

N. S. Bonspiels

TRURO, Oct. 8—(CP)—Nova Scotia's three top bonspiels of the season will be held this year at Lunenburg, Bridgewater and Halifax. The Provincial Branch of the Royal Caledonian Curling Club, meeting here today, awarded the Consols meet to Lunenburg, the Johnson to Bridgewater and the Junior to Halifax.

H. P. Webb was elected president. Other officers include Murray Vail, Sydney, second vice-president; R. B. Stewart, New Glasgow, secretary-treasurer; G. S. Bauld, New Glasgow, executive member.

Revamped Black Hawks Meet Canadiens Tonight

By W. R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL, Oct. 8—(CP)—

Chicago Black Hawks, a changed team in personnel and mental attitude, open the new National Hockey League season here tomorrow night against the standpat Montreal Canadiens. "The team has lost its defeatist complex," said General Manager Bill Tobin of the Hawks today. "I don't want to appear too optimistic but I think the pre-season exhibition series we played against Detroit is significant. We won two, lost two and tied three."

The Hawks have also been successful against minor league clubs. They won 7-4 over Chicoutimi of the Quebec Senior Hockey League last night to wind up the training season.

Off-season deals brought new players to the Hawks, including goalie All Rollins, defenceman Gus Mortson and centre Cal Gardner in the big swap with Toronto Maple Leafs.

In addition, Sid Abel, long a veteran centre star with Detroit, is the new coach and will help his club actively on the ice, although he is expected to play only part time.

The Hawks have finished last in the six-team league for three successive seasons. They were fifth, out of the playoffs, in the 1948-49 season.

Coach Dick Irvin of Canadiens said he is worried about this year's revamped Chicago team.

"Against Detroit Red Wings in those exhibition games they showed clearly they have a better club and they will be full of hustle against us tomorrow night."

Canadiens have made no changes this season. They will open before possibly 14,000 fans in Montreal Forum with the same squad that finished second in the league race last season.

The only doubtful starter is Dickie Moore, brilliant rookie forward of last season. Moore has been out of action with a knee injury.

While the Hawks and Canadiens are battling, New York Rangers will play at Detroit in the only other game of the night. Toronto Leafs open at home Saturday night as hosts to the Hawks. Boston Bruins don't swing into action until Sunday when they meet Canadiens on Boston ice.

New Players Sign With Chicoutimi

CHICOUTIMI, Que., Oct. 8—(CP)—Ralph (Bucky) Buchanan and Fern Perreault, both forwards and two newcomers with Chicoutimi Sagueneens of the Quebec Senior Hockey League, signed contracts today. Buchanan, with Shawinigan Falls Cataracts last season, was obtained for an undisclosed amount of cash. Perreault was with Montreal Royals last year.

Boston Bruins End Training

HERSHEY, Pa., Oct. 8—(CP)—Boston Bruins ended their National Hockey League training grind today and packed up for the return to home ice and their season's opener Sunday against Montreal Canadiens.

Saturday the Bruins will meet Providence Reds in an exhibition game.

Coach Lynn Patrick announced that only six players who started the season with Boston last year will return home with this year's squad.

They are: Forwards Ed Sandford, John Peirson and captain Milt Schmidt, defencemen Bill Quackenbush and Hal Laycoe and goalie Sugar Jim Henry.

The squad with which the Bruins will open their home season against Montreal will include 12 other players acquired since last season's opener. Three of the 12 will be wearing the Boston uniform for the first time.

The squad, 16 members of which will be eligible to participate in the opener, is as follows: Forwards: Fleming Mackell, George Sullivan, Leo Sabine, Real Chevrefils, Dave Creighton, Jack McIntyre, Joe Klukay, Woody Dumart, Pentti Lund, Schmidt, Peirson and Bill Ford; defencemen: Bob Armstrong, Jerry Toppazzini, Warren Godfrey, Laycoe and Quackenbush; goalie: Henry.

The three newcomers are Klukay, a clever veteran acquired from Toronto Maple Leafs, Godfrey, 190-pounder who played for Tacoma last year, and Toppazzini, rugged rookie from Hershey.

High, Low Spots In 1952 Series

NEW YORK, Oct. 8—(AP)—High and low spots of the 1952 World Series:

Outstanding individual player: Mickey Mantle, Yankees' center-fielder, whose home run and run-scoring single were decisive blows of yesterday's final game.

Biggest disappointment: Gil Hodges, power-hitting Brooklyn first baseman, who went hitless in 21 times at bat, the first regular in history not to get a safety in a seven-game world series.

Greatest comeback: Duke Snider, Dodger center-fielder who tied the record of eight strikeouts in the 1949 series against the Yankees but hit four home runs, batted in eight runs, hit .345 and made several fine catches this year. His home runs tied the series record held by Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig.

Costliest miscue: Yogi Berra's passed ball in the ninth inning of the third game, permitting Pee Wee Reese and Jackie Robinson to scurry home with what proved the winning runs.

Best pitching performance: Alie Reynolds, Yankees, who started two games, relieved in two others, gained two victories and turned in top single performance in three-hit 2-0 shutout in fourth game.

Best clutch pitching: Bob Kuzava, who came into the final game in the seventh inning with one out, New York leading 4-2 and the bases loaded. He faced the Dodgers' two toughest hitters—Snider and Jackie Robinson. He made Snider pop to third and Robinson to second.

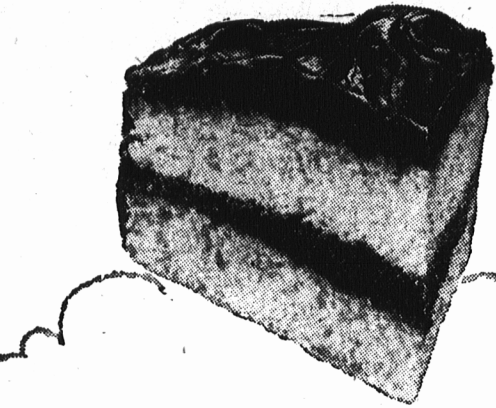

Oddest incident on the field: Brooklyn Billy Loes' balk in the sixth game. Stretching to pitch in the seventh inning, he let the ball squirt out of his hands. Gene Woodling, on first, went to second, moments later scored when Vic Raschi banged a single off Loes' knee.

Best quote: Casey Stengel (after winning last two games at Ebbetts Field): "We always win on the road."
