

THE REVISED TARIFF

How the New List Looks as Compared with the Old.

Articles Added to and Taken from the Free List.

Following is a tabulation of the changes in the tariff, as they will be presented to the House for adoption, with a comparison of the former duties with the present. A few of the more unimportant items are not given because of lack of space.

Table with columns for 'Old duty' and 'New duty'. Categories include Animals and their products, Fruits and fruit trees, Breadstuffs, Clothing, Miscellaneous, and various goods like Cattle, Sheep, Hogs, etc.

Table listing various goods and their prices. Items include Lime juice, Ochres, Ornaments of alabaster, Plumbago, Paper bags, Paints, Paper hangings, etc.

had a good deal to do with the Government's not being able to make a reasonable arrangement for the purchase of other estates. Hon. Mr. Bentley, Mr. Peters and Mr. McKay also spoke to the resolution, which was finally ruled out of order by the Speaker, and withdrawn. APRIL 26. Hon. Mr. Gordon submitted a bill to incorporate the King's County Exhibition Association. The Bill was read a first time and referred to the Private Bills Committee. Mr. Shaw asked the Commissioner of Public Works what action the Government intend taking to have the wharf at Dundas repaired this summer; also what action the Government intend taking in answer to the prayer of a petition forwarded to the Executive Council, last year, praying for the opening of a new road on the south side of the Montague River, from the county line to Montague Bridge. Mr. Shaw asked the Commissioner of Public Works what action the Government intend taking with respect to granting the prayer of a petition from the residents of Murray River, Hopefield and Pleasant Valley, asking that the course of the Murray Harbor Road between floating Bridge and Murray River be changed. Mr. Farquharson asked the Commissioner of Public Works to lay upon the table of the House a statement of a survey or return, showing the quantity of land taken by the Government from Stewart Burns for right of way and for which the sum of $250 was paid; also to lay upon the table a detailed statement giving the names and residences of the persons to whom was paid the sum of $304.52 for inquisition on new roads for 1889. Hon. Mr. Bentley replied that the returns would be prepared and submitted as soon as possible. Mr. John McLean asked the Commissioner of Public Works if it is the intention of the Government to open a road on the line between Peter MacDonald's and Allan MacDonald's on the north side of Lot 45; also, if it is the intention of the Government to open the road from main post road to Little Harbor beach, petitioned for for several years past. Hon. Mr. Bentley replied the proposed roads referred to would be considered as soon as possible. Mr. John McLean asked the Leader of the Government what action the Government intend taking with reference to the petition of Michael Foley, Patrick Grady and others, asking for an expenditure of $300 on Terrentum Road during the coming summer, so as to make that road passable for carriages. Hon. Mr. McLeod replied that the Gov't had not yet arrived at a conclusion about the matter. But if the Government could see their way clear to grant the request of the petitioners they would do so. Mr. Shaw asked the Leader of the Government what action the Government intend taking in answer to the prayer of a petition from certain persons at Montague Bridge, asking that steam communication be resumed between that place and Georgetown for the ensuing summer. Hon. Mr. McLeod replied that the matter was under the consideration of the Government. Hon. Mr. Ferguson presented petitions for a survey of a bridge over the Hillsborough River. House, in committee, resumed consideration of the bill respecting elections. After some time progress was reported. House adjourned until Monday. Imported Black Tartarian Oats. Six hundred bushels of Black Tartarian Oats, imported by the Government for distribution among the farmers for seed, arrived last evening. We understand they will be placed in the hands of the following persons for distribution: QUEEN'S COUNTY. A. Horne & Co., Charlottetown. Peter McGrath, Hunter River. Samuel Kennedy, Bradshaw. James Ross, Mount Stewart. Donald A. McLeod, Eldon. PRINCE COUNTY. David Rogers, Summerside. Bowass & Anderson, Kensington. J. O. Arsenault, Wellington. John T. Weeks, Alberton. Capt. Frank Gallant, Tignish. KING'S COUNTY. McDonald Bros., Georgetown. Matthew, McLean & Co., Souris. John P. Sullivan, Head St. Peter's Bay. James E. McDonald, Cardigan. William A. Poole, Lower Montague. As the oats are apportioned between the Counties and Districts, each farmer must apply in his own County. The oats will be sold in sacks of two bushels (of 40 lbs. to the bushel), at $2 per sack, including sack. Cash on delivery. To ensure a fair distribution, each farmer applying will be allowed to purchase only one sack. The price fixed is considerably below cost. Dalhousie College. It is pleasing to note that the honor of delivering the valedictory addresses at the convocation of Dalhousie College, on Thursday last, fell to two young Islanders. The Halifax Morning Chronicle says: 'The valedictory address for the graduating class in arts was delivered by Frederick J. McLeod. It contained many interesting points and many reflections and suggestions which showed much thought and careful preparation. The address was loudly applauded. The valedictory by Humphrey Melish, L. L. B., for the graduating class in law, was an unusually clever one, and was delivered in a very pleasing manner. Mr. Melish was frequently applauded, and showed his ability at repartee when interrupted by the freshmen.' He also delivered the valedictory on taking his degree of B. A. several years ago. SCHOONER AGREED.—The Pictou News says: A schooner from P. E. I. loaded with oats for New Glasgow is aground in the East River and is being unloaded by the Egeron. K. & C. Worth Millions.

