Racy Literature.

A witty Hibernian, just arrived in London, and wandering about perceived a blanket with the inscription on it: "this superior blanket for half price"—"just five shillings." "By my soul and that's chape enough!" and so folding the blanket up, putting it under his arm, he laid down two shillings and sixpence and was walking off. The shopkeeper intercepted him, and demanded the other two shillings and sixpence. "Didn't you say you spalpeen, that the price of the blanket was five shillings, ayn't I giving you half of it? By this and that, I won't give up my bargain." A scuffle ensued and Pat was taken to Bow street, but where he pleaded his case so well that the magistrate dismissed the complaint, and advised the shopkeeper never again to ticket his goods with "half price."

FENCING.—This is a great country, but not fenced in. There are those who think it never should be—that it would be an absurd outlay.

"In the course of time," said one man lately, "the sea will be the only fence required..

"What a bull," said another, "you mean that the sea will be the only landmark?"

"I Come for the saw, sir."
"What saucer?"
"Why the saw, sir, that you borrowed.
"I never saw your saucer."
"But you did; there's the saw, sir, now."
"O, you want the saw. Why didn't you say so?"

FAR BETWEEN.—Judge Brackenbridge in reprimanding a criminal, amongst other hard names, called him a scoundrel. The prisoner replied,—

"Sir, I am not so great a scoundrel as your honour—takes me to be."

"Put your words nearer together," said the judge.

TOO LATE.—A young lady stepped into the store of a merchant by the name of Wade, and very innocently said she would like be weighed (Wade.)

"Really, I am very sorry," said he, "but my wife will tell you that you are too late by a couple of years."

That California gives birth to a good many queer facts. A friend informs us, for instance, that it is impossible to grow the common turnip in any part of the country—the soil being so impregnated with gold dust that the "yaller strikes through," and converts them all into rutabagas.

A butcher let a sailor have a shoulder of mutton on trust; but finding in a day or two after that he had gone to a foreign land, said—

"My word! if I had known that he never intended paying I would have charged him a penny a pound more for it!"

An old sportsman, who at the age of eighty-three, was met by a friend riding very fast was asked what he was in pursuit of?

"Why' sir, replied the other "I am riding after my eighty-fourth year."

A MAN stopping his paper wrote to the editor, "I think folkes ottend spend their munny for paper my daddy didn't and everyboddy sez he wus the most intillygintest man in the cundry and got the smallest famuly uv buoys that ever dugged taters."

A jndge out West has recently decided that it might be insanity to sign another man's name to a check in place of your own? but when you draw the check, and spend it, there is a great deal of sanity in the preceeding.

Some boys were recently trying to ascertain to which class of trees the Tree of Knowledge belonged, when one little fellow gave it as his opinion that it must be a birch tree.

A man was asked what induced him to make a law student of his son.

Oh, he was always a lying little cuss, and I thought I would humour his leading propensity.

"Young man, do you believe in a future state?"

"In course, I duz, and what's more, I intend to enter it as soon as Betsy gets her things ready."

A dandy being told that he would soon have to wear a wig, as he was growing gray exclaimed indignantly,—

"No, sir I'll die first."

A shrewd confectioner has taught his parrot to say "pretty creature" to every lady who enters the shop, and his busi- is rapidly increasing.

An Irishman who was troubled with the toothache determined to have an old offender extracted; but, there being no dentist near, he resolved to do the job himself; whereupon he filled the excavation with powder, but, being afraid to touch it off, he put a slow match to it, and then ran to get out of the way.

The following question is now before the Sand Lake Debating Society:

"Which do women love best?—to be hugged in a polka or squeezed in a sleigh.

A young man was fined the other day twenty dollars for kissing a pretty girl when she didn't want him to. It often costs him ten times as much when they do want him to.

A Yankee has just taught ducks to swim in hot water with such success that they lay boiled eggs.

A Yankee captain was caught in the jaws of a whale, but was finally rescued, badly wounded. On being asked what he thought while in this situation, he replied: "I thought he would make about forty barrels."

"We see," said Swift, in one of his most sarcastic moods, "what God thinks of riches by the people he gives them to."

A merchant's advice in selecting a wife was: Get hold of a piece that will wash.

Why are hot buckwheat-cakes like a catterpillar? Because they are the "grub" that make the butter fly.

