Teacher Mary Driscoll Comes Up With Big Upset

By JIM CRERAR

KITCHENER, Ont. (CP)—A 27 - year - old school teacher scored the upset of the day in the first round of the Canadian women's open golf championship Wednesday.

Mary Ellen Driscoll who teaches mathematics and physical education at a girls' private school in Ottawa and plays her golf out of Saint John, N.B. defeated favored Sue Hilton of London, Ont., 2 up.

Miss Hilton, a 21 -year - old graduate of the University of Western Ontario, won the Canadian women's close and junior titles in Winnipeg in 1962 and led the qualifiers in this week's open after the first 18 holes with a one-under-par 74.

Miss Driscoll, whose top competitive achievement was a playoff loss to Judy Darling Evans of Montreal in the 1957 Canadian junior tournament drew on 13 years of experience in national championships for this victory.

HELD LEAD

She won the first hole and was never behind, although Miss Hilton pulled even twice, on the fourth and seventh holes. But Miss Driscoll went 2-up on the 12th and never lost the lead. She was 1-up going onto the 18th and won that one when Miss Hilton hit her drive into the trees and took five to reach the green on the par four hole.

"I consider this a big victory in my career, as big as the one I scored over Marjorie Burns of Greensboro, N.C., a Curtiss Cup player, in the Canadian women's open in Ottawa in 1963," Miss Driscoll said.

Miss Hilton, normally strong in match play, said that she didn't feel she played badly.

"But Mary Ellen played a very good game," she said.

ELIMINATED U.S.

There were three United States players in the championship flight and all were eliminated. The top U.S. threat, Mrs. Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio, lost 3 and 2 to Kay Helleur of Toronto. Mrs. Ann Gregory of Chicago was eliminated 3 and 2 by last week's Canadian junior champion, Sandra Post of Milton, Ont., and Helen Reynolds of Manchester Conn., lost 2 and 1 to Joann Riddell of Montreal.

Other first-round matches ran to form. Marlene Stewart Streit of Fonthill, Ont., seven-time winner of the open title, won 7 and 6 over 17-year-old Jane Kirkpatrick of Toronto; Mary Gay of Kitchener, second in last week's close tournament and frequent runner-up in the open, won 5 and 4 over Mrs. Evans; Betty Stanhope Cole of Toronto and formerly of Edmonton, eliminaetd Rae Milligan of Calgary 3 and 2 and Gail Harvey of Toronto, winner of last week's Canadian women's close crown, won 8 and 7 over Patricia Clawson of Sarnia.

Tommy Gauthier Hurls No Hitter

The Vics laced the league leading Abbies 4-0 for their second straight win in Babe Ruth action yesterday at Memorial Field.

Only two Abbies reached base, one on a walk and the other on a dropped third strike as Tom Gauthier handcuffed the opposition. He struck out seven.

Brian Costello speedy centerfielder of the Vics made several fine plays to preserve the no hitter for Gauthier.

Gauthier had two singles and scored two runs to lead the winner's offensively. Robert Stewart and Frank MacIntyre hit safely for the game's only other hits. The fast moving MacIntyre had a perfectly executed drag bunt to give him a one for two day at the plate.

