

LABOUR DAY

Sports Meet Slated For September 7th

The Charlottetown Trades and Labour Council, through the co-operation of the Department of Physical Fitness, will stage a Labour Day sports meet this year at Charlottetown's Memorial Field.

Events will be restricted so as to provide entertainment and recreation for all ages and sizes. There will also be an open sports meet in connection with this meet to try to stimulate more active participation by local youngsters in track and field.

Suitable awards will be made to the individual and groups collecting the greatest number of points, and information regarding any part of the program or events can be obtained from Brierley W.W. Reid or Jack 'Spy' Ready. Should any group in the City have a tug of war team or should anyone wish to participate in this meet they are asked to contact the above named gentlemen.

Following are the various events being on the meet: tug of war; standing broad jump; running broad jump; shot put; high jump; 50-yard dash (veterans) over 40 years; 100 yard dash; 440 yard relay (4 members to a team). In the open event (open to any individual wishing to participate) the following events will be staged: broad jump; high jump; hop-step-and-jump; javelin throw; discus throw; hammer throw; shot put; 100-yard dash; 440-yard dash; 1-mile run; 5-mile road race; bike race (1-mile).

REMEMBER WHEN... Canada's first "Powder Puff Derby," a horse race featuring women jockeys, drew Calgary's biggest race crowd in eight years at Chinook Park 19 years ago today. Mrs. D. K. Yorlath piloted Fairmain to the front in a stretch drive before 4,300 people and won a trip to California to represent Canada in the Coronada Town Plate, North America's premier race for women jockeys.

Independence Is Demanded

GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (Reuters)—A majority of the 20-man legislative council of this British colony have demanded immediate independence in a report on the colony's constitution, it was learned Monday.

The colony's previous constitution was suspended in 1953, following charges of Communist subversion within the People's Progressive party government. A constitutional committee, made up of all members of the legislative, was established in 1954 to make recommendations on a new constitution.

The People's Progressive party still has a majority among elected members of the legislative council. The committee majority called for a single chamber legislature, control of the police by the cabinet and retention of the present voting system. A minority group wanted full internal self-government, a two-chamber legislature and a proportional representation voting system.

5 Climbers Die In Falls

BERCHTESGADEN, Germany (AP)—At least five German mountain climbers died in accidents during the weekend.

A 19-year-old girl from Garmisch-Partenkirchen grasped at a stone while descending a peak in the Karwendel Mountains Sunday and fell several hundred yards.

Two men, an experienced climber and a soldier, were killed Sunday on the Little Waltzmann peak near Berchtesgaden.

INTERMEDIATE CHAMPIONS

The Summerside Intermediate team (above) will represent the Island in the forthcoming playoffs against New Brunswick in their quest toward a Maritime championship. As yet it is not known which team they will first compete against although the play-off schedule requires that they be ready to meet the New Brunswick winner by September 12th. The Summerside team was unopposed on the Island this year and recently completed an exhibition best-of-seven series with the Summerside Junior Pontiacs. The intermediates took the seventh and deciding contest Saturday afternoon at Queen Elizabeth Park by a close 2-7 score. (Front L to R.) Benny Grady (coach); Dee Lefurgy (p); Coke Grady (ss); Gord Grady (1st.); Pete Green (c); (Rear) Dave Brophy (3rd.); Henry Gallant (lf); Johnny Whelan (rf); Joe Dalton (cf); Donnie Simmons (2nd); Alan Stewart (pitcher and coach).

White Sox Top Yanks 4-2; Orioles Whitewash Tigers

By THE CANADIAN PRESS Luis Aparicio's dare-devil antics on the basepaths and clutch relief pitching by Turk Lougan helped Chicago White Sox carve a 4-2 win over New York Yankees in one of only two scheduled American League baseball games Monday.

The other contest saw Gus Triandos belt two home runs and a pair of singles to drive in seven of Baltimore's runs in an 11-0 wallop of Detroit Tigers.

Three National League games were scheduled at night: Los Angeles at Philadelphia, San Francisco at Pittsburgh and Chicago at Milwaukee.

Landis' infield hit. The two thefts gave Aparicio a major league leading total of 42 out of 32 attempts.

Moore, who was credited with his third victory against six losses, had a 3-1 lead going into the sixth when he became wild. With one out, he walked Tony Kubek and Mickey Mantle and after Yogi Berra fouled out, Elston Howard beat out an infield hit to load the bases. Hector Lopez walked to force in a run. Lowe came in and made pinch-batter Norm Siebern fly out to end the inning.

TAKE EARLY LEAD Chicago took a 1-0 lead in the first on a walk and singles by Billy Goodman and Norm Cash. But the Yankees tied it in the third on Cletus Boyer's single.

AParicio opened the third inning with a pop fly which fell for a double when Boyer lost it in the sun and scored on Landis' single.

