Great Britain's Trade.

A STATISTICAL abstract of Great Britain's trade has lately been published. The foreign commerce of last year foots up to £744,000,000 stg. Of this amount the colonies furnished food and raw materials to the value of £100,000,000, and purchased in the Mother Country £86,000,000 worth of goods; and foreign nations sent in to Great Britain, products to the value of £335,000,000, and purchased in the Mother Country only $161,000,000 worth. The foreigners sent into Great Britain £65,000,000 worth of manufactured articles to take the place of British manufactured articles in the British market; and they obtained in Great Britain £40,000,000 worth of machinery and raw materials to "knock out" the British manufacturer in foreign markets. Under these circumstances it is not wonderful that the adverse balance the foreign trade, amounting to no less than £174,000,000 in one year, is not regarded in Great Britain with feelings of the liveliest satisfaction. The British farmers and others are clamoring about the hard times; and the business men are doing a great deal of hard thinking. At a meeting of farmers in North Nottingham, the other day, a resolution was passed setting forth that the "present fiscal arrangements of the government and the system of free imports are injurious to the agricultural interests"; and it was decided to organize associations of farmers, land-owners and agricultural laborers to urge upon the government the necessity of a change in the commercial policy. The voice of many Boards of Trade throughout the country is also in favor of a change in the direction of fairer trade.

Notes and Comments.

Our North-west Letter of to-day is one of the most interesting of an interesting series. The Empire says that it will not make the Democracy more popular in the States to have Mexicans and Chilians, English free traders and Canadian Grits, all alike rejoicing in Cleveland's victory. Outsiders are counting chickens before the hatching process has ever begun. That is an interesting rumor which states that Lord Rosebery, the British Secretary for Foreign Affairs, has recently been betrothed to the Princess Victoria, the eldest unmarried daughter of the Prince of Wales. No adequate foundation for the report has yet been made evident, but the fact that the Princess Louise, who is the eldest daughter of Albert Edward and Alexandra, married outside of royalty, her husband being the Duke of Fife, lends it a certain plausibility. The advantage of such a union would be distinctly on the side of the royal family. Lord Rosebery, though a young man as years are measured, in British politics, is unquestionably one of the most competent and popular statesmen of the empire. He is probably not inferior as an administrator to Lord Salisbury himself, and his intimate knowledge of European and Asiatic politics is excelled by few living men. An alliance with the brilliant Liberal statesman would strengthen the throne with the British masses. Whether it would be beneficial to Lord Rosebery himself is quite another matter.

A Welcome Movement.

EMIGRANTS FROM THE UNITED STATES COMING INTO CANADA.

A turn in the tide of population moving between Canada and the United States appears to have begun. Hundreds of emigrants from the province of Quebec are reported to have returned. Not that the outward movement has entirely ceased. It is conceivable that a movement both ways, at the same time, may take place, to the mutual benefit of the two countries. The repatriation into Quebec occurs at the same time that a flow of population from the States to our Northwest and British Columbia has set in. A few years ago, before the capacity of the Northwest had been proved, there was a tendency of population to leave Manitoba and the Northwest for the adjoining States. Now the stream runs the other way. The productive power of Manitoba and the Northwest having become known, emigrants will be attracted in increasing numbers. Emigrants from New England and Pennsylvania are reported to be preparing to move to the Canadian Northwest. The rich soil will be taken up rapidly in future; and a movement of population from the south to Canada, which extends along the frontier, more or less, three thousand miles, will soon tell in numbers and the production of wealth. Already it is probable that more people are leaving for that country. The attractions of virgin soil, which have been so great a factor in drawing emigrants to the United States, will henceforth tell in favor of Canada, the surplus lands of the republic having been nearly exhausted.—Monetary Times.

Alone in His Glory.

At ten o'clock this morning an illustration of the result of over-indulgence in liquor was on exhibition at the front entrance of the Provincial Building. The public were greeted at that early hour with a view of the prostrate form of a man speechlessly drunk, lying at full length on the stone floor of the front portico. There he remained until a well-known citizen and good Samaritan came to his relief and vainly endeavored to wake him up to the realities of his situation. Failing in this he laid him out again in as comfortable a position as possible, and as he did so, a wag passing by, repeated the lines,— Slowly and sadly we laid him down, From the field of his fame fresh and gory; We carved not a line, and we raised not a stone. But we left him alone in his glory.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

SPECIAL DESPATCHES TO THE EXAMINER.

Hard Times in England

Opinion [Changing.

LONDON, Nov. 17. The farmers of Great Britain make fresh complaints daily of hard times. They are badly pinched by adverse conditions of trade, and many of them are beginning to turn to fair traders for trade. The protection sentiment has grown steadily among them recently.

Ottawa Notes.

OTTAWA, Nov. 17. An order-in-council has been passed granting $1,600 to Dr. Bergin in full payment of his services as Surgeon-General during the Northwest rebellion. Mr. Speaker White has authorized the statement that there is no foundation for the report that there is any part of the deficit in the Accountant's office of the House of Commons due to overdrawals by members of parliament.

The Denouement.

