Stetson-Kennedy Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Cavendish United Church on Wednesday afternoon, June 20th, when Miss Jean Kennedy, O'Leary, became the bride of Mr. Clayton Stetson, also of O'Leary. The bridesmaid was Miss E. Cameron, Charlotteville, while Mr. Errol Stetson, brother of the groom, was best man. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George Gough, Cavendish, former minister of the O'Leary United Church from 1937 to 1947. The bride was dressed in a beautiful wedding dress of white satin with accessories to match and carried a pretty bouquet. She was given in marriage by her brother, Forbes Kennedy of Charlottetown. A buffet lunch was served at the Manse by the Misses Marjorie Ellis and Jean Stetson of O'Leary. The popular young couple left on a honeymoon trip through the Maritimes. On their return they reside at Unionville, two miles from O'Leary, where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Before her marriage the bride was or the staff of Jelly's Dept. Store in Charlottetown. They have the good wishes of many friends for a long and happy wedded life.

MacNeill-Harris-Wedding

One of the prettiest of the summer's weddings was solemnized Wednesday afternoon, June 20th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harris, O'Leary, when their daughter, Lorna Mae, became the bride of Mr. Otis William MacNeill, O'Leary, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis MacNeill. The bridesmaid was Miss Audrey Harris. The little flower girl was Olive Harris, sister of the bride, while the best man was the brother of the groom, Harold MacNeill. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. C. O. Howlett, who was assisted by Rev. W. G. Dickson. The wedding was performed under a beautiful arch on the lovely lawn. The bride looked the picture of girlish loveliness in a wedding dress of white satin. She carried a bouquet of red roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Audrey Harris, had a dress of yellow taffeta and carried a bouquet of red roses. The little flower girl was gowned in rose taffeta. The wedding march was played by Mrs. William Megison. During the signing of the register Lorna Harris sang very feelingly, "I Love You Truly". A reception was held at the bride's home. Pouring were: Mrs.

Joseph Bradley, aunt of the bride, of Red Mill, Quebec, and Mrs. Jack Foley, aunt of the groom, of Bloomfield. Serving were the following young ladies, Joyce McIsaac, Myrna Buchanan, Hester Boates, Florence MacNeill, Lorraine MacNeill, Thelma McNevin, and Mrs. Therin Ellis. For her going away outfit the bride wore a navy blue suit with white accessories and a corsage of red roses. The happy young couple left on a wedding trip to the New England States and on their return they will reside in Unionville where the groom is a prosperous farmer. Before her marriage the bride was a valued member of the staff of Turner & McWilliam, Ltd., O'Leary. They have the good wishes of a multitude of friends for a long and happy wedded life.
