JENKINS,
III. John T.,
County of Queen's,
Physician. X

LAIRD,
IV. David,
County of Queen's,
Gentleman. X

On the voter entering the polling place, the presiding officer asks him his name, occupation, residence, etc., and his answers are entered by the clerk. If no objection is offered, the voter is given a ballot of which the above is a fac-simile, except that the cross will not be on it. The presiding officer has previously initialed the ballot and numbered the counterfoil attached, the voter is then directed to enter a compartment provided, where he will find a pencil.
If he desires to vote for the Liberal-Conservative candidates he will make a cross X to the right of the name as we have marked above. After marking it he will fold it up and return it to the presiding officer, who will look at the counterfoil to identify the ballot by it. After tearing off the counterfoil and destroying it, the presiding officer puts the ballot paper in the box. Should the voter be unable to read, he must take an oath to that effect.
Then he will be accompanied by the presiding officer to the compartment, and in the presence of the candidates' representatives (who are sworn to secrecy) the officer makes the cross alongside the names of the candidates for whom the elector desires to vote.

Spirit of the Campaign.

"I thank thee that I am not as these grasping manufacturers, these defrauding importers, and these cheating retailers."
—DAVID LAIRD.

"In Re the Fishery Award. I did those things I should not have done, and left undone those things I should have done."
—L. H. D.

"More new factories! My, my, what fearful depravity!"—A. MACKENZIE.

"Oh! see the monstrousness of man.
When he looks out in an ungrateful shape." —A Belfaster's comment when Mr. Laird sold his constituents and went West.

"Blake is the child of vagary and whim."
—Toronto Mail.

Who attempted to disfranchise every P. E. Island voter, who did not own one hundred pounds worth of real estate?

LaIRD,
Yeo,
McIntyre,
Perry.

The Markets.

OATS.
Since last week, we understand, there is still a further decline in the value of P.
E. Island oats in the British market. The decline has been fully six pence per quarter, of 304 pounds, leaving the price at present 18s. to 18s. 6d.; for the United Kingdom, and 18s. 3d. and 18s. 9d. for France. The demand for oats in St. John and Halifax continues good, at prices previously quoted.

EGGS.
The demand for eggs in the United States market continues good, and Island stock is quoted in Boston at 19 cents per dozen, while the price per dozen in Charlottetown does not exceed 12 cents.

The Montreal Gazette says the egg market this year has been a surprise to our oldest dealers, having followed a very abnormal course from the opening of the season. The month of May just passed has been remarkable for the high cost of eggs, which has kept at about 17c@18c per dozen, against 11c@13c for the corresponding month in former years. In the districts around Ottawa most of the eggs have, it is said, been bought up with the intention of speculating in the market and putting up prices still higher. In this city on Saturday the supply was unequal to the demand, and offerings were readily placed at 17 1/2 to 18 cents. During the week several lots have been taken for export, the American markets having been correspondingly high. On Friday 1,600 cases were bought up in Boston, at 19 to 19 1/2 cents for New York, the latter market being quite excited on Saturday, with sales of choice Canadian stock at 23 to 24 cents. The high price of eggs is said to be owing to the high cost of meats, but we think the cold weather this season had a great deal to do with it, causing a decreased production.

PORK.
Pork continues to advance in England, as well as in Canada. The Gazette, reviewing the Montreal market, on the 5th, says the situation is firm under a good local and country enquiry, and values have an upward tendency. The sale was reported today of 200 lbs. Fairbank's lard at 14 1/2c, and 100 do at 15c. In pork the only transaction reported was a lot of 25 bbls.
Canada thin mess at $22. Extra prime pork is still arriving in this city from Milwaukee.
It is understood, that considerable business has been done in this kind of pork within the past few days on lower ports account, upon the basis of $16.50 here in bond. We quote Canada short cut mess pork at $23.00 to $23.50, Western mess pork at $22.25 to $22.50, thin mess at $22 for Canada and 21 for Western. Extra prime pork $16.50 in bond, and prime mess $20.00 to $20.50 in bond. Mess beef $15.00 in bond and $17.00 to $17.25 duty paid.
Lard is firm at 14 1/2c to 15c in pails, at 14 1/2c in tubs, and 15c to 14 1/2c in tierces. Smoked hams, uncovered, at 14c to 15c; breakfast bacon at 13 1/2c to 14c.

