Tar Smoke for Diphtheria.

Ruth Lockwood, the nine-year-old child of Thomas Loockwood.a compositor in the Times office, become violently ill with diphtheria on Tuesday night. She was so weak that it was deemed dangerous to try tracheotomy,or cutting open the windpipe. On Tuesday Dr Nichols, who was attending her, received a copy of the Paris Figaro,which contained a report made to the French academy of medicine by Dr. Delthil. Dr. Delthil said that the vapors of liquid tar and turpentine would dissolve the fibrinous exudations which choke up the throat in croup and dephtheria. Dr. Delthill's process and described. He pours equal parts of turpentine and liquid tar into a tin pan or cup and sets fire to the mixture. A dense resinous smoke arises, which obscures the air of the room.

"The patient," Dr. Dethill says, "immediately seems to experience relief; the choking and rattle stop; the patient falls into a slumber and seems to inhale the smoke with pleasure. The fibrinous membrane soon becomes detached, and the patient coughs up microbicides. These, when caught in a glass may be seen to dissolve in the smoke. In the course of three days afterwards the patent entirely recovers."

Dr. Nichols tried this treatment with little Ruth Lockwood. She was lying gasping for breath when he visited her. First pouring about two tablespoonfuls of liquidfied tar on an iron pan he poured as much turpentine over it and set it on fire. The rich resinous smoke which rose to the ceiling was by no means unpleasant. As it filled the room the child's breathing became natural, and as the smoke grew dense she fell asleep.—N. Y. Sun.

Alcohol not so Injurious to Men of Little Brains.

Men of low intellectual endowment with a taste for strong drink, will derive much comfort from the result of one of the latest experiments which the French temperance society has been making on the alcoholization of pigs. The experiments which were commenced in 1879, on a number of pigs of the so-called Anglo-Chinese breed, have been continued ever since. Each pig was kept in a separate sty, but twice a day they were all fed together in an adjoining yard. Alcohol was mixed with their feed, and after each meal they all fell into a deep sleep,but showed no signs of excitement, except now then a slight muscular trembling. The difference of alcohol on human beings and pigs is believed to arise from the smallness of pigs brains, for the larger the brain the more dangerous the effect of intoxication. Hence, although the companions of St. Anthony may occasionally indulge in their taste for juniper, they are in no danger of being attacked by delirium tremens.—Pall Mall Gazette, April 26.

A Disastrous Fire.

The most disastrous fire in Worcester Mass, for thirty years occurred on the night of the 15th inst. A general alarm called the entire department to South Worcester, two miles from the city, where the Pakachoag mill, owned by George Crompton, was found in flames. The mill was of brick, 270 feet long, and in some portions four stories in height; it was used for the manufacture of woollen yarn, and was running day and night. The fire spread so rapidly, that many of the operatives had to jump from the upper windows. The entire mill was destroyed, and it was with the greatest difficulty that other mills were saved. The total loss is roughly estimated at $150,000, on which there is an insurance of $28 500 on building, and $84,000 on stock and machinery, and many of the operatives were seriously injured by jumping from windows, and several of the wounded are likely to die. It is feared that some bodies will be found in the ruins.

The Sugar Markets.

Says the Montreal Gazette of the 12th, There is a very strong feeling in refined sugar under an active enquiry, and prices to-day advanced ½c per lb., granulated being held firmly at 7¾c., for round lots, and at 7⅞c. and 8c, for ordinary sized parcels. Advices from Boston report an increased export demand for refined occasioned by the advance of 1s now up to 15s. Boston advices state: "prices of sugar are now so low that operators who are familiar with the article are very ready to believe that any upward turn in the market is but the commencement of a regular advance to nominal prices, which are considered to be fully 1c. per lb above the present. Granulated has been sold in New York at 6⅞c. for export, which, with the rebate, would make a net price of 4c. per lb., whereas in other years from 8c. and 8½c. has been considered low-water mark."

The Prohibition Movement.

Judge Boyd, one of the Dominion license commissioners, in opening the general session of the peace in Toronto, a few days ago,referred to the Dominion and Provincial Acts. He said the number of licenses granted this year, showed a tendency in the public mind to prohibition. If the temperance wave kept on rolling, as at present for a few years total abolition of the liquor traffic would be the result.

Ross and Courtney.

Wallace Ross is hard at work in preparation for his Decoration day race with Courtney. He takes every advantage of every good rowing day for shell practice on the East river, and for the rest is tramping down the grass of Oak Point in vigorous running exercise. Courtney is at Troy, where he went to try his new boat. He has not decided whether he will continue his training there or return to Ithaca, where he has been working hard alongside the Cornell eight. He will reach New York on May 24. The race has an added interest for boating men from the fact that both contestants will use a new adjustable outrigger, which is the invention of W. Rockwell Kent, one of the Metropolitan eight that did so well last season. The formerly tedious and vexatious job of raising or lowering the rig of the shell, according to the roughness of the water, may be accomplished by this device after the oarsman is in the boat, if necessary.

Where Earnings Go.

The Chicago Industrial World says:—In a certain manufacturing town, reports an exchange, an employer one Saturday paid to his workmen $700 in crisp new bills that had been secretly marked. On Monday $450 of those identical bills were deposited in the bank by the saloon keepers. When the fact was made known,the workmen were so startled by it that they helped to make the place a no-license town. The times would not be so "hard" for the workingmen if the saloons did not take in so much of their wages. If they would organize a strike against saloons, they would find the result to be better than an increase in wages, and to include an increase of savings.

What He Made.

"I have made a thousand dollars during the last three months," said a saloonkeeper, boastfully, to a crowd of his townsmen. "You have made more than that," quietly remarked a listener. "What is that?" "You have made wretched homes—women and children poor, and sick, and weary of life. You have made my sons drunkards," continued the speaker, with trembling earnestness; "you made the younger of the two so drunk that he fell and injured himself for life. You have made their mother a broken-hearted woman. Oh, yes, you have made much—more than I can reckon up, but you'll get the full count some day—you'll get it some day!"

Some Salaries.

The editor of the London Times' receives $25,000 salary; the Standard pays $15,000; Daily News, $20,000; senior editors of the Telegraph receive $17,500 each. Manchester Guardian, $15,000; Pall Mall Gazette Spectator and Saturday Review, each, $10,000; St. James Gazette, $9,000 and Punch $15,000. Mr. Dana's income from the New York Sun last year, including salary, was $4,000 a week. The paper now pays a regular dividend of 5 per cent a month, and occasionally an extra dividend, just to keep the stockholders from getting the blues. The dividend for the year past was over 80 per cent.

The Growth of Western Cities.

Referring to the rapid growth of western cities, the Canadian-American points out that paralled examples are yet to be found in the east. It states that "ten years ago St. Thomas, on the Canada Southern, was a place of 1,800; to-day it is a thriving and bustling city of 11,000. Another Ontario town that has grown wonderfully during the past five years is Cornwall, which has more than doubled in population in that period, and now boasts of 9,000 inhabitants, hundreds of whom find employment in its great cotton mills."