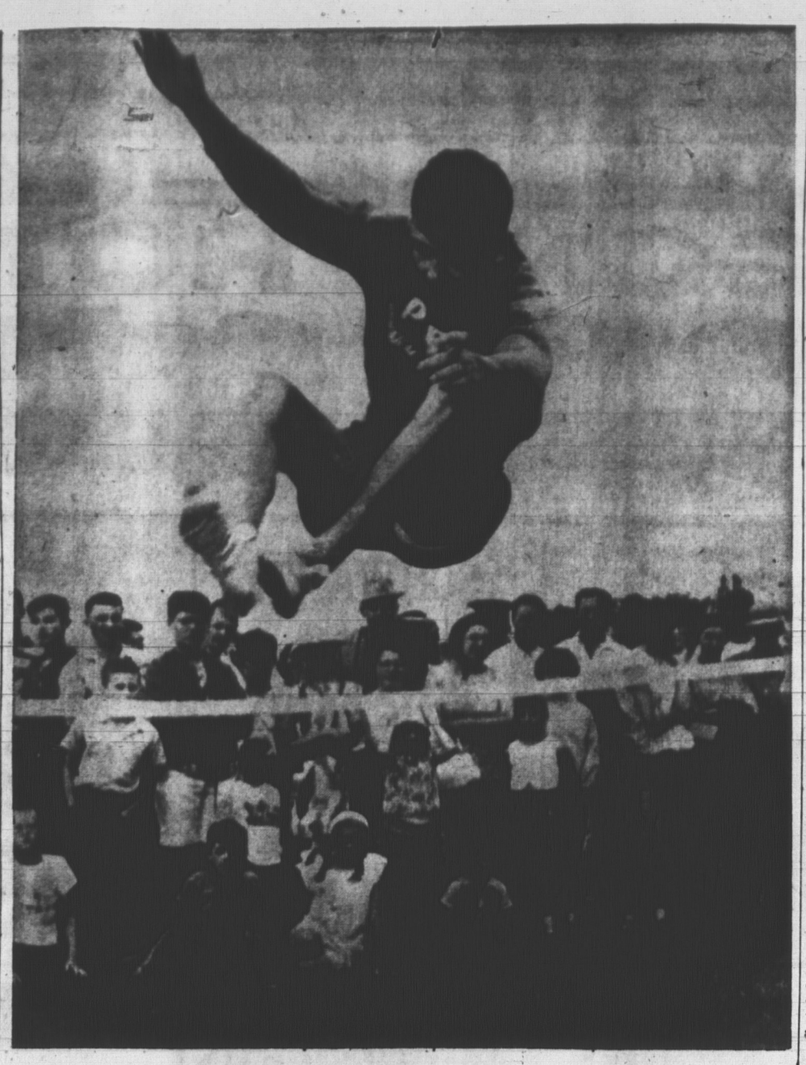
Norwegians drank 1.2 per cent less liquor, beer and wine in 1964 than the year before, an average of 3.58 litres of pure alcohol per capita.



WHEE . . . I'M A BIRD

Billy MacKinnon, well-known local track star, takes to the air instead of the track and looks as if he was measuring the room he had to clear as he soars over the bar in the high jump during the annual Caledonian Games held at Eldon yesterday. MacKinnon went on to, place second in the event and he also won his speciality the 100 yard dash. In the background is just a small segment of the large crowd which attended the day long 'gathering of the clans.'

High Payoffs Continue At S'side Racing Oval

SUMMERSIDE — Outstanding pays, which have been one of the top features throughout most of the racing season to date here, continued to run true to form at the local race way last night with a quinella pay of $345.60 on the third race dwarf-in gall other features on the night nine dash program.

The long shot winner which sent the paying combination pay soaring into triple figures was Sammy Gallon ,an 8-year-old bay son of Dean Gallon.

The gelding, owned by George Semple of Kensington and reined by Alyre Pineau, paid $61.80 to win and an across-the-board wager on this entry returned $91.20 with the place ticket paying $23.80 and a show, $5.60.

There was only one double dash winner on the program Orchestra Leader, the 8-year-old chestnut horse owned by the father and son duo of W. E. and L. S. Jenkins of Summerside, captured the fourth and eighth dashes on the card and in doing so also stepped the two fastest miles of the night.

The lone double dash winner went the twice-around-the-oval in his first appearance in 2.12 and his second trip was one full second faster.

The Bill Boyles'-owned mare Lola Hal of Charlottetown finished in the runner-up position both trips.

Other winners were: - Singalong; Evangel, Mountain Marie, Blue Mountain Girl, and Rudy Frisco.

In capturing the fifth dash on the card, Evangel, owned by Dr. MacIntyre of Montague and reined by Emmett "Cowboy" Bernard, took a new mark of 2.13.

Other combination pays on the program were as follow:—first daily double on dashes 1 and 2—$52.00; Exactor—$37 on ninth race and a $50.00 Exactor pay on the seventh.