ST. JOHN, Nov. 17. Word has come from Boston that Miss Randolph and Mr. Day were married on the day after arriving in that city. Miss Randolph is a niece of the Hon. Mr. Randolph, of Fredericton, and Day is a son of Rev. Mr. Day, Baptist minister of Sheffield. The girl is 18 years of age.

Newfoundland Confederation.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17. Sir John Thompson and his two colleagues are here, but the Minister of Justice declined to add anything to the official statement made at the close of the conference. It is generally understood, however, that the Confederation question will be fully gone into when Premier Whitway arrives on Friday next.

Collapse of Building.

MADRID, Nov. 17. News from Bajar, a town 45 miles south of Salamanca, tells of the sudden collapse of a restaurant building in which a wedding party were taking breakfast, and which caused the death of nine persons and the serious injury of thirty others.

A Lively Contest.

ST. JOHN, Nov. 17. The campaign in Queen's County, where Premier Blair is seeking a seat, is very exciting. Mr. Blair has with him Emerson, Commissioner of Public Works, Wilton, ex-M. P. for York, and campaigners from St. John. The Leader of the Opposition is also in the County.

Immorality in Montreal.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17. The Ministerial Association publishes a report upon the moral condition of the city which causes a decided sensation. It proves gambling and immorality to be on the rapid increase, and calls on all citizens to join in the attempt to suppress nuisances and immorality.

Very Doubtful.

MONTREAL, Nov. 17. Strong doubt is thrown on the confession of "Jim," who says it was he and not "Buck" who killed officer Steadman. The circumstantial evidence is all the other way.

Horrible Murder.

BOSTON, Nov. 17. Quizzpe Petana, an Italian in this city last night murdered his two children and then cut his own throat.

General Telegraphic News.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 15.—Thos. F. Gilroy, mayor elect of New York city, in an interview here last night, said Richard Croker would not take the office of collector of New York under any circumstances and is not seeking any other office. Gilroy said Tammany would make no demands on Cleveland. It had done its duty by the party and would be satisfied with whatever recognition Cleveland chose to bestow of his own volition.

WINNIPEG, Sept. 15.—A despatch from Regina says Premier Cayley, of the Northwest assembly, will hand in his resignation as leader of the administration at once now that the election in Wallace has gone against him. Governor Royal will call the house together at once and ex-Premier Haultain will probably again assume control of affairs.

TORONTO, Nov. 15.—The Globe's cable from Liverpool says: "A report received from London complains of the inferior quality of many Canadian apples now arriving. Uneven packing damages prices and is causing a tendency to a want of confidence in Canadian fruit."

KINGSTON, Nov. 15.—Messrs. Northrup, Miller and Wilson, representing East Hastings, Prince Edward and Lennox respectively, have been confirmed in their seats, the petitions against their return having been dropped. All are conservatives.

OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—Normand, one of the original promoters of the Three Rivers dead meat scheme, is here to-day. He says now that Canadian cattle are scheduled and there is a possibility of building up a large export trade in dead meat in Britain, the Three Rivers project will be revived.

HONOLULU is having a Ministerial crisis. Business is said to be very bad, the government almost bankrupt, and the Queen of Hawaii refuses to recognize the opposition majority in the Legislature. So there is a big constitutional and financial row on hand.

Scotland, a Long Time Ago.

Sweet freedom's dear to every Scot; For liberty our father's fought, And with their blood that boon they bought, A long time ago.

And when the battle was begun Though oft beset with two to one, Yet would they rather die than run, A long time ago.

They knelt to heaven, and not to man, Trusting to that and their right hand, Their independence thus they won, A long time ago.

When Roman legions ventured forth To meet the warriors of the north, They halted, then re-crossed the Forth, A long time ago.

When plundering Scandinavia's boar Poured heathen hoards upon our shore, They fell beneath the old claymore A long time ago.

The conquering William came, but here He met a race devoid of fear, Who stayed ambitious bold career, A long time ago.

And in the glorious days of old, When Wallace fought, and Bruce the bold, Backward the Southern forces rolled, A long time ago.

Though haughty Edward looked in scorn Upon the field of Bannockburn, In terror, thence he fled forlorn, A long time ago.

They met the invader's felon hand, With trusty broadswords in their hand, Then freedom smiled o'er all the land, A long time ago.

And ever since, dear freedom dwells Among our lovely hills and dells, Her native home as history tells A long time ago. J. S.

The Boston Herald speaking of Dr. Schurman who on Friday last was inaugurated president of the Cornell University, says: "President Schurman, who is in some respects a self-made man, and who has been trained in the most thorough manner in England and in Europe, is able by his liberal and philosophical studies to add materially to the start which Cornell has made, and to broaden out the foundations already laid. He is the only college president in America who has had a philosophical education, who has been trained to see studies in their relations to one another as parts of the whole of life, and we have a right to expect from him in due time better results at Cornell than have been reached elsewhere." It is only six or seven years since President Schurman left Dalhousie College to take the chair in philosophy in Cornell. He is already recognized as one of the leading men in university work in America. He is still a young man, probably under forty, and has perhaps finer opportunities to influence college work in the United States than any other man in the republic.