Another Chicago run scored in the fifth when Landis singled with two out and romped home on a double by Sherman Lollar.

LENGTHEN LEAD At Chicago, the win enabled the Sox to boost their AL lead over idle Cleveland to two games.

Low pulled starter Ray Moore out of a jam in the sixth inning and then blanked the New York Yankees in two runs on a pair of singles and scored another.

Triandos singled and drove in a run in the third inning, hit a grand slam home run in the fourth, hit a two-run homer in the sixth, and added a single in the eighth before leaving the game.

But it was Aparicio who had the crowd of 21,923 cheering and roaring in the seventh inning when he led off with a walk, stole second, stole third and scored on Walt Dropp rapped out four hits for the Orioles, who slipped back into fourth place ahead of the Tigers with the victory. Brooks Robinson and Bob Niekro had three hits each.

Triandos knocked out two of Detroit's five pitchers, his third in a single routing starter Don Mossi and his grand slammer sending Ray Narleski to the showers.

AParicio opened the third inning with a pop fly which fell for a double when Boyer lost it in the sun and scored on Landis' single.

Another Chicago run scored in the fifth when Landis singled with two out and romped home on a double by Sherman Lollar.

Triandos singled and drove in a run in the third inning, hit a grand slam home run in the fourth, hit a two-run homer in the sixth, and added a single in the eighth before leaving the game.

Big Daily Double Features Local Nine-Dash Program

Highlighting last evening's eight dash card at the Charlottetown Driving Park was the $150.80 daily double. A combination ticket of Nellie Bangs and Tommy Shanter paid this handsome sum. A win ticket on Nellie Bangs returned $12.80 and a ticket on Tommy Shanter paid $18.

Stalag Hanoover, an unpredictable 5-year-old brown horse owned by Col. Dan MacKinnon and piloted by Emmett Bernard, captured the second dash of the AA Trot in 2:08.4 in the fastest mile of the night. The horse was sixth in 2:11 in the first dash of the feature event.

Other winners were: Tribune, Here Am I, Nellie Bangs, Sandy Yorkie, Tommy Shanter and Windy June.

In the second dash of the night which Nellie Bangs won in 2:20, five drivers were set down for two days on the Island circuit for unsatisfactory driving and lack of effort. They were Joe Hennessey, S. White, R. White, Frank Callbeck and Oliver Poulton.

Two winners on the card took new marks, Royal Train winning the third dash took a mark of 2:13.2 and Here Am I lowered his mark to 2:10.4 in the fifth dash.

In the final dash McGee Volo, piloted by Lorne Hennessey, dropped on the back stretch but neither driver nor horse were injured.

The quinella on the fourth dash paid $50.90, the exactor returned $44.90. The second double paid $14.00. Stalag Hanoover in the final dash paid $11.10 to win.

SUMMARY DASHES 1 AND 5 Tribune (C. Smith) 1 2 Here Am I (L. Neill) 4 1 Jolly Dick (H. Poulton) 2 5 Beware (L. Walsh) 3 4 Sky Prince (J. Hennessey) 5 3 Vivien (M. A. Burbine) 6 6 Mr. Jollicott (D. Hill) 7 7m Times: 2:11; 2:10.4.

Mr. Rock owned by C. J. Walker, Dartmouth; Stalag Hanoover owned by Col. D. A. MacKinnon, Charlottetown.

STAN MUSIAL, the St. Louis Cardinals' great who is probably playing his last season in the big time, thinks that the major reason for the demise of the Pittsburgh Pirates as a bona fide pennant contender was the trade involving home run slugger Frank Thomas.

Says Stan the Man: "I said last spring that the Pirates would miss Frank Thomas' bat. You just don't give up 35 homers and 109 runs batted in without feeling the effect. One man, Dick Stuart, can't carry the load. You can pitch around one home run hitter, but if you had Thomas and Stuart hitting together, they'd scare pitchers."

"I thought the Pirates made a mistake when they tinkered around with a team that finished second last year. I thought it was a good, solid team and, when you're successful, why bother with it? If they had finished sixth or seventh they wouldn't have had much to lose by making changes."

ARCHIE MOORE still believes that someday he will wear the crown of the heavyweight champion of the world.

In a penetrating interview with Montreal Star's Red Fisher Archie laid his beliefs on the line.

Referring to his earlier fight with Floyd Patterson Moore said: "You don't have to remind me I was terrible. But looking back on it, my only excuse was that I was overtrained. I went into the ring with no resistance to punches. Maybe he was lucky but I thought he caught me a good one."

"Do you think I feel good about it," he said. "I let a lot of people down. He was only a kid who had't been anybody, and I let him knock out the old man. But I'm not worried about Patterson any more. I could put him away easily."

