By contrivance which enables the housewife to dispense with the heat of a stove in summer will always be welcome. Most of us know the merits of gas and oil stoves, but few are aware that the ordinary kerosene lamp may be pressed into the service of the cook, and if rightly managed will do a considerable amount of the family work.

NOTES ABOUT PIGEONS.

HINTS FOR A BEGINNER IN KEEPING THESE FEATHERED PETS.

There are Almost Endless Varieties—Try Fantails or Jacobins—The Proper Arrangement of the Pigeon Loft—Experience is a Good Teacher.

To find the origin of pigeon breeding one would have to go far back into past ages. Variety after variety has been produced. Varieties have been made to take on peculiarities of form and color. Doctors, lawyers, preachers, statesmen and men in all other professions and walks in life, have been most eager admirers and breeders of these feathered beauties.

choose either, or both, varieties, for two different classes of pigeons can be kept in the same loft without any mixing of the varieties, but more satisfactory results will be obtained if only one variety is chosen at least in the beginning.

AT DEATH'S DOOR. NERVOUS PROSTRATION. EXTREME DEBILITY AFTER THE GRIP.

Mr. Peter Lingley, Councilor, Peterborough, Queens Co., N. B., says:

"Oct. 21, 1892.—Last winter I had a very severe attack of the grip, which left me very feeble and prostrated in health. I had no appetite, and was so nervous I could not sleep. I was under Doctors' treatment for months, but received no benefit. Mr. Lingley thought I had recovered, and I got so low that they were afraid I might die at any day. At a last resort they decided to try:

HAWKER'S NERVE AND STOMACH TONIC, 3 bottles of which Rapidly Restored Me To Health.

I Owe My Life to its Virtues. Mr. Isaac O. Stevens, Gate Keeper, I. C. R. Depot, St. John, N. B., says: "I was with Mr. Lingley during his severe illness and was daily expecting to have to notify his relatives of his death."

The Telephone Company. Parties using the telephone would find talking much more satisfactory if they would observe the following rules:

1st. Speak with the mouth about four inches from the transmitter.

2nd. Speak in a moderate tone of voice, not too loud, and distinctly.

3rd. Place the telephone so as to cover the ear just as if you wished to shut out all other sounds. Do not press too hard on the ear.

It is possible to talk and be heard when standing back two or three feet from the transmitter, if you possess good lungs, but it is not a pleasant mode of conversation, is entirely unnecessary, and is a waste of wind and lung power, besides being very annoying to all within range of your voice.
