TOUGH OLD SILO

POSTMAN'S YEAR

COURTENAY, B. C. — (CP) — A 50-year-old silo on R. U. Hurd's farm here is believed to be one of the oldest such structures in British Columbia. Made from cedar planking three inches thick, it is still in use.

SASKATOON — (CP) — This city's postmen aren't world travelers, but they could be. It's estimated that the total of their routes, in a year, is equivalent to five trips around the world.

Borden

Friends are sorry to learn of the illness of Mrs. Reginald MacAlear and wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Hattie Ross of Summerside spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. Hector MacKenzie at Borden.

Mr. Hillard McInnis of Borden is a patient in the Prince County Hospital suffering from pneumonia. Hillard is doing nicely and all hope to see him home soon.

Borden is just digging itself out after one of the worst storms of the winter. As usual with a tie-up of traffic the usual disappointments had to be met. Many people from the U. S. A. and mainland, arriving on Saturday's boat to spend Easter with relatives on the Island, had to remain in Borden for two days before a plow came through to help them on their way. On Monday evening the same thing happened. Many more cars came on the boat and among them some thirty or forty airmen returning to duty after a holiday on the mainland. On landing here they were stranded. The hotel was full, many private homes were full and some of them slept in their cars. It is not known what the Public Works Department think of these conditions, but here all feel ashamed when they are asked when will the plow be in. There

A few evenings prior to Miss Hogan's departure a group of young people called at the home of her father, Mr. Patrick Hogan, and tendered her a farewell party. ST. STEPHEN'S W. A.
—Mrs. Everett Sudsbury was hostess at the March meeting of St. Stephen's Anglican W. A., Burlington.

Twelve members answered roll call with a verse of Scripture, containing the word, Almighty. The devotional period was led by the president, Mrs. W. J. Harrington, assisted by the rector, Rev. S. J. Davies, and opened with the hymn, The Love of Christ Constrains.

Following the reading of the minutes, Mrs. Harry Sudsbury presented, having bought a wicker paper basket for the church vestry. Garments and cards were passed in for the sale. Articles for a sale were also brought to the meeting, but will be held over for a possible parlor social some time in April.

A message of cheer and sympathy, in her illness, is to be sent to Miss Margaret Cotton, at the Prince Edward Island Hospital.

In the event of the chosen delegate being unable to attend the W. A. annual meetings, Mrs. Mamie Adams and Mrs. E. Profit were appointed as alternates. A summary of the World Day of Prayer services was given by those who were able to attend. An excellent digest on the contents of the current issue of the Living Message was given by Mrs. Leah Paynter. The speaker said she was impressed with the great amount of work done by the church, at home and abroad, and went on to give news in brief, from China, from an Indian Mission in Fort George, in Canada, from the Bishop in British Guiana, of Indians in Chili, and of missions in Canada, India and Jerusalem. In conclusion, she said the work done by St. Stephen's seemed very small indeed, when one looked at the great scope of missionary work, at home and abroad.

The touching story of the burial of the Reverend John Ando, by Rev. Alan Greene was read from the Diocesan Times, by Mrs. W. J. Profit.

Responding to an invitation by the president to address the meeting, Rev. Mr. Davies commented on Mrs. Paynter's final observation. He said that we are a part of a vast church, not only in Canada, but in England, the United States and other countries, a small part, it is true, but none the less, part of the whole church. Speaking on the Holy Communion, his words were designed to help in overcoming the difficulties experienced in our Lord's day, and in our day, in realizing the significance of the "Body and Blood of Christ."

Again West Cape's dear old lady, Mrs. Daniel Brooks has passed a milestone. This time she is 97 years old. Still bright and about every day.