Racetrack manager Laird 'Boots' Frame commented during the rfacing program last night that the racetrack has enjoyed more admissions in the first 12 races this season than the entire 1964 season, an almost sure sign that the track is well on its way to enjoying one of its most successful seasons ever.

Accidents Galore At Stock Races

Fred Smith won the free-for-all last night at the Covehead stock car races, coming from 13th position. Thirteen cars started in this 10-lap event but only five finished. Joe Donovan was second and Merrill MacLean, making his first start in stock car racing was third.

The G and G Dairy trophy for top driver of the night was won by Joe Donovan. Last week's top driver was Donnie Woolridge.

The large crowd saw 26 cars taking part in the night's classes. They competed for purses totalling more than $500.

In the first race George Thorne came first, with Donnie Woolridge second and Driscoll third. Skippy Heartz' car did a roll over after it was in collision with one driven by David Constable.

In race No. 2, Joe Donovan was first, with Fred Smith second and Frankie Acorn third.

Ten cars started in No. 3, and three laps were run under a caution flag because of pileups. Lorne Anderson emerged victor, with Donnie (Bunker) Brehaut coming from eighth position to take the second and Donnie Woolridge third.

Fred Smith placed first in the fourth event, with Joe Donovan and Frankie Acorn second and third.

In the ladies division, Anne Fleming was first, with Dottie Smith and Jean Rhynes second and third.

Marie Thorne flipped her car on the backstretch, with Jean Rhynes smashing into the overturned car.

Nine Dash Card Is Slated Tonight

A terrific harness racing program is in store for Charlottetown Driving Park patrons tonight.

It's a nine-dash menu highlighted by a sizzling free-for-all which is most certain to attract hundreds.

Of course, Walter Craig will be driving the favorite, Hurrah, but that doesn't guarantee he will pay off at the mutuel windows. Last week Doug Hill surprised Hurrah, Craig and most of the bettors when he eked out a decision in the final trip. Hurrah was an easy victor the first time out.

Miss Kemble, reined by Ike Moreside, has come over from Sackville Downs to do battle in this feature tonight. This mare looks better each time out and could provide the big upset tonight.

Dominion Byrd will be trying to do a repeat victory in this classic. If Doug has the Byrd as sharp as last week,then Dominion Byrd backers could be well rewarded.

Now don't forget Eloise Wick and Donnaway. These are two top pacers and they easily could romp home ahead of the other hopefuls.

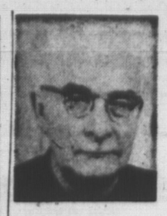
The fast class will go in dashes five and eight and the program will have seven other exciting events.

Make certain you take this one in tonight. It should be the best of the season to date.

P.E.I. Junior Team Return Tonight

The Prince Edward Island baseball team are scheduled to return this evening from the Canadian Baseball Championships which were recently held in Winnipeg. Four members of this team were also selected to represent Canada at the world baseball championship in Mexico City this fall.

The train arrives at the CNR station this evening at 11.10.



SPORTS FRONT

Recall Charlie Taking Mound

By NEIL MATHESON

MY MIND went back almost 20 years Tuesday when I saw Charlie Ryan walk into this office with a happy grin that he simply couldn't keep under control. But who would want to control the feelings Charlie was experiencing? He had just heard that four of the Prince Edward Island junior baseball squad have been chosen for the Canadian All Star squad that will play in an international baseball tournament in October of this year.

Incidentlly Charlie had sound reason to be proud. The four lads chosen for Canada's All Star junior baseball squad came up under Charlie's direction as members of his Legion squads.

Our present-day sport writers have congratulated the baseball youngsters warmly. I just want to add my most hearty congrats to the juniors.

Getting back to Charlie Ryan, though, I believe it was in the summer of 1935 I saw Charlie go in to pitch against a Moncton junior club that was here for a doubleheader exhibition stand.

I had been accustomed to see Charlie in the catcher's spot, and he invariably did a good job. You can imagine my surprise when I saw young Ryan go in to pitch against the visitors in the second game of the doubleheader.

