS at J. B. Macdonald's. dy wk pat—sept 14

GLoucester, Mass., is also struggling with a water question. A water company supplies private citizens, but hydrants for fire purposes are still wanted. It is proposed to give the company $5,000 a year for one hundred hydrants.

THE mackerel receipts at this port the past week have been less than a third of the amount for the corresponding week of last year, and there is little prospect of any immediate large accessions, as the fleet have done nothing for a week or ten days past. There were forty sail in this port yesterday waiting for clear weather, with only a few fish on board, and none to land. The Georges fleet report large quantities of mackerel on the northern part of Georges the past week, with no seiners there.—Cape Ann Advertiser, Sept. 11th.
