

The Guardian, Charlottetown, Thurs., Feb. 17, 1966. 3

The North Wiltshire Dairy Company Limited reported a record production year for 1965 when the annual meeting was held recently. The company manufactured 717,168 pounds of butter for an increase of 41,000 pounds over 1964. Ivan Turner of Winsloe was the top producer with cream containing 9.906 pounds butterfat for a value of $7,091.68.

A Rose Bowl donated by the Royal Bank of Canada for highest production in the year, was presented to Mr. Turner by C.E. Wright, manager of the Charlottetown branch, who congratulated the dairy company on its finances which he said "are in excellent condition".

A larger percentage of the profits were kept this year, than for the previous year, as there was necessary expenditure for a new cream pasteurizer and for new cold storage equipment which will be installed in the next three or four weeks, it was announced.

QUALITY EXCELLENT
E.W. Adams, provincial dairy superintendent, said the quality of the milk in the plant was excellent as regards yeasts and moulds, and the percentage of first grade butter is above the average for the province.

Three men merited prizes for increase of butterfat over the previous year. Ivan Turner, measured the top prize of $25 for an increase of 3,462.5 pounds. Redvers Stewart, New Wiltshire received $15 for an increase of 2,031.93 pounds and George Smith, Fredericton $10 for an increase of 1,900.65 pounds.

Hugh Nicholson, Springton received the top prize of $10 for the man with the largest amount of butterfat, who was not a patron in 1964. His volume was 2,515.31 pounds.

In second place was Arie DeHaan, Long Creek with 2,471.74 pounds.

The following are the 10 top producers in value:
Ivan Turner, $7,091.67; MacKinley Brothers, North River $6,227.57; George Godfrey, North Wiltshire $4,568.44; Leslie MacPhail, North River $4,537.70; Redvers Stewart $4,463.21; Garth Hooper, Milton $4,250.47; Upson Crest Farm, West Royalty $3,980.61; Balderston Brothers, North Wiltshire $3,692.07; Walter Clark, North Wiltshire $3,631.31; Malcolm Andrews, Glasgow Road $3,562.56.

'Skippy' Sear Dies At 35

H.L. "Skippy" Sear, 35, one of the city's best known young businessmen died in Ottawa Tuesday after an illness of four years. He had been undergoing treatment in the hospital and his unexpected death came as a shock to his friends here.

Keenly interested in all sports, Skippy's main interest lay in golf and he was a former holder of the Island junior golf title and was known on almost every golf course in the Maritimes.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. H.L. Sear, 80 Brighton Road, he was born in this city and received his early education at West Kent School before attending Rothesay Collegiate. He later graduated with his Bachelor of Commerce degree from Dalhousie University in 1952. He then entered the insurance business with his father.

In addition to his parents he is survived by his wife, the former Elizabeth Joan Dunstford, and three sons, Douglas, 7; Robert, 6; and Thomas one-year-old.

The funeral service will be held Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in St. Peter's Cathedral with interment in St. Peter's Anglican cemetery.

Curling Club To Hold Dance

The Charlottetown Curling Club will hold a benefit dance Feb. 26th at the club. It is in connection with the fund raising campaign for the family of Mr. and Mrs. Pius A. MacDonald who lost two children when their home was destroyed by fire early Monday morning.

Contributions to the fund are being accepted at both branches of the Royal Bank of Canada in Charlottetown.

Mayor's Efforts Are Appreciated

The Canadian Federation of Mayors and Municipalities has again recognized the efforts of Mayor Walter J. Cox and has asked him to serve on the important resolution committee. The committee is responsible for drafting the annual submission to the federal government.

That his work during the past year was appreciated is shown in a letter of thanks from the Federation director, H.A. Lawrence, Montreal, dated February 14. It reads:

"This is just a short note to express to you on behalf of the Federation and from president Cops and myself, appreciation for having both attended the national executive meeting which was held here last month, and for having participated so actively in the work that had to be done; and, of course, for lending your support to our submission on behalf of municipal governments to the Government of Canada. Your continued interest in the affairs of the Federation is greatly appreciated."

