Okanagan Valley Orchard To Become Industrial Site

KELOWNA, B.C. (CP) — An apple orchard off a motel-lined highway will become the site of a $4,000,000 industrial development in this Okanagan Valley city.

White Trucks, a division of the White Motor Corp. of Cleveland, Ohio, will build a truck assembly plant designed to serve the western regions of both Canada and the U.S.

The arrival of White Trucks in this primarily agricultural district is the biggest industrial boost for the Okanagan since the federal government designated it one of the areas to benefit under the 1965 Area Development Incentives Act.

The legislation encourages industry to locate in designated areas by allowing a federal grant of one-fifth the cost of plant and equipment or capital investments between $1,000,000 and $25,000,000.

A one-third grant is allowed on investments of up to $250,000.

In addition, companies locating in one of the 65 areas are given a three-year tax holiday and accelerated depreciation allowances on machinery, equipment and buildings.

SAW VANCOUVER
White Trucks studied potential plant sites in the Vancouver area before deciding to locate here.

It cost the company—109th in the list of leading U.S. manufacturers last year—$27,000 to buy 13.6 acres of a 160-acre industrial park from city council buildings covering more than 100,000 square feet are scheduled to be ready by the end of the year.

The first trucks are scheduled to roll from the assembly line by March 31, 1967. Close to 150 persons will be employed at the plant, which has a production aim of from eight to 10 trucks a day.

MAYOR LAUDS PROJECT
Mayor R. F. Parkinson says of the new plant:

"It is just the sort of industry we want here. No smoke or pollution problems but a year-round industry. I think we are just seeing the start of industrial development here."

Norman H. Bell, president of White Motor Company of Canada, Ltd., said that when the company had considered sites on the West Coast in both the U.S. and Canada.

"Canada was chosen because of the benefits of the U.S.-Canada auto agreement," he said. "Kelowna was chosen because it is a designated area."

HANDLE STUDENT HOUSING
TORONTO (CP) — The Ontario government has established a housing authority to deal exclusively with housing for university students and their families.

An order-in-council has established the Ontario Student Housing Corp. with the same powers as the Ontario Housing Corp. The new corporation's charter gives it power to acquire and hold property, build housing projects for sale or rent, manage housing projects and deal with the Central Housing and Mortgage Corp.
