LAUNCHED, from the shipyard of J. R. Bourke, Esq., Mt. Stewart, on the 26th inst., a well finished brigantine of 200 tons, classed A1 9 years at Lloyds, and called the "Lottie Belle." She was towed to the city on Monday and is now loading Lobsters for the London market by Mr. John Hughes, of this city.

DOMINION DAY.—Don't forget to take advantage of the excursion to West River tomorrow on board the "Southport." The sail to those who seek health and pleasure will be delightful. The "Southport" leaves Ferry Wharf at 10 a. m., and again at 2 p. m., returning in the evening. There will be abundance of temperance drinks for the thirsty and food for the hungry provided for all those who attend. Fare on boat 25 cents. Children 12 cents.

AMONG the arrivals from sea last evening was the little yacht "Wavelet." This pretty little boat came from Pictou; and, her owner informs us, is to be sold here. She was modeled by J. E. Butler, of Halifax, whose "Hebe" is celebrated for her speed, and having sailed scores of races, and, if we are correctly informed, never been beaten. Yachts from Butler's models are this year being built on the Bay of Fundy, and River John. The "Wavelet" is a splendid sea boat, and during yesterday's gale did not ship five gallons of water, in coming from Pictou. The boat will be an ornament to our harbor.

THE steamer "Worcester" arrived from Boston on Tuesday evening, with freights and the following passengers: Colonel Parker, Mr. Dana Parks, Messrs Matthews, (2) Mr. O. Smith, Mrs. Hewlett, Miss Bella Howlett, Mrs. Hamlin, Miss C. McLennan, Miss P. McLennan, Miss Mary McDonald, Mrs. A. Richards, Miss Corrigan, Sarah E. Usher, Annie McFarlane, Mr. W. England, D. H. McKay, Mr. J. M. Dalton and family, Mrs. Chas. Hazelbrook, Mrs. Fleming, Mr. Peter Nowell, Mrs. Glover, Thomas Gay, Mrs. Jessie Ford, Miss Lizzie Weatherbie, Miss Flora McPherson, Miss Mary Ross, Mr. Charles Martin and wife, Mr. W. A. Wheeler, Wm. Christopher, Andrew White, M. McCormack, P. Began.

CHARLES READ, a man close on his eightieth year, made application to the Premier yesterday forenoon for money to defray his expenses to Halifax. Read, when nineteen years of age, was drafted into the British army, at Edinburgh, and was in active service for twenty-one years—holding at one time the position of assistant Sergeant-Major, in the 101st battalion of the Royal Regiment. Since his discharge from the army he worked in the United States and Canada, coming recently to this Province, where he met with an accident which prevents him from work. He thinks he will enlist the sympathy of the military authorities in Halifax and be supported. The Premier furnished him with a ticket to Halifax and a sum sufficient to defray his expenses thither.

THE CONCERT THIS EVENING.—As will be seen by the following programme the concert in the Convent de Notre Dame, this evening, at 8 o'clock, will be one of the grandest musical entertainments ever given in the city. The programme has been excellently arranged, the pieces have been admirably selected, and the performers have been diligently practising for the past month. COMFORT ON THE DEEP.—"THE BRUNSWICK BERTH."—We had the pleasure of witnessing the working of the "Brunswick Berth," on board the steamer Worcester to-day. It is, without doubt, an ingenious piece of ship furniture, and reflects great credit on the patentee. Our friend, Mr. Sawyer, who had experience with it during the passage of the Worcester to this city, pronounces it a great success, and he feels confident that it will shortly be adopted by all prominent steamship lines. The berth is represented by Mr. Dana Parks, of Boston, who is ably assisted by Col. Parker. If it meets with the success it deserves it will easily develop into a "big banana."