"I wouldn't have any trouble with the other guy (Ingemar Johansson) too. ...Let's face it. The only way he got Patterson was to make him come in. That's the only way Patterson can fight. He has to go after his man and start a flurry of punches."

"Johansson would make me come in at him too, but only up to a point. I'd come in just so far and then I'd start using my left jab. I can hurt him with my jab and I can put him away with my right hand. He liked Patterson's style. He won't like mine."

STAN MUSIAL, the St. Louis Cardinals' great who is probably playing his last season in the big time, thinks that the major reason for the demise of the Pittsburgh Pirates as a bona fide pennant contender was the trade involving home run slugger Frank Thomas.

Says Stan the Man: "I said last spring that the Pirates would miss Frank Thomas' bat. You just don't give up 35 homers and 109 runs batted in without feeling the effect. One man, Dick Stuart, can't carry the load. You can pitch around one home run hitter, but if you had Thomas and Stuart hitting together, they'd scare pitchers."

"I thought the Pirates made a mistake when they tinkered around with a team that finished second last year. I thought it was a good, solid team and, when you're successful, why bother with it? If they had finished sixth or seventh they wouldn't have had much to lose by making changes."

STAN MUSIAL, the St. Louis Cardinals' great who is probably playing his last season in the big time, thinks that the major reason for the demise of the Pittsburgh Pirates as a bona fide pennant contender was the trade involving home run slugger Frank Thomas.

Says Stan the Man: "I said last spring that the Pirates would miss Frank Thomas' bat. You just don't give up 35 homers and 109 runs batted in without feeling the effect. One man, Dick Stuart, can't carry the load. You can pitch around one home run hitter, but if you had Thomas and Stuart hitting together, they'd scare pitchers."

"I thought the Pirates made a mistake when they tinkered around with a team that finished second last year. I thought it was a good, solid team and, when you're successful, why bother with it? If they had finished sixth or seventh they wouldn't have had much to lose by making changes."

STAN MUSIAL, the St. Louis Cardinals' great who is probably playing his last season in the big time, thinks that the major reason for the demise of the Pittsburgh Pirates as a bona fide pennant contender was the trade involving home run slugger Frank Thomas.

Says Stan the Man: "I said last spring that the Pirates would miss Frank Thomas' bat. You just don't give up 35 homers and 109 runs batted in without feeling the effect. One man, Dick Stuart, can't carry the load. You can pitch around one home run hitter, but if you had Thomas and Stuart hitting together, they'd scare pitchers."

"I thought the Pirates made a mistake when they tinkered around with a team that finished second last year. I thought it was a good, solid team and, when you're successful, why bother with it? If they had finished sixth or seventh they wouldn't have had much to lose by making changes."

STAN MUSIAL, the St. Louis Cardinals' great who is probably playing his last season in the big time, thinks that the major reason for the demise of the Pittsburgh Pirates as a bona fide pennant contender was the trade involving home run slugger Frank Thomas.

Says Stan the Man: "I said last spring that the Pirates would miss Frank Thomas' bat. You just don't give up 35 homers and 109 runs batted in without feeling the effect. One man, Dick Stuart, can't carry the load. You can pitch around one home run hitter, but if you had Thomas and Stuart hitting together, they'd scare pitchers."

"I thought the Pirates made a mistake when they tinkered around with a team that finished second last year. I thought it was a good, solid team and, when you're successful, why bother with it? If they had finished sixth or seventh they wouldn't have had much to lose by making changes."

IN PAN AMERICAN GAMES

U.S. Hoop Team Draws Canada As 1st Opponent

CHICAGO (AP)—The heavily favored United States basketball team Monday drew Canada as its first round opponent in Pan American competition.

The single round robin tournament will open with three games Friday night in DePaul University's alumni hall. Two games nightly will follow, with the wind-up Sunday, Sept. 6.

Puerto Rico will face Cuba in the first game followed by the U.S.-Canada game and El Salvador's contest with Mexico.

Each of the seven teams entered will play each other once. The team winning the most games takes the championship.

In case of a tie the team with the greatest point difference (the spread between points scored and opponent points) will be declared the winner.

The U.S. won the 1951 Pan American basketball title in Buenos Aires with an unbeaten record. The U.S. lost once in the 1955 games in Mexico City, as did Argentina and Brazil, but was given the title on a point differential basis.

The 14-man squad representing Kings County Midget Playoffs Begin This Week

Following are the final standings of the Kings County Midget Baseball League:

Table with 4 columns: Name, W, L, Pts. Morell 6 5 10, Mt. Stewart 6 4 2 8, Peakes 6 2 4 4, St. Peters 6 1 5 2.

CONSERVATIVE RECEPTION

Come and Meet WELLINGTON MacNEILL and ALEX MacPHERSON

C.M.B.A. Hall Vernon River Wednesday, Aug. 26 - 8 P.M.

