treat to the pupils. Mrs. Green, representing the committee, had announced a concert, and the Red Cross fundraising and water safety classes which will be held later in the summer, and enrollment forms were distributed. Alberton boys and girls are keenly interested in these classes each year and last summer made something of a record when every member of the class passed the tests.

GUESTS AT PREVIEW - Yesterday, at noon, the members of the Guardian staff in Summerside were extended an invitation by Mr. Harold E. Gaudet, manager of the Capitol Theatre, to attend a preview of a film of the production. Photographed in color, the film was a truly inspiring account of the impressive ceremony in Westminster Abbey when Elizabeth Second, was crowned Queen. The scenes preceding the actual coronation, from the moment the royal coach started on its triumphant journey to the crowning, showed the vast crowds which lined the streets to do homage to the new Queen. Members of all the armed services were seen, the colorful Guards with their bearskin hats and of particular interest to Canadians was seen their own Royal Canadian Mounted Police in their scarlet tunics. The film was included in last evening's regular show and will be shown again this evening at both the first and second shows.

PERSONALS
-Mr and Mrs. Wesley Oliver and family accompanied by Mr.
Oliver's sister, Mrs. Nelson Mc-Allister, all of Munroe, Maine, are visiting relatives and friends in Alberton and vicinity.

Closely Contested
Softball Game
-The Journal-Pioneers edged the Summerside Legion 6-5 last night in a closely contested softball game at the Queen Elizabeth park diamond. Ballem went for the winners, while Cole and Grover shared the pitching duties for the Legion team. Cyr.
Brommer was the Legion roster, and a sensational catch of a foul ball in the sixth inning, falling over a portion of the stands, and up against the wire fence as he made the grab.

Finds Death Due
To Cardiac Failure

-Dr. W. A. Shea, presiding coroner issued the following statement to the members of a jury which met at the Alberton court house last evening in connection with the death of Mrs. John McAduff, which occurred at Alberton on Wednesday, June 17th.
"I have discussed the case of the death of Mrs. John (Stella) Mc-Aduff with the medical staff of the Western Hospital and find that death was due to a cardiac failure and I find no fault with what was performed concerning anasthesia or dental extractions and no blame can be placed to the doctors concerned. I therefore discharge you from your duties as members of the jury in this case."

Let's Talk It Over

Because of the peculiar nature of our present era, words, which taken literally, might be classed on the side of right, take unto themselves evil connotations. For example, the word "appeasement".
Literally, it means a practice which tends to pour oil on troubled waters, but ever since the late Neville Chamberlain one-time prime minister of Great Britain, came back from Munich with his empty hopes, and his umbrella, the word has come to mean a foolish servility to the forces of evil, which invariably leaves the enemy more strongly entrenched and more determined to override right and justice than ever.

"Compromise" is another good word that threatens to go wrong.
How could we get along in our daily living without the spirit of compromise? We give and take.
We make sacrifices for the other fellow, and he does the same for us. When our neighbours ask us to go a mile with him, if we fall to go with him twin, as the Bible directs, at least we go a half-mile, and part with a spirit of understanding on both sides.

The person who refuses to compromise with his fellowmen gets to be an outcast.

Compromise is also workable and indeed indispensable among such nations as Canada and United States. These nations have their differences, sometimes pretty difficult to resolve. But basically, such nations are wedded to compromise, and there is small danger that their disputes will ever become irreconcilable. Each is prepared to make sacrifices to prevent an open break.

But is compromise feasible when dealing with a nation like Communist Russia? If Russia, as many people believe, has determined to destroy us, is compromise a useful weapon to use against them?

President Eisenhower is a man who believes strongly in compromise. It was that spirit that made him so outstandingly successful in keeping the Allies together in their fight against Germany. Will this spirit of compromise make him equally successful against the Communists, or are such men as MacArthur, who says "there is no substitute for victory", or Van Fleet who says we can and should utterly defeat the Red Chinese in Korea the best type of men to deal with our present danger? Time, and tomorrow's history books, alone will tell.

The big task of lighting this large new racing centre is being handled by the Summerside firm of In-man's Electric, who are busy installing this powerful lighting system.

The grandstand is being lighted by 200 lights ranging from 100 to 500 watts.

The track proper will be lighted with seventy 1000-watt lights positioned to illuminate the horses in the normal direction in which they race.

At the finish line is a string of seventeen 1500-watt lamps to bri-liantly illuminate the horses, not only for race fans, but also for times when a photo finish is necessary to determine a winner.

The Royals edged the C. and B. Juniors at the airport diamond last evening by the score of 8-7. Jack Kearns relieved Le-rest of the way, pitching masterful ball, and giving up only six hits, but the defence behind him crumpled in the clutch, and the Royals established an 8-3 lead which the Curranties were not able to overcome, though they did get to the hitting Taylor for seven hits and four runs in the eighth and ninth innings. The R.C.A.F. flinger had set them down in order from the third through the sixth inning, and allowed only one man to reach first in the seventh.
