L. E. Britton has very kindly sent us the following horse news from Woodstock, for which we are very grateful . . . "The Parlor Track on beautiful Island Park at Woodstock, N.B. is certainly a busy spot, with between 30 and 40 horses being trained there, with the track in very good shape and the horses all getting ready for the first race; a matinee on June 5th, Billy Hood, or "Hoody" has a very fast string of horses; Private George 2.02, June Morning 2.09 2-5, Tabb Hanover 2.02 1-4. These three are owned by Simonson Bros. of Bridgewater, Maine. Also Tanner Hanover 2.14, Brutus Scott 2.05 2-5, Queoney Chief 2.06 and the colts Bona Boy and Gloria Budlong; Argot Pointer 2.09 1-5, Whizaway 2.10, Bona Bell and another two-year-old by His Royal Majesty. "Bob" Brown is training his own three, Indiana Boy 2.05 2-5, Chris McElwyn 2.12 and Seaforth 2.13 2-5. Johnny McManus is helping him. The genial track secretary, J. H. Flemming, Juniper, N.B., Connie Clegg 2.16 1-5 and Laurie Lee, owned by L. E. and Mrs. Britton of Hartland, with the writer around and in the way asking questions."

A new track record for half-mile trotting was set up at Springhill, May 24th when Jennie Kalmuck won the second heat in 1.06. Cochato Princess holds the pacing record for the half mile made on May 24th, 1946, when she won the second heat in 1.04 1-4. The trotting record for the mile, 2:11, is still held by Tracey Hanover. It was set on September 3rd, 1946, and the pacing record of 2:11 is held by Wilkin. It was made July 24th, 1948. A claim has been made that the races which took place on May 24th at Springhill, started at 2:00 p.m. and finished at 4:15, thus constituting a record for nine heats racing. It was in the ninth heat that Jennie Kalmuck lowered the track record for the half mile trotting. On June 10th horse races will be held at Victoria Park, Springhill. They will be the first twilight races ever held in Springhill and will start at 6:00 p.m.

We were greatly pleased to have a visit from W. Annett, manager of the Bank of Toronto, Caspe, P.Q., who has been recuperating from a severe illness for the past several months in Florida and southern states. Mr. Annett is a very keen horseman who really loves the sport, knows horses well and has assisted greatly in the promotion of harness racing in Caspe and vicinity. We expect to see him back here for Goodwill race meet in September.

The Charlottetown track is rapidly filling up with horses and judging by the number being trained here and elsewhere in the Province the night racing program which starts June 17th will have a full entry list and some over. The fastest mile to date in the Province was Lee Brewer's trip in 2:15. Lee and two other members of Emmett Bernard's string are stabled at the track and Emmett's routine with Lee is a jaunt on the sands of the seashore, then a trip around the country the next day and just give him an occasional look at the track. To see if he liked the going there Emmett turned him around and gave him his head and found that he was being pulled a two-minute shot, but with all the power of restraint he could exercise he could not get him to complete the mile slower than 2:15. The old boy looks in the pink, we have never seen him better and he can trot a storm.

Our friend C. H. McGinley, Houlton, Maine, sends us photos of fillies by Federal, purchased recently. They are certainly beautifully developed and racy looking. Also enclosed was the list of nominations for early closing events Maine State Raceways Old Orchard, Gorham, Lewiston. In the 2:17 pace, July 14th, we notice June Morning by Calumet Budlong, is entered, also Janet Dale by Playdale. In the 2:19 pace July 7th, purse $1,000, Mary Merk, owned by Earle Semple and Harold Cudmore, is entered. In the Three Year Old and 2:25 class trot, July 10th, purse $1,000, Kay Budlong, owned by Dr. L. Roy Johnston, Greenfield, Mass. is entered, also Range Hawk by Calumet, is entered, 2:15 pace, purse $1,000, July 11th, Janet Dale by Playdale, Colonel Dan by Calumet Fingo, June Morning by Calumet Budlong are entered. In the 2:19 pace, July 13, purse $1,000, Mary Merk is entered, also Lucky Spencer. In the 2:24 trot, July 17, purse $1,000, Kay Budlong and Range Hawk are entered. In the 2:15 pace, purse $1,000, July 18, June Morning, Janet Dale and Colonel Dan are entered and in the 2:19 pace, July 19th, Purse $1,000, Jessie Direct 2, owned by C. Earle Semple, and Lucky Spencer, owned by McGee and Snow, are entered. In the 2:24 pace, purse $1,000, July 22, Mary Merk and Early Dawn by Playdale, are entered. Early Dawn was bought from Lester Johnston, Fortune. Mary Merk and Early Dawn are also entered in the 2:24 pace July 26, purse $1,000. Mary Merk and Early Dawn are also entered in the 2:24 pace August 9th.