SPECIAL SPEAKERS Heath Macquarrie, M.P., Dr. J. A. MacMillan

Refreshments Will Be Served SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT

Inscribed by the 4th Queens Progressive Conservative Assn.

Caddies Wear Steel Helmets

HAKONE, Japan (AP)—Now in vogue for caddies at nearby golf courses—steel helmets.

STANDINGS

Table with 4 columns: City, W, L, Pct. GBL. Chicago 74 46 607, Cleveland 73 51 589 2, New York 68 66 496 13 1/2, Baltimore 66 62 462 14 1/2, Detroit 61 64 468 14 1/2, Kansas City 56 66 468 17, Boston 57 67 40 16, Washington 50 74 403 23.

Thunderbirds Knot Series

The Summerside Thunderbirds owned their series with the Grand River Gals last evening defeating the Grand River softball team 12-4 at Grand River.

Wanda Chappell pitched for the Thunderbirds and gave up seven hits, walking one. Geraldine MacKinnon, the losing pitcher was touched for eleven singles and walked four.

For the winners Alve Gallant hit a triple, Betty (Gay) Desjardins, Yvonne Leblanc and Amelia Simmons each a double. The plate umpire was Eric Arsenault and Preston MacCausland was base judge.

SPORTS FRONT

By PIUB CALLAGHAN

RUMORS ARE RAMPANT in Milwaukee, the home of the Braves, of the possible dismissal of Fred Haney from his post as manager of the town's National League team.

It just goes to prove that if nothing succeeds like success then nothing dims as quickly as the shining glory of yesterday's victories. In a way too, it points out that laurels that are rested upon have a way of wilting.

CAIRNES DENIED that Haney's neck was in the noose with the terse "that's ridiculous" answer to the question. He said, "I didn't come here to fire any managers. I came to watch the Braves play baseball."

But the coincidence that kept the pot boiling was the appearance of Bill Norman, recently dethroned mentor of Detroit Tigers, on the scene. Norman said he was working for Bill Veck scouting both the Braves and Dodgers as possible World Series opponents for the Chicago White Sox.

This demonstrates the precarious positions of all major league managers. Haney won the pennant with the Braves two years running. This season his club was more or less expected to make it three in a row. They may do it yet, but at the moment they are running second to the Giants. Still they are right in the middle of the fight and certainly haven't collapsed. But the rumors persist. It would seem in the baseball world that chestnut should be rephrased to read "Nothing succeeds like continued success."

ARCHIE MOORE still believes that someday he will wear the crown of the heavyweight champion of the world.

In a penetrating interview with Montreal Star's Red Fisher Archie laid his beliefs on the line.

Referring to his earlier fight with Floyd Patterson Moore said: "You don't have to remind me I was terrible. But looking back on it, my only excuse was that I was overtrained. I went into the ring with no resistance to punches. Maybe he was lucky but I thought he caught me a good one."

"Do you think I feel good about it," he said. "I let a lot of people down. He was only a kid who had't been anybody, and I let him knock out the old man. But I'm not worried about Patterson any more. I could put him away easily."

"I wouldn't have any trouble with the other guy (Ingemar Johansson) too. ...Let's face it. The only way he got Patterson was to make him come in. That's the only way Patterson can fight. He has to go after his man and start a flurry of punches."

"Johansson would make me come in at him too, but only up to a point. I'd come in just so far and then I'd start using my left jab. I can hurt him with my jab and I can put him away with my right hand. He liked Patterson's style. He won't like mine."

STAN MUSIAL, the St. Louis Cardinals' great who is probably playing his last season in the big time, thinks that the major reason for the demise of the Pittsburgh Pirates as a bona fide pennant contender was the trade involving home run slugger Frank Thomas.

Says Stan the Man: "I said last spring that the Pirates would miss Frank Thomas' bat. You just don't give up 35 homers and 109 runs batted in without feeling the effect. One man, Dick Stuart, can't carry the load. You can pitch around one home run hitter, but if you had Thomas and Stuart hitting together, they'd scare pitchers."

"I thought the Pirates made a mistake when they tinkered around with a team that finished second last year. I thought it was a good, solid team and, when you're successful, why bother with it? If they had finished sixth or seventh they wouldn't have had much to lose by making changes."

Advertisement for Guardian-Patriot Want Ad, most inexpensive salesman you can employ... Phone 8506

Advertisement for Goodyear tires, A BRAND NEW GOODYEAR TIRE, The best possible tire at the lowest possible price, $10.88, MARATHON 6.00/16 or 6.70/15

Large advertisement for B.F. Goodrich tires, Smileage! SAFE DRIVING THIS WEEKEND! SPECIAL LABOUR-DAY TIRE SALE! New B.F. Goodrich Tires at money saving prices. Includes prices for Whitewall and Nylon tires.