ST. STEPHEN'S W. A.—The July meeting of St. Stephen's Women's Auxiliary was held in the church on Tuesday evening with an attendance of nine members and one visitor. The vice-president, Mrs. William J. Profit presided and led in the devotional period. The meeting went on record as being in favour of holding an ice cream social under the auspices of St. Stephen's Church, in Brishtown Hall, early in August. Several members who attended, reported on the semi-annual meetings at Milton. It was decided that material for a white dress costume be made up as soon as possible. On the program was a reading "How the Gates Came Along" by Mrs. W. Paynter, a devotional reading by Mrs. A. Campbell and poetry from the pen of John Robert Lamont-Campbell read by Mrs. Leigh Paynter. The members were invited to meet in August at the home of Mrs. Harry Sudsbury, if convenient, when clothing and hats are to be taken for Inverness Meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.—Bur.

BRIDE-TO-BE SHOWED—On Thursday evening, June 21st, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh MacEwen opened their home to a large number of friends and relatives of Miss Kathryn Mayhew, to tender her a shower in honor of her approaching marriage. The rooms were gaily decorated with bouquets of spring flowers. To the strains of the Wedding March, played by Miss Mary Kaye Mayhew, the bride was escorted to a decorated chair under an arch of green and white, by Miss Shirley McKay. Misses Audrey Mayhew and Ruth MacEwen brought in a well laden basket, several times filled with parcels which were opened by Misses Eleanor Stewart and Nettie MacEwen. Mrs. Lorne Campbell and Mrs. Alex Douglas read the accompanying verses and good wishes, while Miss Jean Carr and Mrs. Ralph Heckbert arranged the gifts. The bride in a pretty little dress thanked her friends for their gifts and wishes, for Mr. and Mrs. MacEwen for their hospitality. The remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse. After a delicious lunch served by the hostess, all departed after wishing the bride-to-be many years of happiness.—Bur.

Poisoner Kills Seven Dogs

Residents of the Wilcox lake area, in Ontario, blame an unnamed woman for the poisoning of six dogs within the last few days. Parents are worried that children may pick up candy or meat put out by the poisoner, but fear to name the person suspected until proof can be obtained. Ronnie and Joan Walker now have seven week-old puppies to care for as their mother, a black cocker spaniel, was one of the dogs poisoned.
