Once upon a time an old red hen, Went strutting round with pompos cluck...

A season later, this old hen Appeared, still cackling of her luck, For, though she boasted babies ten...

The following spring, the old red hen Clucked just as proudly as of yore— But lo! her babes were ducklings ten...

But oh, alas, how very sad! When genius spring rolled round again The eggs evacuated had, And childless was the old red hen!

I half suspect that many men, And many, many women, too, Could learn a lesson from the hen With tollage of vermilion hue...

Preparing Produce for Market.

It is for the interest of every farmer, who has produce to sell, to establish for himself a reputation for fair and honest dealings...

If a dealer in fruit makes a purchase of apples in barrels, which at the head appears to be first-class, but which, on going deeper into the barrel prove to be of a second quality...

In putting up any product for the market let the quality be uniform no matter what the grade. If out of ten barrels of apples only five can be called extra quality, let the five be assorted from the others...

This was recently illustrated in the sale of a basket of tomatoes. They had been carefully picked up, and nicely arranged in a basket...

THE SCIENCE OF LIFE

KNOW THYSELF. A Great Medical Work on Manhood.

Exhausted Vitality, Nervous and Physical Debility, Trematone Decline in Man, Errors of Youth, and the untold miseries resulting from indigestion or excesses. A book for every man, young, middle-aged and old. It contains 125 prescriptions for all acute and chronic diseases, each one of which is invaluable. So found by the Author, whose experience for 23 years is such as probably never before fell to the lot of any physician. 300 pages, bound in beautiful French muslin, embossed covers, full gilt, guaranteed to be a finer work in every sense—mechanical, literary and professional—than any other work sold in this country for $2.50, or the money will be refunded in every instance. Price only $1.00 by mail, post-paid. Illustrative sample 6 cents. Sent now. Gold medal awarded the author by the National Medical Association, to the officers of which he refers.

This book should be read by the young for instruction, and by the afflicted for relief. It will benefit all.—London Lancet.

There is no member of society to whom this book will not be useful, whether youth, parent, guardian, instructor or clergyman.—Argonaut.

Address the Peabody Medical Institute, or Dr. W. H. Parker, No. 4 Bulfinch Street, Boston, Mass., who may be consulted on all diseases requiring skill and experience. Chronic and obstinate diseases that have baffled the skill of all other physicians a specialty. Such treated successfully without an instant of failure.