A Great "Grit" Movement. (From the Empire) An appeal is being circulated among our business men to give their advertising patronage to what is described, not inappropriately, as "An Universal Medium." The motives suggested are the desire "to take advantage of the opportunity" or "to make a contribution towards the expenses of a very considerable undertaking, the cost of which should be diffused among those interested in promoting a great movement." The nature of the "medium" is explained in the announcement annexed to the circular—evidently a block to be used as an advertisement—which runs as follows: TO FIFTY THOUSAND FARMERS. EXTRACTS FROM SPEECHES OF ERASTUS WIMAN. NOW IN PREPARATION, a pamphlet entitled "FACTS AND FIGURES FOR FARMERS, AND ALL WHO LIVE UPON THEM," being Extracts from Speeches of Erastus Wiman, the subject of Unrestricted Reciprocity. In view of the proposal in the United States Congress to double the tribute now paid into the Treasury of that country by the Farmers of Canada for the privilege of selling their products, the question of a possible free market therein possesses an immediate and personal interest for every farmer far exceeding that of any other subject. Fifty thousand copies of the Pamphlet will be sent free to Farmers and Country Merchants in all parts of the Dominion, the names being selected by Liberal Members of Parliament at Ottawa from Voters' Lists, and a distribution thus secured under their direction among the most influential, the most intelligent, and the most thoughtful men in the country. In order to bear a portion of the expense, a limited number of advertisements will be received at the rate of $15 per half page or $25 for a whole page. It is difficult to conceive of a medium for announcements more direct, more widely diffused, or that will be read with greater avidity and treasured with greater care for future reference by the great class for whom it is intended. The undersigned is instructed to receive and insert advertisements intended for this publication. L. A. TAYLOR, Manager National Publishing Co. 37 Yonge Street, Toronto, March 27, 1890. This announcement is very significant, and will convey useful information to those who are opposed to the "great movement" which its promoters on both sides of the line are endeavoring to advance by underhand means and all the devices of an artificial agitation. This great movement is nothing but the plot, of which traces are appearing in all directions, for bringing about the annexation of Canada to the United States. The clique which is engineering this conspiracy in the United States, though prepared to contribute to the cost of the "movement," including assistance towards the election of their allies at Ottawa, being shrewd business men, are not above receiving any aid towards the cost from others who are interested. Of especial significance, and worthy of notice as a warning, is the announcement that "Liberal" members of Parliament at Ottawa are aiding in the distribution of this medium for promoting the "great movement" for annexation. They are all in one boat; the conspirators in the United States supply campaign literature for the election of their Grit friends with the one-plain platform of an approach to annexation, and the Canadian plotters help their allies on the other side to spread their advocacy of union with the great republic. Indications of the connection between the two wings of this conspiracy and of the activity with which the plot is being carried on in both countries are constantly occurring, and from them we may imagine the underhand work that is going on without detection. The patriotic, loyal men of Canada should be on their guard against this organized effort to surrender their country to a foreign power. LETTERS TO THE EDITOR. Letter from Rev. D. McNeill. SIR,—In THE EXAMINER of yesterday appeared a letter signed "Fred. W. L. Moore." I have not read Mr. Moore's previous letter, and I do not wish to tangle in between him and "G. E. F." My endeavor in this letter is point out the errors into which he has fallen, and reclaim him from them, Mr. Moore condemns prohibition, though he will not be drawn by his opponent to consider the subject in its entirety. He modestly considers it too vast for a private individual, and fit only for the legislature; and yet Mr. Moore is bold enough to condemn it and its promoters, unheard, without discussion. Mr. Moore is an out-and-out advocate for the utmost liberty or license to sellers and drinkers of ardent spirits to do as they please. He maintains that it is illogical to say that the evils caused by drinking and selling liquors warrant their banishment from society, and contends that the rights of rum-sellers and drinkers are as sacred as trial by jury and the rights of conscience. Now, it is a pity that Mr. Moore should not think of other rights more sacred and inalienable than the rights of tipplers. That there are such goes without saying. What has Mr. Moore to say for the rights of families desolated by this very drink? Are not the rights of broken-hearted wives and mothers fit to be compared to the rights of his proteges? Have not the whole community any rights but to fold their hands and let in the flood of intemperance over the land? Surely Mr. Moore has mistaken his calling if he thinks that the rights of rum-sellers should have precedence of all others. But, I maintain that the sellers of ardent spirits should have no rights to madden our dearest earthly friends, and embitter their lives or the life of anyone. Self-preservation is the first law of nature. The liquor traffic violates that law. It kills us by the hundreds and thousands. Our hospitals, jails and lunatic asylums are continually filled by this one potent evil. Is it any wonder that the world should cry out: "O Liberty, what untold evils have been done in thy name!" D.
