NEW YORK (AP)—Andy Bathgate, highest point producer in Ranger history, increased his total for the season to 70 Sunday night as he scored two goals and assisted in two more in leading New York to a 4-1 National Hockey League victory over the pace-setting Detroit Red Wings.

St. John Beavers came from behind a 4-1 deficit in the second period to outblast Junior Abbies 10-8 in a N.B.P.E.I. Junior play-off hockey game at the Sports Arena Saturday.

The Beavers will take the 2-goal spread in the second game of the total-goal series to be played at Sussex tonight.

BYC And Flyers At Arena Tonight

Parkdale Flyers and Basilea Youth Club renew their keen rivalry in the Island Senior Hockey League semi-finals at the Sports Arena tonight.

The best-of-seven series is now tied at 1-1 and both teams are looking to snatch the edge in the series with a victory tonight.

The powerful Flyers won the opening game of the series in a 9-2 romp, but were shook by the youth club who squeezed through to a 4-2 victory Thursday.

This game was one of the best of the entire year at the Sports Arena and was featured by some neat playmaking.

The one cloud on the B.Y.C. horizon is Merrill Pineau. The starry young leftwinger suffered an eye injury in enehoping game and sat out Thursday's game.

Pineau will not know until today whether or not he will be able to play. He, however, is the only doubtful starter either club.

In order to take care of the big crowd expected the Arena management will have an advance sale of tickets. Customers will be able to pick up tickets any time before the game starts at the Arena office.

Truro Curling Foursome Wins Mar. Junior Crown

Rollie MacLeod's Truro rink won the Maritime Junior Curling championship at the Charlottetown Curling Club Saturday night by defeating Jay Allen's Fredericton rink 13-7 to capture his fifth consecutive win without a setback.

MacLeod came into the second day with a 2-0 record and added to it with a 16-10 victory over Bert Hunter's Summerside rink in the morning and a 17-9 win over Sackville in the afternoon.

Dr. Chris Gallant's Charlottetown rink finished in the runner-up spot as a result of two stirring comeback wins on the ice and a default win over the absent Sydney rink in the morning round. Doug Goodwin's Sackville foursome appeared well on its way to a victory when it held a 10-5 lead in the 11th end. However, Dr. Gallant turned the tables and tied the score with a big 5 ender and won the game by counting one in the final end.

N. H. L. SATURDAY Habs Drop Hawks 6-4; N.Y. Nips Leafs 2-1; Boston Wins

By THE CANADIAN PRESS

Chicago Black Hawks, out of the National Hockey League play-off picture, are making things rough for the top teams in the loop.

Montreal Canadiens defeated Hawks 6-4 Saturday night but were badly mauled doing it. New York Rangers edged Maple Leafs 2-1 in Toronto in the other night game. In an afternoon game, Boston Bruins took a 4-2 home win over first-place Detroit Red Wings.

Jean Beliveau with two led Montreal. Claude Provost, Don Marshall, Bernie (Boom Boom) Geoffrion and Henri Richard scored the others. Harry Watson, Nick Mickoski, Elmer Vasko and Eric Nesterenko scored for Hawks.

Andy Bathgate scored New York's winning goal after Camille Henry had opened the scoring and Ted Kennedy had evened things for Toronto.

In the afternoon fixture, Leo Labine picked up two goals for Boston and singles came from Real Chevrefils and rookie Jack Caffery. Detroit's Gordie Howe ran his major league goal total to 350 as he scored both Detroit's counters.

The Montreal game was featured by a wide-open brawl in the first period which started when defenseman Yvete Pilote held Henri Richard on the boards and the Pocket Rocket began slugging. Henri went down and Maurice came up slugging and Pilote ripped the shirt right off his back.

After a lull, apparently angered at something goalie Al Rollins said, Maurice speared the goalie with his stick and Rollins swung back.

Referee Eddie Powers gave minor and major penalties to Maurice and Pilote, a major to Henri Richard and a minor to Rollins.

When the warm weather comes, the smart housewife shakes out the heavy winter clothes, gets them cleaned and moth-proofed before storing them away. She brings out the lighter summer clothes and has them cleaned too.

For about the same reasons, the smart car owner takes the turn to warmer weather as a signal to "shake out" the car for summer driving. The winter is tough on engine, transmission and battery; it's tough sledding for just about every part of the car.

Even if it appears to have survived the winter without trouble, this is the time to have one of our mechanics take the time to go over the car from fan belt to exhaust. He can track down any of the little weaknesses you may have spotted-or may not have spotted-through the winter.

For instance, an engine that starts hard and idles too fast may be traced to a broken windshield wiper line.

Slow acceleration when you try to step on the gas may mean only that the carburetor needs to be set for warmer weather.

When there is misfiring, a rough engine and hard starting, you may have dispersed at the engine lasting through another year. Probably isn't the engine at all; more likely the contact points of the distributor are pock-marked or aren't spaced properly.

The warmer weather means you're going to be doing a lot more driving for fun, but it won't be fun if the hotter, longer drives of summer get spoiled because the car, speaking figuratively, is still wearing its long winter underwear.

The important thing is that our factory-trained boys (and how we're proud of them) will find what's wrong, even if you haven't noticed it yet. And, just as important, they'll make the simple, inexpensive adjustments to fix the conditions you may have shuddered over, fearing a major repair bill.

Here are just a few of our used cars that are ready to go winter or summer.

1953 FORD COACH, dark blue, heater and radio, completely reconditioned for only $1200.00.

1953 BUICK two door sedan, light green body, dark green roof, radio, dynamo. Only $1600.00.