FLOUR.
The flour market in Montreal, on the 5th, was again reported quiet at unchanged prices. The only sales reported on 'Change were 125 superior at $6.27 1/2, and 125 choice do at $6.35. Oatmeal is steady under a good export demand, and prices are firm at $5.25 to $5.50, and cornmeal at $3.90 to $4.00.
Superior Extra.....$6 25 @ $6 30

POTATOES.
The potato market is at present very brisk, but the stock offering is not in the best condition or large. A high price prevails in the city—from 60 to 70 cents have been offered. In Boston the price quoted is $1.25 to $1.50 per bushel.

Who voted to give $50,000,000 cash, and 50,000,000 acres land to build the Pacific Railway?

Yeo,
Perry,
LaIRD,
McIntyre.

A North Carolina girl who went out to meet her lover against the wishes of her parents, was struck dead by lightning just as she had agreed to fly with him. Just imagine how badly taken back the fellow must have been!

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions or statements of our correspondents.

To the Editor of the Examiner.

SIR,—There appeared in THE DAILY EXAMINER of the 31st May, some items headed "Tignish Notes."

Some ill minded persons with the intent of injuring me, have been circulating that I am the author of "Tignish Notes."

I am not the author of "Tignish Notes," I knew nothing about them until the paper that carried them was shown me by Messrs.
J. J. Arsenault and W. McIntosh of Tignish. I know nothing about the author now, nor don't care to know.

As I am not in the habit of traducing my neighbors, you will confer a favor, for the satisfaction of those who busy themselves to find faults with others, by publishing this letter in your next issue.

I am Sir, yours truly, GILBERT BROS.

Tignish, June 6, 1882.
Who voted against an amnesty for O'Donoghue, who committed no crime, and voted an amnesty to Riel and Lepine, who murdered Scott?

LaIRD,
Yeo,
McIntyre,
Perry.

Elementary Politics.

Dull Boy—Papa are you a Grit?
Intelligent Father—I should—think—I was.

D. B.—What does Grit mean, papa?
I. F.—G stands for "got," R stands for "right," I stands for "in," T stands for
"to"—"office" understand. Dye see?

D. B.—But then you don't "get right into office," papa; do you?

I. F.—Well, stupid, and you'll see.
D. B.—You are an Anty, papa!

I. F.—I—should—think—I—was. Yes —verily.

D. B.—What is an Anty, papa?
I. F.—One who wants New Brunswick for New Brunswickers; i. e. I am against Confederation.

D. B.—But, papa, you often say that what we wanted was a marry-time union?

I. F.—Well, that would have been quite a different thing, you see. Then we should have had Protection against Canada, and not had all her goods and stuff rushed in here free!

D. B.—Then, are you a Protectionist, papa?

I. F.—Most decidedly not, my dear little idiot. Can't even you see how a high Tariff, or Protection, as they call it (Conservation I call it) is driving people out of the country.

D. B.—Well, where do they go, papa?
I. F.—Why, out West don't you know; Manitoba, Rocky Mountains, etc.

D. B.—Is there no Tariff out there, papa?

I. F.—Yes; but the most part leave the country altogether and go to the United States.

D. B.—And there's no tariff there, papa, I suppose?

I. F.—Come, come, my boy; you are getting tiresome. You had better go to bed.

D. B.—But, papa, one more question, please.

I. F.—Well, what?

D. B.—Such lots of people come out to America from England in the steamers, you know. Emigrants they call them over there. Is there a very high tariff in England, that makes them come away from there?

I. F.—Tut, tut, boy. Don't bother me any more. I'm trying to write a political article for the Daily Telegraph, and it requires great concentration. There, good night, dear!

D. B.—Good night, papa! Perhaps you'll let me ask you some more questions another time. [Exit Dull Boy.]—St. John's Sun.

Who voted for a duty of 6 cents a pound on Tea?

LaIRD,
Yeo,
Perry,
McIntyre.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A very painful and fatal accident occurred at New Annapolis Saturday evening, by which a lad twelve years of age son of Capt. Ellis Kennedy near for some years living with an uncle at New Annapolis and on the occasion referred to, was driving an empty cart home from the fields. It is supposed he was sitting on the front of the cart and in some way lost his balance, starting the horse to its highest speed. In falling he appears to have caught the shaft and held on as long as he could, the cart wheel passing over his head when he fell to the ground. Deceased only lived some two hours after the accident. We sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family in their sore affliction.
It may be mentioned that last summer a boy named Tanton was killed at St. Eleanor's in exactly the same way; and strange to say on each occasion the horse was remarkably quiet and docile—at least we are so informed.—Pioneer.

Who said: "I think we have done very well by the Island, and we have carried out the Terms of Union to the utmost possible extent?"—Alexander Mackenzie.

Sophronia: "What is philosophy?" It is something that enables a rich man to say there is no disgrace in being poor.—