Accused Enters Not Guilty Plea

In Queens County Magistrate's Court yesterday morning, Roy Edward Bell of Montague pleaded not guilty to the charge of threatening a person. He was remanded to March 7, Magistrate James B. Johnston, QC, presided. Lester O'Donnell acted as counsel for the accused.

Arthur Edward Herrell of Charlottetown was remanded to March 2 on an impaired driving charge. Lester O'Donnell represented the accused.

Everett James Ross, Fredericton, elected to be tried by a magistrate and pleaded not guilty to a charge of attempting to obstruct the courts of justice by giving false information to a police officer. His case was adjourned to March 4.

THIEF PREFERS CERTAIN BRAND

The second break in a month at the ESSO Service Station on Grafton Street was reported to have occurred Tuesday evening.

Both breaks involved the theft of packages of cigarettes from the cigarette machine in the front office and on each occasion the thief or thieves have selected only a certain brand.

After this recent break it was learned that Export cigarettes were taken while the first break this month involved most brands with the exception of filtertip cigarettes.

Entrance into the building was gained through a small window at the rear of the station. This was the same location used on both breaks.

The service station is operated by Harold "Red" Howatt of Charlottetown.

It was reported that Angel, a white German Shepherd, which is kept in the station overnight, was fed a hope while the cigarette machine was pryed open.

Sergeant Charles Ready of the Charlottetown Police department is investigating both breaks.

Allied Youth Hear Address

The Allied Youth group of St. Peter's Consolidated School recently listened to the tape recording of Dr. Luther Terry's talk to the young people at the Allied Youth Conference at Washington.

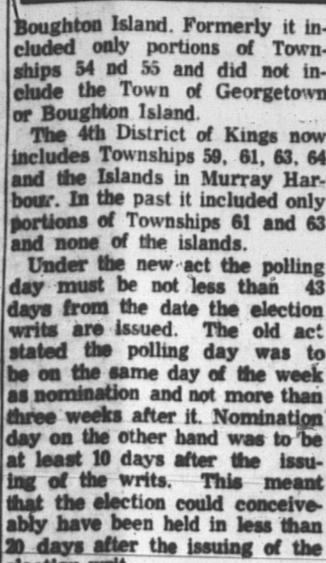

The group took great interest in this reknown speaker and will discuss the tape during the next meeting.

BOBBY HERRING

Quick Action Saved Life

Bobby Herring, Murray Harbour, has been receiving congratulations for his recent perseverance in saving the life of Donna MacKenzie of Belle River.

Donna and two other teenagers had been poisoned by carbon monoxide fumes in a parked car at Belle River rink, while watching a hockey game.

Garry Herring, a brother of Bobby's, noted that something was wrong with the occupants of the car and summoned Bobby who immediately got into action.

A nurse, Mrs. Russel Compton and Dr. Gillis were summoned. Two of the occupants of the car were moved to the open air and kept moving around while Bobby applied artificial respiration to Miss MacKenzie. They were Roy Penny, operator of the car and LeMoine White, both of Murray Harbour.

Witnesses stated they felt Bobby was wasting his time as Donna appeared to be dead but Bobby kept up his efforts for about 20 minutes before she began to respond.

Funeral Held For Victims

The funeral for Paula Marie, 16 months, and Kenneth MacDonald, seven years, who lost their lives in a fire at their Charlottetown home earlier this week, took place Wednesday morning from the Hennessey Funeral Home to St. Dunstan's Basilica where the Mass of the Angels was celebrated by Rt. Rev. William Simpson.

The pallbearers were six classmates of Kenneth's from Mrs. Mae Hynes' class of St. Jean's Elementary School. Randy Doyle, John Toombs, Mark Dolron, Billy MacInnis, Bobby Doucette and George MacIsaac.

The following classes from St. Jean's School attended the funeral: Miss Frances MacIsaac, Mrs. Hynes and Stephen Connolly. The class of Miss Alice McCarthy, Rochford Square School was also in attendance. The firm of Canada Packers was represented by members of the management and staff. Rt. Rev. P.F. MacDonald, VG, and Rev. Andrew MacDonald were present in the sanctuary.

Interment took place in the Catholic cemetery where service was conducted by Rev. Gerald Tingley.