The visitors were probably surprised too. They were even more surprised, I imagine, when they found they couldn't hit him. The Charlottetown club's ace pitcher at the time had been reached for six hits in the first game, but Charlie gave up just two hits in the nightcap. It was an impressive performance for any pitcher. For a kid who was pitching his first game, it was really terrific.

Chip Off Old Block

Freddy "Fiddler" MacDonald is one of the Island lads who has been named to the Canadian all star squad. It reminds me that his dad—we also called him "Fiddler" in those days—was one of the outstanding pitchers of his time.

The original Fiddler—his right name is James and his number one fan, Mrs. MacDonald, proudly calls him Jamie—struck out 24 batters in a game at Victoria Park one Sunday afternoon against the Charlottetown Dodgers, a club that previously had blanked a picked Summerside ball team. The date was Sunday July 12, 1936.

MacDonald was pitching for his Peakes team that afternoon and they defeated the Dodgers 7-2 on the strength of Fiddler's sensational hurling. The four errors charged against Peakes contributed to the two runs the Charlottetown team scored. There were two hits off MacDonald who struck out the last nine men to face him.

I believe that was the year Fiddler graduated from St. Dunstan's University where he had played quarterback in football—it was English Rugby then—and had been classed as a really good all-around athlete.

Freddie "Fiddler" MacDonald is an infielder whose favorite spot is third-base. The youngster must have two devoted and unusually enthusiastic fans in his mother and dad. There are six members of the family playing at Victoria Park, I'm told.

I've no intention of being unfair to the other three lads who made the Canadian All-Star squad. As an Islander I'm terribly proud for all of them. The reference to Fiddler comes naturally. I was writing sport for the Patriot when he hurled his big game.

Another Flashback

I've room, I believe, for another flashback, and this time it's horse racing and my mind goes back to the same year and a sensational performance by the trotter Heatherbell who established a new track record of 2:10 and 3/4 seconds at Montague on July 16.

To recall the real story I give you a paragraph from the Patriot story I wrote next day:

"Heatherbell's performance was not only a comeback for the horse himself, it also marked the reappearance as an owner driver of Lt.-Col. D. A. MacKinnon, the horse's new owner. Remember the time when the Colonel sold his last horse, and announced his retirement.

"His stable was closed and so was his racing career, but the old spirit got the better of him and at an auction sale and before he knew it, he was once more an owner, and yesterday afternoon he became once more an owner-driver. In fact he became a winning owner-driver and a sensational one at that."

The horse had held the previous track trotting record of 2:11½ but he beat that time in all three heats.

In case any of the present day racing fans are interested Lusty Frisco won the 2:15 trot with best time of 2:12 and 3/4 and Peter Onward took the 2:24 trot and pace with best time of 2:13. The Frisco horse was owned by the late C. H. (Charlie) Chandler of Charlottetown. I'm sorry, I do not have the owner of Peter Onward.

Before I leave this racing story, I believe that Col. MacKinnon had bought Heatherbell more or less by accident. He put a bid on the horse at an auction sale and that was that.

My memory tells me that old Heatherbell later lowered the Montague track record to something close to 2:08, though I'm not sure of the details. It's a long time since I was a sports columnist, when I followed such events closely.

Caledonian Meet Is Big Success

The annual Caledonian Games track and field competition held in conjunction with 'the gathering of the clans' was held yesterday at the Lord Selkirk Park in Eldon. Entries for all events were numerous and competition was very close. Approximately 100 athletes participated in the age-class and open events.

Billy MacKinnon, Prince Edward Island record holder in the 100 yard dash won his specialty and placed second in both the high and broad jumps. Ruth Annear of Montague copped firsts in both the Womens open high jump and broad jump while finishing second behind Rosemary Duffy of Charlottetown in the womens open 80 yard dash. The event that brought back many memories to the throngs of died in the wool scotchmen in attendance at the meet yesterday was the saber toss and Jim Pechham showed the old timers great style in winning the event with a toss of 26' 11".

Mr Dave Boswell, provincial director of physical education, was in charge of all events and he was excellently assisted by Donnie LeClair, Charlie Mullins and Clarence who was in charge of distributing prizes to the first second and third finishers in each of the events.