MRS. WINSLOW,

An experienced Nurse and Female Physicians presents to the attention of mothers, her

SOOTHING SYRUP,

FOR CHILDREN TEETHING.

which greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflamation—will allay all pain and spasmodic action, and is

SURE TO REGULATE THE BOWEL

Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and

Relief and Health to your Infants.

We have put up and sold this article for over thirty years, and can say, in confidence and truth of it, what we have never been able to say of any other medicine—never has it failed in a single instance, to effect a cure, when timely used. Never did we know an instance oi dissatisfaction by any one who used it. On the contrary, all are delighted with its operations, and speak in terms of highest commendation of its magical effects and medical virtues. We speak in this manner "what we do know," after thirty years' experience, and pledge our reputation for the fulfilment of what we here declare. In almost every instance where the infant is suffering from pain and exhaustion, relief will be found in fifteen or twenty minutes after the syrup is administered.

This valuable preparation is the prescriptions of one of the most experienced and skilful nurses in New England, and has been used with never failing success in thousands of cases. It not only relieves the child from pain but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve GRIPING IN THE BOWELS, AND WIND COLIC, and overcome convulsions, which, if not speedily remedied, end in death. We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world, in all cases of Dysentry and Diarrhœa in Children, whether it arises from teething, or from any other cause. We would say to every mother who has a child sufferring from any of the foregoing complaints—do not let your prejudices, nor the prejudices of others, stand between your suffering child and the relief that will be sure—yes, absolutely sure—to follow the use of this medicine, if timely used. Full directions for using will accompany each bottle. None Genuine unless the fac-smile of CURTIS & PERKINS, New York, is on the outside wrapper.

Sold by Druggists throughout the world.
Principal office, No. 48 Dey Street. N. Y.
Price, only 35 Cents per Bottle.

New Truimphs of Roger's Medicines.

Run your eye over them and tell your afflicted neighbour about it.

West Branch, East River, Pictou, Sep. 11, '64
MESSRS. ROGERS & Co.:—

Gentlemen—For the sake of those who are suffering with Scrofula or King's Evil, I wish you to publish the following facts: About eight years ago, a swelling appeared under my chin; in a short time it ulcerated, and became a running sore, and extended across my neck from ear to ear. The bone became affected and several pieces came out from time to time. The smell from the parts affected became very offensive, so much so that I had to retire by myself and dress them. I tried the best doctors in the country, and many in the United State, but all to no purpose. I also tried various patent medicines, including Kennedy's Discovery, which I used for two years, but it did me no good. Under your treatment my general health which was very much impaired, is completely restored, and the Scrofula on my neck is entirely healed up. I am a sound man now, thanks to Providence for his goodness. Let no one who reads this doubt its truth. Hundreds know my case.

THOMAS CHISHOLM

H. H. Read, M. D., Esq., of Windsor N. S., writes as follows.

MESSRS ROGERS & Co.:—

I have used your Medicine in one or two cases of Scrofulous Sores, and think it excellent; and it is the best thing I know of for removing the stiffening which remains after inflamation of the joints.

C. H. Harrington, Esq., of Sidney, C. B., writes as follows under date of August 22, 1865: "The mail agent here used the Ointment for his horses, and says he never had anything which cured any hurt or sore so quickly.

STORMONT, N. S., 19th August, 1865
MESSRS. ROGERT & Co

Gentlemen—There was a wort on one of my cow's eyes, and grown to such an extent that I thought it would shut her eye up, when after four rubbings with your Ointment, it took it off as clean as if cut off with a knife. It was as big as an ounce ball. I will write again shortly.

Yours truly, THOMAS S. MILWARD

AMHERST, October 1st, 1865

Gentlemen—I have been a great deal troubled with those merciless and most distressing things called Felons, or Whitlows. Last year I was laid up three months with one, and I could not tell what I suffered. A few weeks ago another begun with all its usual vigor and earnestness. I suffered for several days. My hand swelled very much, and I looked forward to three months more of misery and suffering; but happily I tried your Ointment. In two days I went to work. It seemed to kill it at once. In three or four days, a hard black lump came out at the end of my thumb, about the size of a small pea. Wonderful medicine! Ye suffering try it.

WILLIAM ELLIOT.