Mr. McGinley writes . . . "The first racing of the 1950 season in this locality will be at Woodstock, June 5th, when the horses there will stage a matinee and on June 29th they will hold races with four classes. Houlton, Maine, will put on a race meet July 4th, and will have four classes with total purses of $1,500. There will be no Free For All but probably a Junior Free For All. Other classes will probably be a 2:19, 2:23 and 2:27, or whatever will fit the majority of the horses ready to start.

"Personally I plan to go then to Old Orchard for a couple of weeks, then back to Woodstock, Presque Isle, Bangor, Skowhegan, Lewiston and afterwards possibly to Foxboro, and remain there for the balance of the season if the horses stay sound. We did very well there with Colonel Dan last year and with a single dash you can race a horse twice a week without hurting him. I am training my problem child Sudden Mary 3, 2:13 3-5 myself and doing nicely with her. Her full brother, Mr. Dale 2.04 4-5, was a good winner and her half sister Sudden Chief 2.05, won over twenty dashes last year. A younger half brother, True Bert 2, 2:15, was timed in 2:12. I am pleased to see that Joe O'Brien is doing so well with Brewer's Galton. I was present when he was sold at Harrisburg and some chaps at the ringside knocked him, stating that he wouldn't do, but he has come through splendidly. . . . Thanks, Cecil, for remembering us."

the young of game and song birds. A crow shot in the morning and carried in a sack in the back of a car all day in heat like we have experienced recently doesn't smell much like a rose when dumped out in the evening, and I can think of more enticing jobs than dissecting their back carcasses.

Ring-necked ducks show a substantial increase over last season and have spread over a much larger area. Several pairs of Pintail ducks have been observed. This species breeds extensively on the Midgie Marsh in New Brunswick but to date no breeding records have been found for this province.

Predators take a considerable toll from the ranks of our game birds. During the course of our rambles we found where five ducks had been killed and eaten. Three were black ducks. One was doubtful but may have been a merganser. The fifth, found along the shore of Howe Bay, was a merganser. The work of the Great horned owl was evident in four of the kills.

It was hot work and the fine red dust was an ever present companion. The car reeked with it and the alders and spruce along the watercourses were drenched in it. By evening we resembled Red Indians. Nevertheless we had a lot of fun. I chuckle yet over one amusing incident.

Early Wednesday morning Ralph decided it was time to pick up a few crows and extract their stomachs. We drove back into the interior along the St. Catherine road. Coming to a likely looking spot along the edge of a thick growth of spruce beside a grown over hayfield we parked the car out of sight and got out the owl decoy. Ralph was elected as crow caller and hid himself in the dense spruce a few feet from the field's edge. I sat on the sidelines in a position to watch the fun.

Soon I heard an exhibition of crow calling in all its different tones. It sounded at times like a crow fight in six different languages. After each blast he'd wait a few minutes to see what turned up. During a lull in the music I spotted a black and white Collie dog approaching very cautiously. He sneaked through the short bushes in the field and then turned north along the edge of the spruce. He wasn't feeling at ease . . . far from it. The hackles on his back were raised and he placed each foot down as if he were walking on eggs.

His whole attitude was indicative of what he was thinking: "I know I shouldn't be here but I must find out what's making this noise . . . I never heard anything like it before". He was directly opposite my hidden friend when a burst of crow language blared in his ear. I don't know who got the biggest scare . . . the crow caller or the collie. The dog turned a complete back flip, let out a roar that was half howl and half yelp and headed across the field like a streak. My companion ran the dog a close second in his reaction and for a few minutes there was a sulphurous taint in the air. A crow that was coming to investigate what was up left the scene as hurriedly as the dog.

Now don't get me wrong. My partner can call crows and not
