

EDITORIAL

Hello and welcome back! You are going to get a lot of welcomes in this issue, we'll get them all over with at once. I know that most people don't bother to read editorial columns, but I'll write it anyway. You never know!

I guess I am supposed to say something witty and enlightening but since I can't think of anything like that, I guess I will just say what is on my mind. As some of you may know, I was editor of the Sun last year also. I would like to take this opportunity to apologise, for as many people so willingly pointed out - it wasn't to great. Well, I realize that. But, hopefully, if some of those people would be willing to spend some time working with us, I'm sure we could improve the quality of the paper dramatically. And we could probably have a good time doing it.

We are starting fresh this year with a new, enthusiastic student union. We are hoping to start anew with the paper also. We have a good number of new ideas we are going to try out and we would greatly appreciate any help you can give.

Contrary to popular opinion, working on a student newspaper can be fun and rewarding. *Note to the frosh - it is a great way to meet people. Plus, it really looks good on a resume'.

Presently we are in hopes of moving the newspaper office from the lofty heights of 4th floor Main to another, as yet undetermined location. We are also going to type the articles, which will hopefully cut down on errors and give it a more professional look. Now all we need is articles to put in it. This is where you come in. We need all kinds of material for the paper ranging from news to band reviews to crossword puzzles. The possibilities are endless.

If you aren't interested in writing, you can still help with layouts, design, and planning. Don't worry if you don't know how to do it, we will show you, (or, if you do know how, you can show us!).

Last year, Radio CIMN got a much needed boost and evolved into a quality radio station. With your help we will turn this paper into something we all can enjoy and be proud of. CIMN did not improve by money alone. It took patience and an enthusiastic staff to make the needed changes. This year we have sufficient funds so all it will take is a small effort on your part and ... look out Globe and Mail!

We will soon be having a meeting for everyone who is interested in joining the staff. So, come on over and get involved and if you have any friends bring them along too. (Discount rates for families! * Note to the Frosh - IF you work on the paper you get a year's free subscription!)

Once again, welcome back. I hope you have a good year and help us to have one too.

P.S. - Dana and Stephen, I'll be at the lounge soon, looking forward to seeing you under the next table.
