

FIRST HURRICANE OF THE YEAR

The northern cloud mass of the Hurricane Alma—first tropical storm of 1966—began to shroud the southern tip of the Florida peninsula in this view, photographed at 12:34 P.M., E.D.T., by NASA's Nimbus-II weather satellite. The view was recorded from an altitude of 700 miles and received at the Goddard Space Flight Center in Greenbelt, Md. Most of the state of Florida, much of the Gulf of Mexico, and the southeastern U.S. coastline is discernible. (NAST Photo via AP Wirephoto)

Volvo Says In N.S. To Stay; Business Expansion Planned

By JOHN SOOSAR. HALIFAX (CP)—We are here to stay. Not only to stay but to expand. With these words, Karl Kohler, president of Volvo (Canada) Ltd., last week dispelled doubts about the company's future in Nova Scotia and announced plans for construction of a new $1,000,000 assembly plant on the Halifax waterfront.

Sask. Youth Forced To Join American Army

WOLSELEY, Sask. (CP)—Harry Scriver, publisher of the weekly Wolseley News, said a Saskatchewan youth has been forced to join the United States Army.

Mr. Scriver said that Albert Felner, 23, now is at Fort Ord, Calif., after being put in jail at Pleasantwood, Mont., where Felner entered the U.S. to visit a friend.

Mr. Scriver said Felner was released after his girl friend's father put up $2,500 bail. Mr. Scriver added that Felner was charged with desertion, the bail kept and Felner given three days to report for duty with the U.S. Army.

Creditist MP Raymond Langlois told the House of Commons Friday the United States is shanghaiing Canadian youths who cross the border on work-er's visas.

FREE PRISONERS. CAPE TOWN (Reuters)—South Africa Monday released the first batch of the approximately 10,000 prisoners to be freed under a government amnesty granted to celebrate South Africa's fifth anniversary as a republic. It applies mainly to short-term prisoners, but does not extend to political prisoners or anyone whose early release would be considered in the public interest.

RETIREMENT BRINGS COW

LONDON (AP)—Some men get a gold watch when they retire. Not Albert Short. He already had a gold watch.

So when he retired his fellow workers presented him with a cow.

Albert G., a district engineer with the Metropolitan Water Board, said he couldn't have had a better gift. It was a bit of an office joke, the way Albert talked about retiring to his three-acre farm.

So his 20 co-workers took up a collection, raised $324 and bought Daisy, a gentle-eyed Guernsey from a farm in Surrey.

Daisy was brought by her owner to the Metropolitan Water Board offices in London's Hammer Smith section. There with all due ceremony, she was presented to her new owner.

Dartmouth Mayor Joseph Zaitman, who with Industrial Estates initially negotiated to have the company remain in his city, took the Volvo announcement with "regret" but added that the city was pleased the plant would remain in the area.

He said that during negotiations with Dartmouth, the company was unwilling to commit itself to a 10-year or even a five-year lease which would have given the city reason to construct a pier and facilities the company was seeking.

HAS DONE WELL. Volvo has made its mark in Canada since setting in 1963 as the first European car-assemble plant in North America.

Its Canadian sales have kept pace with annual increases in production and this year some 400 units have been exported to the United States under the Canada-U.S. automotive trade agreement.

This year the expected output is almost 4,000 units, four times the number assembled in 1963. The new plant, which will
