

A Harvest Hymn.

"Praise ye the Lord."

Giver of good, to Thee we raise Our loud, united song of praise! From Thee have come the sun and rain, From Thee the fields of golden grain: Our lips declare Thy gracious care As autumn brings Thy gifts again.

Oh, may Thy burdened sheaves that yield Food from the glorious harvest field Tell us of treasures that appear, New from Thy Hand each circling year; The gifts we see, So fresh and free, How can we harbor doubt or fear? Father, we pray Thee still to bless, Be Thou our shield from all excess; Enriched in basket and in store, With grateful hearts we'll sing and soar, And daily lone With nobler song In heaven to praise for evermore.

Uncle Essek's Wisdom.

A fool may possibly amuse others but he cant amuse himself. Nature makes her own laws, but can't break one if she tries. The ridiculous side of life goes far toward making it endurable. Economy is a kind of natural wealth; it is money ever at interest. We got our vices from each other, but our virtues by cultivation. Don't mistake a stupidity for patience: the humility of wisdom. Beware of the man of a few words; he always has something in reserve. Take all the fun out of the world and every pound of life would weigh ten. What the world wants just now is less civilization and more of the virtues.

To give so as to bestow a favor and not create an obligation is a delicate art. The great art in getting rich is not in saving money, but knowing how to spend it. Any one may commit a blunder, but no one but a fool is bit twice by the same dog. A peacock's pedigree is all in the spread of his tail; a wet day takes the glory of it. Reform! it is the battle cry of civilization—reform for others, immunity for ourselves. Lies are like certain horses; they can travel further in one day, than they can get back in two. Experience costs more than it is worth, but most people refuse to learn at any less price. Religion is most excellent to mix business, but to mix business with religion is not safe. Advice, just at present, is the greatest drug in the market: the supply has ruined the demand. The man whom idleness does not lead into mischief is either a very pure or very stupid one. Men are very vain of their opinions, and yet their is scarcely any two of them who think alike. Condensation is almost omnipotent, single words are autocrats, and a sentence is law for all mankind. Beware of the man who listens much and talks little; he is getting your thunder and saving his own lightning. Truth can travel to the end of the earth all alone, but a lie must have company to keep up its courage. A suit of clothes that fits a man perfectly is worth more to him than a pedigree that fits him indifferently. You can buy a dog for two dollars and a half, but there isn't money enough in the world to buy the wag of his tail. Wisdom without learning is like a sword without a handle, and learning without wisdom is like a handle without a sword. The more ideas a man has got the fewer words he takes to express them. Wise men never talk to make time; they talk to save it. There is a great deal of intellectual activity that is nothing better than idle curiosity; like the fly, its only ambition is to buzz and get into things. The poor are more extravagant than the rich, and this is just what keeps them poor: for the sake of one feast they are willing to starve three days.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trilling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay. A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed eight or nine hours without sleep. The doctor gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Croup.—A Mother's Tribute. "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried, in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, Mrs. EMMA GEDNEY, 150 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried." A. J. CRANE, Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882. "I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN, Byhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882. "I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles." E. BRADGON, Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine. PREPARED BY Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists.

CUT THIS OUT and return it to us with 10c or 4 3/4 stamps, and you'll get by return mail a Golden Box of Goods that will bring you in more money in one month than anything else in America. Your fortune if you start quick—CITY NOVELTY CO., Vermont, N. S. may 1.
