White - Allain Wedding

The marriage of Miss Eva Allain, formerly of St. Edward, and Mr. John White of Halifax, N.S., was solemnized at St. Helen Church, Toronto, with Reverend Monsignor O'Connor officiating at the nuptial Mass.

The bride was dressed in a floor-length dress of white satin trimmed with lace, and wore a shoulder-length veil caught with orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses and baby's breath.

Her maid of honor was Miss Pauline Bruce of Toronto, who wore a mauve colored dress and carried yellow roses and sweet peas, while the groom was supported by Mr. Wilfrid White.

After a brief honeymoon spent in Long Island, New York, Mr. and Mrs. White will reside in Toronto.

Mrs. White is the adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gaudet of St. Edward.

Morrison-MacKinnon Wedding

The following account of a recent wedding in Doaktown, N.B., will be of interest to many friends in this Province: "Pink and mauve gladioli, white mums and snapdragon were used to create the setting for the wedding at St. Thomas United Church, Doaktown, N.B., of Moyra Marie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. MacKinnon Sr., and Daniel Raymond, son of Mr. and Mrs. T.D. Morrison of Summerside, P.E.I. Rev. C. Windsor officiated at the double ring ceremony, and Miss Thelma Ballard was organist.

Mr. MacKinnon gave his daughter in marriage. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white embossed Swiss organza, with triple skirt forming frills around the bottom. A fitted bodice with Queen Anne collar and large sleeves, gathered into a fitted elbow length cuff, fastened with tiny buttons. A halo of lily of the valley held her finger-tip veil of French silk illusion. She carried a small bouquet of white roses and stephanotis, tied with ribbon from her mother's wedding bouquet. Her only ornament was a solid gold cross and chain, the gift of the groom.

Matron of honor was her sister, Mrs. A. M. Salter of Halifax, N.S., and the bridesmaid was Miss Barbara Morrison of Summerside, sister of the groom.

David Morrison, brother of the groom, was groomsmen, and W.R. MacKinnon, Jr., and Alan Lecky were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the bride's home. Later the couple left on a motor trip to Niagara Falls, the bride travelling in a navy gabardine suit with navy and white accessories, and wearing a corsage of pink rosebuds."

Smith - Gaudet Wedding

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Immaculate Conception Church, Palmer Road, on August 20th when Miss Mae Gaudet, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Gaudet of St. Louis was united in marriage with Mr. Kenneth Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reagh Smith of Kildare Capes. Reverend Patrick Walsh performed the ceremony and also celebrated the nuptial Mass.

The bride was charmingly dressed in a white floor-length dress of white satin with finger-tip veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of sweetheart roses.

Her bridesmaid was Miss Catherine Gaudet, while the groom was supported by Mr. Joseph Allain of St. Edward.

A sumptuous wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride to a large crowd of relatives and close friends. The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gaudet of Connecticut; Mrs. Joseph Poirier and Miss Esther Richard of Collette, N.B., and Mrs. Herbert, George and Gerald Herbert, and Mrs. Russell of Maine.

In the evening the bridal party motored to the groom's home in Kildare Capes, where a supper was served to the immediate families of the bride and groom.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith will reside in Kildare Capes, where their many friends wish them every happiness.

MacQuarrie - MacMurdo Wedding

Blue skies and bright sunshine were a happy combination on Saturday morning, September 1st, when the marriage was solemnized in First United Church, Kensington, of Kathlene Eleanor, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Percy MacMurdo, Kelvin Grove, P. E. Island, and Robert Waldron, elder son of the Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, Hopewell, N. S.

The church was beautifully decorated with gladioli and sweet peas in shades of pink and mauve, and with sunshine peering through the stained glass windows, made a charming setting for the ceremony.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, the Rev. L. M. Murray, B.A., D.D., assisted by the father of the groom, Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, D.D.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in her white bridal gown of pleated nylon net over satin with lace cuffs and slight train. She wore matching mitts. A halo of orange blossoms held in place the veil of white embroidered net which fell in folds to the floor. Her only ornament was a triple strand of Gainsborough pearls, gift of the groom. Snapdragons and mums with Baby's Breath and fern, created her beautiful cascade bouquet.

Miss Margaret MacMurdo, cousin of the bride, was her only attendant. She wore a beautiful gown of blue, with full skirt of silk net, and fitted bodice of lace. Her head-dress and mitts matched her dress, and she carried a colonial bouquet of carnations and sweet peas.

George MacMurdo, brother of the bride, supported the groom, and Ian MacMurdo and Robert Schurman ushered.

The guest pews were marked with white satin ribbon and sweet peas.

The wedding music was played by the church organist, Mrs. J. H. Walker. Mrs. L. M. Callbeck, aunt of the bride, sang most effectively, "Still As The Night".

The bride's mother was attractively attired in black over-shot with white and rust. She wore a matching corsage of snapdragon and fern and her accessories were black velvet.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party and guests, numbering about sixty, motored to Birch Hill Lodge where dinner was served. The tables were nicely decorated with cut flowers and lighted tapers while a prettily decorated three-tier wedding cake

Delaney - Myers Wedding

A pretty but quiet wedding of interest to a large circle of friends and relatives on Prince Edward Island took place in St. Columba United Church, St. Clair St., Toronto, Ont., on Saturday, Aug. 11, 1951, when Doris Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Myers, Hampton, P. E. I., exchanged vows with Heath Morrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Parker Delaney, North Tryon, P. E. I.

In the presence of a number of friends and relatives from Toronto and P. E. I., the bridal party took up their position in the sanctuary of the church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. R. B. Ross, M.A., D.D.

The sanctuary of the church was tastefully decorated for the occasion with standards of white gladioli.

The bride chose for her wedding a light blue gabardine suit, with navy accessories, and wore a corsage of red and white roses and baby mums.

The bridesmaid, Miss Adele Sobey, was attired in a pearl grey gabardine suit with pink accessories, and wore a corsage of pink and white roses, and baby mums.

The groom was ably supported by a close friend, Mr. Arthur Thomas.

After congratulations had been extended, the happy couple left by bus to spend a short honeymoon at Niagara Falls. On their return they took up residence at 370 Lauder Ave. The happy couple are both employed in the head office of Canada Packers Co. Ltd.
